Some Mothers Son:

Some Mother's Son Terry George, Jim Sheridan, 1996 In 1980 and 1981 imprisoned Irish Nationalists embarked on a hunger strike to protest Margaret Thatcher's British government Empowered by their belief that they were prisoners of war rather than convicted criminals the young men refused to wear prisoners uniforms and began a hunger strike to protest their status both in prison and in terror stricken Northern Ireland Led by Bobby Sands who was elected to Parliament while on strike in jail and supported by the firepower of the IRA the prisoners endured a grueling test of faith and will Some Mother's Son tells their story through the shared experience of two mothers one a strident nationalist the other a pacifist who must come to terms with the political beliefs that may take their sons lives

Mothers of Heroes, Mothers of Martyrs Suzanne Evans, 2007-02-09 Suzanne Evans finds commonalities between the many images of war mothers the Canadian Silver Cross mother the ancient Jewish Maccabean mother of seven martyred sons the mother of a Palestinian suicide bomber She compares the lore about mothers of martyrs in the Judeo Christian Muslim and Sikh traditions with stories of World War I Canadian mothers who were depicted in the media as having sacrificed their sons for the sake of civilization justice freedom and God After the war these mothers were honoured with the Silver Cross medal Evans argues that like the mothers of past martyrs the image of the war supportive mother in Canada had a powerful influence over public opinion and drew supporters to the cause

Irish Film Martin McLoone, 2019-07-25 This is an exploration of the representation of Ireland and the Irish in British and US cinemas as well as Irish made films The book offers readings of a wide range of key films such as The Butcher Boy 1997 Patriot Games 1992 and Angela's Ashes 1999 It discusses the full range of Irish cinematic productions from the low budget work of Comerford and Breathnach to the bigger Hollywood productions like Ron Howard's Far and Away 1992 and looks at the second cinema of directors such as Neil Jordan and Jim Sheridan where medium sized budgets allow for greater creative control in Ireland Feeding into wider debates about national and cultural identity post national cinema and the role of the state the book provides an overview of how a relatively small film culture such as Ireland's can live successfully in the shadow of Hollywood

Ten Acres C. Joseph Socha, 2009-07-08 Ten Acres is about a dream a hope of the main character Joseph Novak After over four years service in the Navy in World War II and seeing people dying and starving he vows that after the War he would find some place of peace to wash the horrors of war that continued to crowd his mind This is about how his search for peace and life progressed

Lift Up Your Hearts James A. Wallace, Robert P. Waznak, Guerric DeBona, 2005-11 This brilliant collection of homilies draws on the Sunday and feast day readings to demonstrate the relevance of biblical interpretation to the life of a community and its members The purpose of each homily is to address listeners who have gathered for worship by helping them to recognize that God is living present and active in the world and also by helping them respond to God's presence by giving praise and thanks and by living a life that accords with the teachings of Jesus Taken together they constitute a valuable resource for the homilist in the creation of future sermons of equal relevance to the time and circumstances under which they are delivered This second volume comes out of the same vision as its companion volume of homilies for the A cycle At the heart of the B cycle of readings is the Gospel of Mark which is widely believed to be the oldest of the four gospels and the authors present these homilies as material for reflection by both preachers and listeners

The Community House Don Hildebrand,2013 Mayor Hank Smid learned early on July 8 1900 that his family bank had been robbed and his long time friend murdered Small Midwestern town Snyder ville would never be the same The beginning of the twentieth century now required the two struggling cultural groups to resolve their differences if progress was to be achieved Wealthy land baron Fenton and the town people were compelled to work together and a new meeting place a community house appeared to be the answer Draining the low swampy areas surrounding the town was finally accomplished after a gigantic grain elevator fire a tornado a diphtheria epidemic a rape murder and other natural and human disasters of epic proportions Electricity finally arrived and changed the mood of all the inhabitants Now issues of capital punishment women s rights and political agendas were readily apparent The trial of the two men accused of murder in the 1900 bank robbery was held in the newly dedicated Community House and the spectacular trial drew national attention Significant attention was focused on Gerhard Smid as he prosecuted the defendants and skillfully introduced trial tactics dealing with issues of capital punishment

The Social Hygiene Bulletin ,1917 Sex, Race, and God Susan Thistlethwaite,2009-04-01 Sex Race and God is the impassioned manifesto of a white feminist s reckoning with the meaning of race including her own whiteness in doing theology We should be discussing and acting on many of Thistlethwaite s insights for quite some time She has made a vital contribution to the feminist theological enterprise and to the critical relationship between black and white women in it Carter Heyward Sex Race and God is a sincere attempt to listen to and learn from African American women a serious and largely successful effort to create a method that addresses differences rather than proposing wishful commonalities Many women of color will find it promising a basis for dialogue The Women s Review of Books This pivotal book illuminates a significant ongoing debate at the intersection of two fields contemporary theology and feminist studies Choice Thistlethwaite does what so few white feminists have done genuinely interact with and learn from the strong differences in experience and perspective between African American women and European American women The Other Side

Cinema and Northern Ireland John Hill,2019-07-25 Traces the history of film production in Northern Ireland from the beginnings of a local film industry in the 1920s and 1930s when the first Northern Irish quota quickies were made through the propaganda films of the 1940s and 1950s and on to the cinema of the Troubles

Nation and Gender in Contemporary Europe Vera Tolz,Stephenie Booth,2005 Building on the growing body of theoretical literature on the gendered nature of nationalism this book offers a systematic examination of similarities and differences in the construction of gender and national identities in post communist societies of Eastern and East Central

Europe as well as established and the more stable democracies of Western Europe It points to some of the key sources of inevitable tensions in the future united Europe which stem from different perceptions of national and gender roles in different parts of the continent     Well Connected Dianna Booher,2000-05-07 Conference calls faxes email the World Wide Web With so many powerful ways to communicate why do I feel so alone If you re feeling increasingly disconnected from the rest of the world says communications expert Dianna Booher you have plenty of company The fact is that while technology can do many things it cannot nurture our souls However this book can The inspirational stories found on these pages not only feed our spirits they remind us of our need to nurture the spirits of others They illustrate the power each of us has to influence the attitudes actions and eternal destinies of those around us one person at a time one situation at a time and one interaction at a time We need one another Booher claims The connections we make with the people God places in our lives friends family coworkers acquaintances neighbors strangers provide us with nourishment insight and emotional strength In essence plugging into others powers our souls You re the same today as you ll be in five years except for the people you meet and the books you read Dianna Booher quotes a friend Make it a point to meet someone new And read this book It will change the way you see the world and help you reshape it into a place where every individual is valued respected and loved

The Contemporary Woman Michele Guinness,2021-04-15 At a time when the status of women is still being debated and challenged how can women play a leading role in society the workplace and the church Michele Guinness has been there and done that not without opposition and not without compromise In this all embracing honest reflection on womanhood Michele uses her own upbringing in the Jewish community to re examine the views and counterviews on the role of women throughout the Christian tradition and culture drawing inspiration from scripture history and personal experience The Contemporary Woman celebrates a host of women through the ages from the great biblical matriarchs to the modern day trailblazers who have inherited a passionate determination to pursue God s radical call Michele will encourage women everywhere of every age to follow their hearts and inspire a new generation to discover what it means to be a woman

Advocate and Family Guardian ,1859     Genre and Cinema Brian McIlroy,2012-08-06 This impressive volume takes a broad critical look at Irish and Irish related cinema through the lens of genre theory and criticism Secondary and related objectives of the book are to cover key genres and sub genres and account for their popularity The result offers new ways of looking at Irish cinema     The Bright Fabric of Life Mhairi Collie,2024-09-05 A feel good uplifting tale of two women who make a life changing connection In Ethiopia beautiful Sylvie s successful life is derailed by a disastrous childbirth With no money and no hope all seems lost In London feisty Juliet is struggling with the many challenges facing a female surgeon as well as inner traumas of her own Unsure how to balance career love and life she escapes to Ethiopia Under the vast African sky these two women s lives are unexpectedly brought together Can they help each other come to terms with their pasts And will they be able to see a bright future on the horizon Published with the support of global best selling writer Alexander

McCall Smith Proceeds from this book go to the Uganda Childbirth Injury Fund <https://www.ucif.co.uk> Patrick Lyoya killed by the police: What did I do wrong? Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2022 This work focuses on the tragic murder of Patrick Lyoya an immigrant from the Democratic Republic of Congo who was shot and killed by a police officer in Grand Rapids Michigan in April 2022 The case attracted national attention and drew reactions from around the world It was also covered by international media outlets including BBC and Aljazeera The author looks at the murder in the broader context of race relations and at relations between blacks and the police in Grand Rapids and across the country He also addresses problems of re adjustment to a new life in a new country African immigrants face in the United States Patrick Lyoya faced those problems He also explains although only briefly why the tragedy is inextricably linked with the fate of Lyoya s homeland in a geopolitical context where Western countries have played a critical role in determining the destiny of the country which has earned the unenviable distinction as the bleeding heart of Africa He also briefly examines globalisation which he describes as a new form of imperialism in the post Cold War era and how it is used to justify exploitation of Africa s natural resources including the Democratic Republic of Congo s vast amounts of minerals and how industrialised nations have helped to impoverish the country and fuel conflict there resulting in the death of millions of people and forcing countless others to flee and seek refuge in other countries including the United States Patrick Lyoya and his family and more than 8 000 other Congolese who settled in Grand Rapids were some of them Although the work briefly examines the ties the United States has had with the Democratic Republic of Congo since independence in the sixties when the country was known as Congo Leopoldville a relationship inextricably linked with the destiny of Congolese refugees who settled in Grand Rapids and other parts of the country its main focus is on the murder of Patrick Lyoya why he was killed what contributed to his murder and other factors about the tragedy The uncertainty of the trial date for this case influenced publication of the book Both sides the defence and the prosecution said they did not know when the trial would take place and implied it would be in 2023 and may be even in the last months of the year They said in November 2022 that it would be many months before the case goes to court a factor that played a major role in reaching the decision to have the book published before the trial It complements the author s forthcoming work Shattered Dreams Race and Justice TLA Film, Video, & DVD Guide, 2002-2003 David Bleiler, 2025-09-23 The TLA Film Video from This Is Spinal Tap to Ma Vie en Rose
