ABSTRACT: Adapted from a recent lecture, this paper provides an historical and analytical overview of the development of the discipline of International Criminal Law identifying links and points of distinction from the cognate disciplines of Transnational Criminal Law and Conflict of Laws.

Key words:

- International criminal law
- International law of jurisdiction
- Conflict of laws
- Suppression conventions

1. INTRODUCTION

The distinguished editors of a 2021 collection of essays on the history of Transnational Criminal Law (to which I contributed) offer some definitions in their Introduction.^{1,2} They distinguish between a narrow group of ‘crimes under international law’ and a broader category which includes ‘transnational criminal law:’

Crimes under international law (core crimes) ‘are any crimes that involve direct responsibility under international law.’³ These so-called ‘core crimes’⁴ genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes and aggression, are the ‘most serious crimes of concern to the international community.’⁵ In contrast, the term ‘international crime’ is best reserved to include all crimes with an international element, no matter how peripheral.⁶

International Criminal Law (lato sensu) means all norms of criminal law that have some relationship with an international or foreign law norm whether direct or indirect
