Film Music: A History James Wierzbicki,2009-01-21 Film Music A History explains the development of film music by considering large scale aesthetic trends and structural developments alongside socioeconomic technological cultural and philosophical circumstances The book's four large parts are given over to Music and the Silent Film 1894 1927 Music and the Early Sound Film 1895 1933 Music in the Classical Style Hollywood Film 1933 1960 and Film Music in the Post Classic Period 1958 2008 Whereas most treatments of the subject are simply chronicles of great film scores and their composers this book offers a genuine history of film music in terms of societal changes and technological and economic developments within the film industry Instead of celebrating film music masterpieces it deals logically and thoroughly with the complex machine whose smooth running allowed those occasional masterpieces to happen and whose periodic adjustments prompted the large scale twists and turns in film music's path

Hollywood's Unofficial Film Corps Michael Berkowitz,2025-01-14 It has long been known that Hollywood was actively involved in shaping US public opinion during World War II. Less well documented are the ways in which Washington sought to work behind the scenes subtly obliterating the boundaries between studio and government films. Michael Berkowitz studies the contributions of humorist and best selling author Leo Rosten The Joys of Yiddish, The Education of H Y M A N K A P L A N and writer producer and screenwriter Budd Schulberg On the Waterfront, A Face in the Crowd in order to examine the elusive story of Jewish Hollywood's role in World War II. Hollywood's Unofficial Film Corps shows that Rosten, Schulberg and others including Garson Kanin, George Cukor, Stanley Kramer and Jules Buck created movies that were both entertaining and politically expeditious for US war aims. At the same time, in an effort to unify the American public, they avoided focusing on the fate of European Jews even while addressing racism and antisemitism in the United States. Jewish themes were often downplayed and Jewish directors, writers and other contributors frequently went uncredited. As Berkowitz writes, Rosten's cohort changed feature films forever. Thanks to his research, we now have a better understanding of how and why.

Music by Max Steiner Steven C. Smith, 2020-04-03. During a seven decade career that spanned from 19th century Vienna to 1920s Broadway to the golden age of Hollywood, three time Academy Award winner Max Steiner did more than any other composer to introduce and establish the language of film music. Indeed, revered contemporary film composers like John Williams and Danny Elfman use the same techniques that Steiner himself perfected in his iconic work for such classics as Casablanca, King Kong, Gone with the Wind, The Searchers, Now Voyager, The Astaire Rogers musicals and over 200 other titles. And Steiner's private life was a drama all its own. Born into a legendary Austrian theatrical dynasty, he became one of Hollywood's top paid composers. But he was also constantly in debt, the inevitable result of gambling, financial mismanagement, four marriages and the actions of his emotionally troubled son. Throughout his chaotic life, Steiner was buoyed by an innate optimism, a quick wit and an instinctive gift for melody, all of which would come to the fore as he met and worked with luminaries like Richard Strauss, George Gershwin, Irving Berlin, the Warner Bros, David O. Selznick, Bette Davis, Frank Sinatra and Frank Capra. In Music by Max Steiner, the first full biography of Steiner, author Steven C. Smith interweaves the dramatic incidents of Steiner's personal life with an accessible exploration of his composing methods and experiences, bringing to life the previously untold story of a musical pioneer and master dramatist who helped create a vital new art with some of the greatest film scores in cinema history.
