Somethin Proper The Life And Times Of A North American African Poet:

Somethin' Proper Marvin X, 1998 Autobiography African American culture In this autobiography Marvin X the first North American African Islamic poet to achieve international recognition for his poetry and plays tells the story of the black consciousness movement and the world of the troubled inner city from Nathan Hare's Introduction His work has been compared to that of Franz Fanon and LeRoi Jones Somethin Proper works writers should tell our history that's our job Amiri Baraka Through the poetry of Marvin X I became conscious of my own ethnicity Janice Mirikitani 278pp Black Bird Press 1998 Black and Brown Gerald Horne, 2005-02 Drawing on archives on both sides of the border the author chronicles the political currents which created and then undermined the Mexican border as a relative safe haven for African Americans

Living for the City Donna Jean Murch, 2010 In this nuanced and groundbreaking history Donna Murch argues that the Black Panther Party BPP started with a study group Drawing on oral history and untapped archival sources she explains how a relatively small city with a recent history of African A People's Guide to the San Francisco Bay Area Rachel Brahinsky, Alexander Tarr, 2020-10-06 An alternative history and geography of the Bay Area that highlights sites of oppression resistance and transformation A People's Guide to the San Francisco Bay Area looks beyond the mythologized image of San Francisco to the places where collective struggle has built the region Countering romanticized commercial narratives about the Bay Area geographers Rachel Brahinsky and Alexander Tarr highlight the cultural and economic landscape of indigenous resistance to colonial rule radical interracial and cross class organizing against housing discrimination and police violence young people demanding economically and ecologically sustainable futures and the often unrecognized labor of farmworkers and everyday people The book asks who had and who has the power to shape the geography of one of the most watched regions in the world As Silicon Valley's wealth dramatically transforms the look and feel of every corner of the region like bankers wealth did in the past what do we need to remember about the people and places that have made the Bay Area with its rich political legacies With over 100 sites that you can visit and learn from this book demonstrates critical ways of reading the landscape itself for clues to these histories A useful companion for travelers educators or longtime residents this guide links multicultural streets and lush hills to suburban cul de sacs and wetlands stretching from the North Bay to the South Bay from the East Bay to San Francisco Original maps help guide readers and thematic tours offer starting points for creating your own routes through the region Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora Top Down Karen Ferguson,2013-06-27 At first glance the Ford Foundation and the black power movement would make an unlikely partnership After the Second World War the renowned Foundation was the largest philanthropic organization in the United States and was dedicated to projects of liberal reform Black power ideology which promoted self determination over color blind assimilation was often characterized as radical and divisive But Foundation president McGeorge Bundy chose to engage rather than confront black power s challenge to racial liberalism through an ambitious long term strategy to foster the social development of racial minorities The Ford Foundation not only bankrolled but originated many of the black power era s hallmark legacies community control of public schools ghetto based economic development initiatives and race specific arts and cultural organizations In Top Down Karen Ferguson explores the consequences of this counterintuitive and unequal relationship between the liberal establishment and black activists and their ideas In essence the white liberal effort to reforge a national consensus on race had the effect of remaking racial liberalism from the top down a domestication of black power ideology that still flourishes in current racial politics Ultimately this new racial liberalism would help foster a black leadership class including Barack Obama while accommodating the intractable inequality that first drew the Ford Foundation to address the race problem A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 2 Patrick D. Bowen,2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation Autobiographies by Americans of Color, 1995-2000 Deborah Stuhr Iwabuchi,Rebecca Stuhr,2003 This annotated bibliography covers the years 1995 through 2000 which saw a tremendous output of autobiographical material by Americans of color Publishers released works by prominent civil rights leaders musicians entertainers athletes as well as unsung heroes with the courage to strive for a better life This is the long awaited follow up to the first volume of the Autobiographies by Americans of Color bibliography series Black Power Afterlives Diane Fujino, Matef Harmachis, 2020-08-04 The first book to comprehensively examine how the Black Panther Party has directly shaped the practices and ideas that have animated grassroots activism in the decades since its decline Black Power Afterlives represents a major scholarly achievement as well as an important resource for today s activists Through its focus on the enduring impact of the Black Panther Party this volume expands the historiography of Black Power studies beyond the 1960s 70s and serves as a bridge between studies of the BPP during its organizational existence and studies of present day Black activism allowing today s readers and organizers to situate themselves in a long lineage of liberation movements
