Bruderhof community which emerged in Germany in 1920 Community members sought to model their life on the New Testament This included sharing goods The community became part of the Hutterite movement with its origins in sixteenth century Anabaptism After the rise to power of the Nazi regime the Bruderhof became a target and the community was forcibly dissolved Members who escaped from Germany and travelled to England were welcomed as refugees from persecution and a community was established in the Cotswolds In the period 1933 to 1942 when the Bruderhof's witness was advancing in Britain its members were in touch with many individuals and movements This book covers the Bruderhof's connections with among others the Fellowship of Reconciliation Dietrich Bonhoeffer the Peace Pledge Union the social work of Muriel and Doris Lester in East London Jewish refugee groups and artistic pioneers like Eric Gill As significant numbers of British people joined the Bruderhof its farming publishing and arts and crafts activities extended considerably But with the outbreak of the Second World War German members came to be regarded with suspicion and British members became unpopular locally because they were pacifists Although the Bruderhof was defended in Parliament notably by Lady Astor it seemed that German members would be interned as enemy aliens The consequence was that by 1942 over 300 community members had left England With Mennonite assistance they began to forge a new life in South America This book traces a remarkable Christian peace experiment being undertaken in a time of great political upheaval Advocate of Peace and Universal Brotherhood, 1859 Working for Peace and Justice Lawrence S. against war and social injustice Lawrence Wittner has been tear gassed threatened by police with drawn guns charged by soldiers with fixed bayonets spied upon by the U S government arrested and purged from his job for political reasons To say that this teacher historian activist has led an interesting life is a considerable understatement In this absorbing memoir Wittner traces the dramatic course of a life and career that took him from a Brooklyn boyhood in the 1940s and 50s to an education at Columbia University and the University of Wisconsin to the front lines of peace activism the fight for racial equality and the struggles of the labor movement He details his family background which included the bloody anti Semitic pogroms of late nineteenth century Eastern Europe and chronicles his long teaching career which comprised positions at a small black college in Virginia an elite women's liberal arts college north of New York City and finally a permanent home at the Albany campus of the State University of New York Throughout he packs the narrative with colorful vignettes describing such activities as fighting racism in Louisiana and Mississippi during the early 1960s collaborating with peace oriented intellectuals in Gorbachev's Soviet Union and leading thousands of antinuclear demonstrators through the streets of Hiroshima As the book also reveals Wittner's work as an activist was matched by scholarly achievements that made him one of the world's foremost authorities on the history of the peace and nuclear disarmament movements a research specialty that led to revealing encounters with such diverse figures as Norman Thomas the Unabomber Zbigniew Brzezinski Caspar Weinberger and David Horowitz A tenured professor and renowned author who has nevertheless lived in tension with the broader currents of his society Lawrence Wittner tells an engaging personal story that includes some of the most turbulent and significant events of recent history Lawrence S Wittner emeritus professor of history at the University at Albany SUNY is the author of numerous scholarly works including the award winning three volume Struggle Against the Bomb Among other awards and honors he has received major grants or fellowships from the National Endowment for the Humanities the American Council of Learned Societies the Aspen Institute the United States Institute of Peace and the John D and Catherine T MacArthur Foundation

Winning the Peace Christopher Knowles, 2017-01-26 By adopting a unique biographical approach this book examines the aims and intentions of twelve important and influential individuals who worked for the British Military Government in occupied Germany during the first three years after the end of the Second World War British policy was distinctive and the British zone was the largest and economically most important of all four zones Although the three Western Allies all ended in the same place with the creation of an independent Federal Republic of West Germany in 1949 they took different paths to get there The role of the British has been much misunderstood Winning the Peace strikes a balance between earlier self congratulatory accounts of the British occupation and the later more critical historiography It highlights diversity of aims and personal backgrounds and in so doing explains some of the complexities and apparent contradictions in British occupation policy The book concludes that despite diversity among those studied all twelve individuals followed a policy described as the three Rs Reconstruction Renewal and Reconciliation rather than the four Ds De militarisation De nazification De industrialisation and Democratisation highlighted in earlier histories of the occupation Whilst reflecting on the role of human agency Christopher Knowles examines why individuals sometimes failed to achieve what they originally intended and how their aims and perceptions changed over time to reveal broader political sociological and cultural forces outside their direct control This book is an innovative study for those interested in the Allied occupation the post war history of Germany and the study of military occupation generally The American Peace Crusade, 1815-1860 Merle Eugene Curti, 1929 A Memoir of the Paris Peace Conference, 1919 James Wycliffe Headlam, 1972
