Energy Poverty Antoine Halff, Benjamin K. Sovacool, Jon Rozhon, 2014 An edited volume on energy poverty Nearly one quarter of humanity still lacks access to electricity Close to one third rely on traditional fuels like firewood and cow dung for cooking at great cost to their health and welfare The chapters explain the scope of the problem and suggest practical ways to fix it

Cultural Anthropology John H. Bodley, 2011-04-16 This introductory text introduces basic concepts in cultural anthropology by comparing cultures of increasing scale and focusing on specific universal issues throughout human history Cultural materials are presented in integrated ethnographic case studies organized by cultural and geographic areas to show how ideological social organization and material features fit together in specific sociocultural systems John H Bodley explicitly seeks a balance between ecological materialist and cultural ideological explanations of sociocultural systems while stressing the importance of individual power seeking and human agency Part One examines domestic scale autonomous tribal cultures Part Two presents politically organized class based civilizations and ancient empires in the imperial world Part Three surveys global industrial market based civilizations in the contemporary commercial world Cultural Anthropology uniquely challenges students to consider the big questions about the nature of cultural systems

The Challenge of Local Government Size Santiago Lago-Peñas, Jorge Martinez-Vazquez, 2013-07-01 In the efficient delivery of local public services size matters Many countries around the world have vertical government structures that are perceived as inefficient because of their high levels of jurisdictional fragmentation This timely volume examines the different strategies used to address local government fragmentation and their observed results and consequences Expert contributors in economics and political science offer a comprehensive breakdown of the issue of local jurisdiction fragmentation and provide recommendations for successful policy reform Topics discussed include economies of scale the costs and benefits of voluntary and forced amalgamation programs the correlation between government size and corruption privatization and inter municipal cooperation A combination of theory and empirical evidence provides depth and makes this book an invaluable addition to the literature Economists public administrators and political scientists will find much of interest in this innovative volume as will professors students and international institutions with an interest in local government structure and reform

The Mauritian Paradox Ramtohul, Ramola, Eriksen, Thomas Hylland, 2018-04-12 Speaking of Mauritius as an economic miracle has become a cliché and with good reason Its development since Independence in 1968 can easily be narrated as a rags to riches story In addition it is a stable democracy capable of containing the conflict potential inherent in its complex ethnic and religious demography This book brings together some of the finest scholarship domestic as well as foreign on contemporary Mauritius offering perspectives from constitutional law cultural studies sociology archaeology economics social anthropology and more While celebrating the indisputable and impressive achievements of the Mauritian nation on its fiftieth birthday this book is far from toothless Looking back inevitably implies looking ahead and in order to do so critical self scrutiny is essential to be able to learn from the mistakes of the past The contributors raise fundamental questions concerning a broad range of issues from the dilemmas of multiculturalism to the marginal role of women in public life from the question of constitutional reform and the continued problem of corruption to the slow destruction of Mauritius joy and pride namely the beauty and purity of its natural scenery Taking stock of the first fifty years this book also looks ahead to the next fifty years giving some cues as to where Mauritius can and should aim in the next decades Administrative Report H ,1985 Developing

Capacity for Community Governance of Natural Resources Theory & Practice Brian Child & Deborah Wojcik,2014-05 Community based natural resource management CBNRM is a compelling concept that combines community custodianship of natural resources with sustainable development and poverty reduction However there is a large gap between the conceptual promise and actual performance of CBNRM CBNRM is complex and challenging and one of the major challenges is what we call micro governance how to replace the ubiquitous problem of elite capture within communities with genuine participation and equitable benefit sharing This book is for people want to understand and implement CBNRM governance more effectively including graduate students scholars and practitioners It is targeted most specifically at the scholar practitioner who wants to draw upon micro governance theory to know why and how to work with communities to implement sound local institutions the perspectives and resources presented have been developed and tested over many years working with CBNRM communities in southern Africa the book offers convincing evidence for preferring participatory democracy over representational forms of governance and discusses how to manage the scale paradox that economies and ecologies are better managed at larger scales but that larger representational institutions invariably forfeit critical public goods like participation and equitable benefit sharing the book s purpose is to provide the reader with the practical tools to operationalize good governance at the village level in ways that are theoretically sound It provides the reader with theoretical insights and practical lessons about micro governance in the context of CBNRM tools for designing and implementing conceptually rigorous community constitutions that enable communities to govern themselves fairly and effectively and resources for developing the management and monitoring systems necessary to protect these conditions

Everyday humanitarianism in Cambodia Anne-Meike Fechter, 2023-10-24 Faced with the scale of global challenges such as poverty and inequality one question is where to start Humanitarian efforts can only ever have limited reach Among all of human suffering whom should we support And what shapes our choices Such questions are at the core of this book Through an ethnographic account of moralities it traces how everyday humanitarian practitioners challenge entrenched values of what matters upending the notion that the large scale is inherently important and even questioning what large means in the first place Instead these practitioners typically aim to create a difference in the life of a particular person situating their limited actions within pervasive poverty The Country Gentleman ,1908 Forest Policy F.C.
