The Outlaw's Story Derek Pedley, 2007-07-31 Brenden James Abbott was the most wanted man in Australia He became as famous for his ability to elude the authorities This book reveals how he pulled off two daring escapes from maximum security prisons and executed some of Australia's most profitable and complex bank robberies

A Genealogy of Modernism Michael Harry Levenson, 1986-06-27 A Genealogy of Modernism is a study of literary transition in the first two decades of the twentieth century a period of extraordinary ferment and great accomplishment during which the avant garde gradually consolidated a secure place within English culture Michael Levenson analyses that complex process by following the successive phases of a literary movement Impressionist Imagist Vorticist Classicist as it attempted to formulate the principles on which a new aesthetic might be founded The emphasis here falls on the ideology of modernism but throughout the book the ideological question is tied on the one hand to specific literary works and on the other to general movements in philosophy and the fine arts The major figures under discussion Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Ezra Pound Wyndham Lewis and T S Eliot are placed in relation to thinkers who have been largely neglected in the history of modernism Max Stirner Wilhelm Worringer Pierre Lasserre Allen Upward and Hilaire Belloc Levenson thus situates the emergence of a modernist aesthetic within the context of literary theory literary practice and cultural history

Solitude Versus Solidarity in the Novels of Joseph Conrad Ursula Lord, 1998-04-17 Ursula Lord explores the manifestations in narrative structure of epistemological relativism textual reflexivity and political inquiry specifically Conrad's critique of colonialism and imperialism and his concern for the relationship between self and society The tension between solitude and solidarity manifests itself as a soul divided against itself an individual torn between engagement and detachment idealism and cynicism a dramatized narrator who himself embodies the contradictions between radical individualism and social cohesion a society that professes the ideal of shared responsibility while isolating the individual guilty of betraying the illusion of cultural or professional solidarity Conrad's complexity and ambiguity his conflicting allegiances to the ideal of solidarity versus the terrible insight of unrelenting solitude his grappling with the dilemma of private versus shared meaning are intrinsic to his political and philosophical thought The metanarrative focus of Conrad's texts intensifies rather than diminishes their philosophical and political concerns Formal experimentation and epistemological exploration inevitably entail ethical and social implications Lord relates these issues with intellectual rigour to the dialectic of individual liberty and collective responsibility that lies at the core of the modern moral and political debate permanent state of exception Pynchon and Bola o react to the excesses and distortions of the modern age with a new poetic and aesthetic paradigm that rejects both the naive illusion of a return to the real and the self enclosed artificiality of classical postmodern writing hyperbolic realism
