Now the story of Shibli Bagarag and of the ball he followed and of the subterranean kingdom he came to and of the enchanted palace he entered and of the sleeping king he shaved and of the two princesses he released and of the Afrite held in subjection by the arts of one and bottled by her is it not known as twere written on the finger nails of men and traced in their corner robes. As the poet says: Ripe with oft telling and old is the tale. But tis of the sort that can never grow stale. Now things were in that condition with Shibli Bagarag that on a certain day he was hungry and abject and the city
