They have always encouraged their audiences to love whomever and however they wish. This book is a history of the sexualities represented in the works of Joss Whedon, and it covers all of Whedon's genres including fantasy, horror, science fiction, westerns, superhero stories, and Shakespearean comedy. Unique for its consideration of the entire arc of Whedon's two-decade career from the beginning of Buffy the Vampire Slayer's first season in 1997 through the conclusion of its twelfth comic book season in 2018, this book examines in detail both better-known queer sexualities of the LGBTQ spectrum and lesser-known, non-normative sexualities. The book includes chapters on Whedon's sexually dominant women and submissive men, sexual pluralism on Firefly, disabled sexualities in Whedon's superhero narratives, zoophilia in Buffy, queer and heteronormative sexualities in Dr. Horrible's Sing-Along Blog, the subversion of the sexual tropes of slasher films in The Cabin in the Woods, and dominance and submission in Whedon's Much Ado About Nothing. Encyclopedia of African American Actresses in Film and Television Bob McCann, 2022-09-23 The first work of its kind, this encyclopedia provides 360 brief biographies of African American film and television actresses from the silent era to 2009. It includes entries on well-known and nearly forgotten actresses running the gamut from Academy Award and NAACP Image Award winners to B-film and blaxploitation era stars. Each entry has a complete filmography of the actress's film, TV, music video, or short film credits. The work also features more than 170 photographs, some of them rare images from the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture.

Skinheads, Rastas & Hippies John Williams, 2011-06-01 Description Skinheads, Rastas, and Hippies reflects John's involvement in the alternative culture of the 1970s through to the 1990s. He saw a common denominator between the different ethnic and sub-culture groups, i.e. Rastas mixing with hippies, skinheads, etc. It was these experiences coupled with his own diagnosis of schizophrenia that led John to put pen to paper. A truly entertaining read, the story reflects John's upbringing and youth in the mixed and sometimes volatile Brixton in South London About the Author John was born in Jamaica in 1955 he currently lives in Brixton South London John has had various jobs but has struggled to find employment since becoming ill with schizophrenia His interests include reading football and meeting people He has two children Adrian aged 16 and Samantha who is 12 years of age John wrote his book in order to share his perception of his experiences and interpretation of his life issues and tribulations He believes that the seventies and early eighties were key years in defining the issues of today
