You know what I find irresistible about you?
You're just you. There's no pretense, no smooth-sounding lines, just a woman honestly offering her heart and hoping that it will be taken by someone who'll cherish it.

Consider Adam Lucy's boyfriend of two years who demonstrates on an ostensibly romantic camping trip that he can't build a fire, split wood or jump start a car. Worse still, he's scared to go into the woods after dark. Or take Jesse, Martha's younger brother, an opera aficionado and neurotic extraordinaire who can't summon the courage to make the first move on the woman he's crazy about. And what about the extensive list of men with whom Martha has endured the torments of the first date? But then there's Cooper Tuckington, Lucy's best friend from college. Born and bred on his family's West Virginia dairy farm, Cooper fits anyone's description of a man's man, and yet he is chivalrous and charming. During his annual visit to New York City, he rewires Lucy's lamps, builds her shelves and holds forth on subjects from great painters to the great outdoors, all the while pulling out chairs and opening doors for the ladies. Surely, think Martha and Lucy, the men in their lives would benefit from the tutelage of someone who knows how to treat a woman. Thus Man Camp is born. With a little feminine persuasion, Lucy and Martha convince Adam, Jesse and a handful of their other male acquaintances to visit Cooper's farm, where they will learn everything a guy should know, from cars to carpentry to chivalry, and that's just the C's. But life on the farm isn't exactly as it seems, and the boys soon prove themselves in ways the women would never have imagined. In the process, Lucy and Martha themselves learn a good bit about life and love. The perfect can't put it down novel for all of us who've needed to bring out the inner man in the men we love. Man Camp is a brilliant, witty and insightful romp through the wilds of dating and mating.

Ivyland Miles Klee, 2012-03-15 It's spring in Ivyland. Debut novelist Miles Klee takes a landscape of drugs, decay, loss and perhaps hope and manages to make the ensemble wryly funny, something only a few notable contemporaries such as Jeff Vandermeer and Michael Chabon have been able to do. Post-urban New Jersey is instantly recognizable in this interlinked series of short vignettes, and Lev's living room is puddles of water and sun, and a bunch of those furry caterpillars are hauling themselves from surface to surface. Populated by a bumbling, murderous citizenry of corrupt cops, innocents, ravenous addicts, lovesick geniuses and cynical adventurers, Ivyland operates in the shadow of a giant pharmaceutical corporation that thrives on people's weaknesses and may have an even more sinister agenda. It's our world, only a bit more extreme and lovingly precisely depicted with the adept skills native to a master of dark humor.

In her huge mansion overlooking Wyllow Cove, you'd be forgiven for thinking that Natalia Amore had everything she could possibly want.
