Somebody Loves Me:

The Alabama Folk Lyric Ray Broadus Browne, 1979 Alabamians have always been a singing people The settlers who moved into the various sections of the state brought with them songs which reflected their national origins and geographical backgrounds and as they spread into the hills and over the lowlands they created new songs out of the conditions under which they lived Also they absorbed songs from outside sources whenever these pieces could be adapted to their sentiments and ways of life Thus by a process of memory composition and recreation they developed a rich body of folk songs The following collection a part of the effort to discover and preserve these songs

And So She Writes... Trina Stroud, 2005-03 And So She Writes is a magnificent and powerful collection of poems for every soul and every mood Trina Danette Stroud has created a poetic diary expressed in her own voice and form about self identity self worth self confidence dreams love and life Behind each poem is a story with a sense of purpose always believe in yourself stand up for what you believe never give up and know when to fight Stroud eloquently and elegantly captures one woman's fight to persevere no matter what life casts her way This body of work showcases an incredible integrity that only comes from having a determination to defy the odds and succeed And So She Writes is a poetic journey which can be likened to a piece of coal that is transformed into a rare and precious diamond Her message her voice and her poetry will inspire you Stroud says triumphantly It is not what life has done to you that makes the difference it is what you do with your life that tells the real story
