Somebodys Husband Somebodys Son The Story Of The Yorkshire Ripper:

Somebody's Husband, Somebody's Son Gordon Burn,1985 To his family in the small town of Bingley near Bradford in the north of England he was known as our Pete To the police who had hunted him for more than six years through the towns and cities of Yorkshire he was known as the Yorkshire Ripper the sadistic killer of thirteen women In this study of Peter Sutcliffe the man they finally charged the author has given us one of the most incisive and revelatory books ever written about the life and times the family and social milieu of a mass murderer Somebody's Husband, Somebody's Son Gordon Burn,1985

Serial Killers and the Phenomenon of Serial Murder David Wilson,Elizabeth Yardley,Adam Lynes,2015-07-28 A superbly targeted resource for those learning about serial killings Serial Killers and the Phenomenon of Serial Murder examines and analyses some of the best known as well as lesser cases from English criminal history ancient and modern It looks at the lifestyles backgrounds and activities of those who become serial killers and identifies clear categories of individuals into which most serial killers fall Led by Professor David Wilson the authors are all experts and teachers concerning the ever intriguing subject of serial killing why when and how it happens and whether it can be predicted Taking some of the leading cases from English law and abroad they demonstrate the patterns that emerge in the lives and backgrounds of those who kill a number of times over a period The book is designed for those studying the topic at advanced level whether as an academic discipline on one of the many courses now run by universities and colleges or as a private quest for understanding It contains notes on key terms and explanations of topics such as co activation Munchausen syndrome cooling off period psychopathy checklist social construction case linkage family annihilation activity space rational choice theory medicalisation and rendezvous discipline As the first textbook of its kind it will be an invaluable resource for teachers and students of serious crime Pat Barker Mark Rawlinson,2009-12-07 Pat Barker is one of the leading British political and historical novelists of her generation This introduction places her fiction in historical and theoretical contexts Including a timeline of key dates and an interview with the author Rawlinson establishes the cultural importance of her work and provides an overview of its critical reception Unsolved Murders of the UK Phil Drake,2024-04-30 Unsolved Murders of the UK Cold cases from 1951 to Present Day delves into the mysterious and haunting cases of individuals who were brutally taken from this world yet their killers were never brought to justice From mysterious disappearances to seemingly motiveless killings as well as other cases that continue to perplex law enforcement this book takes a closer look at the victims the crimes and the police investigations as well as the theories surrounding each case With a focus on the cold cases that have remained unsolved for decades this book offers a comprehensive examination of the most intriguing and disturbing murders in the UK s recent history Join us as we explore the twisted minds of the killers and the relentless pursuit of justice for the victims and their families This book will captivate true crime enthusiasts and armchair detectives alike The Murder of Judith Roberts Tanita

Matthews,Chris Clark,2024-12-30 In the Summer of 1972 14 year old Judith Roberts took off for a bike ride within the vicinity of her Staffordshire home Her body was discovered after a three day manhunt concealed from view in a thick privet having been brutally attacked The community of Tamworth was rocked by the news of her death and an outcry for justice ensued Within weeks of her murder an impressionable and troubled soldier based in the nearby barracks 17 year old Andrew Evans walked into a police station and confessed to the killing Relentlessly interviewed for hours on end without representation or an appropriate adult present Andrew was swiftly charged with Judith s murder Despite attempting to recount his statement and a legal defense at trial that defied the prosecution s arguments that Andrew Evans was guilty a judge sentenced him to life behind bars He was eventually acquitted in 1997 in what was at the time Britain s longest miscarriage of justice While Andrew Evans fought for his freedom another man drove up and down England undetected Peter William Sutcliffe Eventually proven capable of inflicting unimaginable horror at any given opportunity an independent inquiry dubbed him likely responsible for more murders than the 13 he was convicted of and the seven others he attempted between 1975 and 1980 In The Murder of Judith Roberts Chris Clark and Tanita Matthews examine evidence that concludes that Sutcliffe whose violent criminal history dates back as far as 1969 was the real culprit responsible for Judith s murder With never before published dialogue from Andrew Evans police interviews showing the grave miscarriage of justice the case file of the five decade cold case is examined under a new light

Gwendolyn Rogers Kate Rushin Ann Allen Shockley Barbara Smith Beverly Smith Shirley O Steele Luisah Teish Jameelah Waheed Alice Walker and Renita Weems Representing Shakespeare Robert Shaughnessy, 2014-07-15 This text traces the changing theatrical and cultural identity of the History plays in the context of postwar social and political conflict crisis and change Since the company's inception in the early 1960s the RSC's commitment to relevance has fostered close relationships between Shakespearean criticism and performance and between the theatre and its audiences Through a detailed discussion of key productions from The War of the Roses in 1963 to The Plantagenets in 1988 Robert Shaughnessy emphasizes the political dimension of contemporary theatrical representations of Shakespeare and of the Shakespearean modes of history that these plays have been employed to promote individualist cyclical male dominated and driven by essentialised transcendent human nature A Companion to Gender Studies Philomena Essed, David Theo Goldberg, Audrey Kobayashi, 2009-03-16 A Companion to Gender Studies presents a unified and comprehensive vision of its field and its new directions It is designed to demonstrate in action the rich interplay between gender and other markers of social position and disadvantage such as race class ethnicity and nationality Presents a unified and comprehensive vision of gender studies and its new directions injecting a much needed infusion of new ideas into the field Organized thematically and written in a lucid and lively fashion each chapter gives insightful consideration to the differing views on its topic and also clarifies each contributor's own position Features original contributions from an international panel of leading experts in the field and is co edited by the well known and internationally respected David Theo Goldberg The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction ROSE WEST: The Making of a Monster Jane Carter Woodrow, 2011-07-07 Hard to believe it looking at her now but Rose West was an exceptionally beautiful little girl with a Maltese mother and English father Strangers would stop and stare at her in the street and she could entrance people from a very early age But looking back at photos of Rose as a child you struggle to accept that she grew up to one of the country's most notorious female criminals In ROSE Jane Carter Woodrow goes right back to the start in her life to try and piece together what happened to turn Rose West into the violent

monster she became Jane has gained unprecedented access to the family and has revealed a fascinating story of how there was always something not quite right about Rose And perhaps that s not too surprising Rose s childhood reads like one of the most grim misery memoirs Her father was a violent schizophrenic and her mother received electric shock therapy for severe clinical depression the whole way through her pregnancy with Rose Jane has uncovered a horrific hidden story of a twisted family and how her upbringing made her a perfect partner for Fred West when they met when Rose had just turned 16 She was to kill for the first time a few months later This is a gripping unputdownable read that sheds light for the first time on the story behind what turned Rose West into one of the country s most vicious and deadly serial killers Handbook on Sexual Violence Jennifer Brown,Sandra Walklate,2011-10-19 This book contextualizes the complexity of sexual violence within its broader context from war to the resolution of interpersonal disputes and covers a wide span including sexual harassment bullying rape and murder as well as domestic violence Written by leading academics from a variety of disciplines contributions also include commentaries that relate the research to the work of practitioners Despite advances made in the investigation of sexual offences evidence still points to a continued belief in the culpability of victims in their own victimization and a gap between the estimated incidence of sexual violence and the conviction of perpetrators Adopting an implicitly and explicitly critical stance to contemporary policy responses that continue to fail in addressing this problem this book focuses on attitudes and behaviour towards sexual violence from the point of view of the individual experiencing the violence perpetrator and victim and situates them within a broader societal frame It is through an understanding of social processes and psychological mechanisms that underpin sexual violence that violence can be combated and harm reduced and at this individual level that evidence based interventions can be designed to change policy and practice The Handbook is split into four sections Legacies Setting the Scene offers a critical overview of historical legal and cultural processes which help to explain the origins of current thinking and offer steers for future developments Theories and Concepts examines contemporary thinking on sexual violence and reviews explanatory frameworks from a number of perspectives Acts of Sexual Violence reviews a number of specific types of sexual violence elaborating the range of circumstances victims and perpetrators with a view to addressing the general and pervasive nature of such violence thus contradicting narrow cultural stereotyping Responding to Sexual Violence overviews and evaluates current policies and practices and offers new ideas to develop different types of interventions The editors conclusion not only draws out the key themes and ideas from contributions to the Handbook but also considers the nature of and the extent to which any progress has been made in understanding and responding to sexual violence This will be a key text for students and academics studying sexual violence and an essential reference tool for professionals working in the field including police officers probation staff lawyers and judges The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction: 1980-2018 Peter Boxall,2019-06-27 Gives a comprehensive critical picture of the development of British fiction from the election of Thatcher to the present The Change Germaine

Greer,2018-08-14 An updated edition of Germaine Greer's revolutionary discussion of menopause which the New York Times Book Review called a brilliant gutsy exhilarating bruising exasperating fury of a book A quarter of a century after the first publication of Germaine Greer's now canonical look at women's experience later in life the renowned feminist and prolific author updates and expands her essential book The Change Despite improvements over the last few years discussions about menopause are still hampered by a huge variance in conventional wisdom about what happens when it happens when it can be said to be over and how to deal with it After decades the same misinformation and ineffective methods are still being widely touted and proliferating at an alarming rate due to the rise of the Internet In this updated edition of her groundbreaking book Greer debunks stubborn myths and presents a vital new perspective on the emotional and physical changes including up to date medical details women face today when they go through what's known as the change Greer also addresses cultural changes that surround female aging today launching a clear and necessary protest against the notion that women should shrink into the background as they grow older She argues that menopause marks the point in a woman's life when she should be able to stop apologizing and bask in the freedom and joy that come with her later years Witty wise and timely this new edition of The Change offers a crucial twenty first century guide to the change that every woman faces

The Road to Murder Adam Lynes,2017-05-08 Why do serial killers gravitate towards certain kinds of occupation Why do they pursue certain types of victim How do they leave the radar and remain hidden Through his wide knowledge of the topic honed at one of Britain's leading centres for criminological studies Adam Lynes demonstrates how theory practice profiling and behaviour intertwine to identify the kind of people we should fear and especially if we are vulnerable to predators The book also looks at those personality types most likely to become serial killers whilst hiding in plain sight From Britain's serial killing studies centre of excellence Looks in depth at eight of Britain's serial killer drivers dealing with some of the most notorious crimes of modern times A fresh and uniquely interesting perspective Demonstrates the links between mobility transience recognisance predatory behaviour and acting out murderous fantasies From the text It is apparent that driving as a form of occupational choice is a popular form of employment for British serial murderers In an effort to determine why this may be the case studies of eight British serial murderers in the book demonstrate just how such an occupation can impact upon these offenders criminal behaviour These findings may prove to be of benefit to scholars of serial murder and to those who attempt to apprehend them

Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System Ian Cummins,2025-02-28 The Criminal Justice System is becoming a de facto provider of mental health care according to a series of recent prison inspections and reports on policing and mental illness which have highlighted the crisis in mental health services However the pressures on prisons and other areas of the CJS mean that the needs of those with mental health problems are often overlooked This book examines the experiences of people with mental health problems across all stages of the CJS and across all the points of contact police Courts and prisons between the CJS and people with mental health problems Providing a clearly written comprehensive introduction to the main themes in this field it also has a clear critical edge highlighting the failings in the areas of penal and social policy that have resulted in increasing numbers of people with mental health problems being criminalised Highlighting a very important social issue Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System provides a thorough introduction to this subject for social work students and practitioners

Case Studies of Famous Trials and Gorden, Caroline, Birkbeck, Christopher, 2022-04-11 From the trials of Oscar Pistorius to O J Simpson and Michael Jackson this innovative book provides a critical review of 11 high profile criminal cases These case studies examine how guilt and innocence are constructed in the courts and in wider society using the themes of evidence and narratives credibility rhetoric and oratory in the court room social status vulnerability and false confessions diminished responsibility and the media and social judgments Written for criminology sociology law and criminal justice students the book includes video links to selected documentaries and interviews web links to important case materials such as trial transcripts exercises for students based on the cases that are covered The book delivers an accessible examination of the criminological sociological psychological and legal processes underpinning the outcome of criminal cases and their representation in the media and wider society
