Some Early Australianmen:

Early Australian History. Convict Life in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land Charles White, 2023-11-21 In Early Australian History Convict Life in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land Charles White provides an intricate exploration of the convict era in Australia meticulously charting the social economic and psychological impacts of transportation on both the convicts and the colonial society White employs a scholarly yet accessible narrative style intertwining historical facts with vivid personal accounts and primary sources thus offering a multifaceted view of life in the penal colonies This book not only serves as an essential chronicle of the period but also critiques the broader implications of colonialism and the evolution of Australian identity in the 19th century Charles White a historian with a profound interest in Australia's early colonial history draws from extensive research and personal ties to the region to shed light on a largely overlooked chapter in Australian literature His dedication stems from a desire to give voice to the convicts who are often reduced to mere statistics in academic discussions as well as to detail the harsh realities and complexities of their existence in a foreign land This compelling book is a must read for scholars students and general readers alike as it enriches our understanding of Australia's penal heritage and the resilience of the human spirit Through White's insightful analysis readers are invited to engage with the foundational narratives of Australia and to reflect on the historical trajectories that shape contemporary society Some Old Bloke Robert Llewellyn, 2018-11-01 When writer comedian and Red Dwarf actor Robert Llewellyn's son scrawled a picture of him at Christmas and titled it Some Old Bloke Robert was cast deep into thought about life and what it means to be a bloke and an old one at that In this lighthearted revealing and occasionally philosophical autobiography we take a meandering route through Robert's life and career from the sensitive young boy at odds with his ex military father through his stint as a hippy and his years of arrested development in the world of fringe comedy all the way up to the full body medicals and hard earned insights of middle age Whether he is waxing lyrical about fresh laundry making an impassioned case for the importance of alternative energy or recounting a detailed history of the dogs in his life Robert presents a refreshingly open and uncynical look at the world at large and of course the joys of being a bloke Early Australian Voyages: Pelsart, Tasman, Dampier John Pinkerton, 2022-09-04 In Early Australian Voyages Pelsart Tasman Dampier John Pinkerton offers a meticulously crafted examination of the formative maritime expeditions that shaped Australia's early European presence Through a blend of narrative and analysis Pinkerton delves into the voyages of pivotal figures such as Francois Pelsart Abel Tasman and William Dampier presenting their explorations not merely as historical events but as significant cultural encounters that influenced Europe's understanding of the Australian continent Employing a scholarly style rich in primary sources and vivid descriptions Pinkerton situates these expeditions within the broader context of 17th century exploration highlighting the intersection of curiosity commerce and colonial ambition prevalent during the Age of Discovery John Pinkerton a noted historian and geographer drew upon his extensive background in the study of exploration and maritime history to bring this work to fruition His interest in the subject was sparked by both personal encounters with maritime literature and a passion for Australia s intricate colonial past Pinkerton s earlier works have established him as a leading voice in the field lending credibility to his insights into the navigational challenges and ethnographic observations made by these early explorers For scholars maritime enthusiasts and casual readers alike Pinkerton s Early Australian Voyages is an essential addition to the canon of Australian history Its rich scholarship and engaging prose compel readers to appreciate the complexities and consequences of these early voyages providing both a deeper understanding of Australia s colonial legacy and an evocative portrait of the sea faring age that sought to map its shores Early Australian Voyages John Pinkerton,2001-07 The Essential Library presents John Pinkerton s Early Australian Voyages a captivating account of true life stories of courage and daring Meet the brave explorers who were the first to cross the uncharted seas This heirloom edition is part of an entertaining collection of hard to find works of non fiction Visit www.EssentialLibrary.com to see all the titles in this series The Australian Journal ,1866 Australian Forestry Journal New South Wales. Australian Bushrangers 1788-1880 Ian Knight,2019-05-30 The first bushrangers or frontier outlaws were escaped or time expired convicts who took to the wilderness the bush in New South Wales and on the island of Tasmania Initially the only Crown forces available were redcoats from the small scattered garrisons but by 1825 the problem of outlawry led to the formation of the first Mounted Police from these soldiers The gold strikes of the 1860s attracted a new group of men who preferred to get rich by the gun rather than the shovel The roads and later railways that linked the mines with the cities offered many tempting targets and were preyed upon by the bushrangers This 1860s generation boasted many famous outlaws who passed into legend for their boldness The last outbreak came in Victoria in 1880 when the notorious Kelly Gang staged several hold ups and deliberately ambushed the pursuing police Their last stand at Glenrowan has become a legendary episode in Australian history Fully illustrated with some rare period photographs this is the fascinating story of Australia s most infamous outlaws and the men tasked with tracking them down

The Truth Behind Men In Black Jenny Randles,1997-08-15 Stranger than the X Files Darker than your worst nightmares And all too true You ve just spotted it Strange circular and whizzing through the night sky You ve never seen anything like it in your life you think it might be a UFO As you turn around to head back to your house someone taps you on the shoulder and the nightmare has just begun It s a phenomenon as old as the sighting of UFOs and perhaps stranger than the sightings themselves Men in Black With eerie consistency UFO witnesses around the world report their presence after a sighting or alien abduction But who are these shadowy figures men dressed in dark clothing who seem to know intimate details about witnesses lives and who strike unearthly fear in these people in order to keep them quiet about what they saw Are they just a figment of overactive imaginations Are they government agents Secret Service men Aliens Or part of a much darker force whose urgent mission remains veiled in mystery For the first time ever renowned UFO expert Jenny Randles blows the lid off this fascinating and even life threatening phenomenon Through extraordinary case histories of real life encounters Randles sheds stunning new light on these ominous strangers known as Men in Black men who will protect extraterrestrial secrets at any cost

The Family Among the Australian Aborigines: A Sociological Study Bronislaw Malinowski,2020-09-28 The problem of the social forms of family life still presents some obscurities What appears to be most urgently needed is a careful investigation of facts in all the different ethnographical areas I propose in this study to undertake this task for Australia I shall avoid making any hypothetical assumptions or discussing general problems which refer to the origin or evolution of the family I wish only to describe in correct terms and as thoroughly as possible all that refers to actual family life in Australia In other words I intend to give in outline the social morphology of the Australian family It may be well to show briefly the necessity for this task which to some may appear superfluous and to indicate the lines on which it will be attempted In the first place there are some contradictions with regard to the problem of relationship or kinship in Australia which can be reduced to the question Is kinship in Australia exclusively individual or is it exclusively group kinship or tribal kinship as it often is called and further do these two forms exclude each other or do they perhaps exist side by side When Howitt says The social unit is not the individual but the group the former merely takes the relationships of his group which are of group to group this obviously means that there is no individual relationship consequently no individual family in Australia It is important to note that the passage just quoted is placed in the chapter on Relationship in Howitt s chief work on Australia and that consequently it refers to all the tribes described by the author i e to the majority of the known Australian tribes The same opinion that there is only group relationship and no individual family is supported by another passage no less important and general for it is placed at the conclusion of Howitt s article on the organization of the Australian tribes in general It has been shown that the fundamental idea in the conception of an Australian community is its division into two groups The relationships which obtain between the members of them are also those of group to group And again The unit of aboriginal society is therefore not the individual but the group It is the group which marries the group and which begets the group There are also a few passages in Spencer and Gillen which deny the existence of the individual family at least in some tribes

Geographic History of Queensland Archibald Meston,1895 Australian Social Policy and the Human Services Ed Carson,Lorraine Kerr,2013-09-23 Australian Social Policy and the Human Services contends that human service practitioners benefit from understanding the relationship between social policy the human services and their own practices In this comprehensive introduction to the subject readers are encouraged to develop their policy literacy or critical understanding of the development implementation and evaluation of social policies Part I explores the debates and organising principles of social policy and the human services Part II focuses on the development and delivery of social policy including its history and a discussion of the Third Sector in Australia Part III covers specific areas of social policy income maintenance employment housing health care family and child care and indigenous social policy Emerging issues such as globalisation and sustainability are examined in Part IV Each chapter features discussion points exercises case studies further reading lists and links with the Australian Association of Social Workers Practice Standards 2013 The Imaginary Australian Miriam Dixon,1999 Examination of the nature of Australian national identity includes reference to Aborigines discussed in terms of violence racism guilt remorse and memory questions the characterisation of race relations through forgetting and silence Stanner and violence Rowley argues that simplified historical narratives about race relations impede reparative energy in race relations psychological understanding of racism theories of the nation crisis of history and time in Australia and its impact on identity Australia for Women Susan Hawthorne, Renate Klein, 1994 Australia is a land full of opportunities but where can you go to find the things that matter to women This book is a guide to the land as well as the diverse culture of women Women's culture in Australia goes back more than 40 000 years and is a rich mosaic of story art and music On the top of this has come the culture of the past 200 years from the British convicts from China from the Pacific from the newer waves of migration and from the women's movement This is reflected in literature theatre the visual arts music circuses and dance Rural and urban women describe the places they know and love they also describe their histories and show something of what lies behind a first impression Contributors featured include Oodgeroo Noonuccal Faith Bandler Portia Robinson Elizabeth Jolley Sara Dowse Janine Haines Dale Spender Ruby Langford Ginibi Kate Llewellyn and Finola Moorhead
