Something Else Press An Annotated Bibliography:

Something Else Press Peter Frank,1983 Something Else Press is credited with being among the first publishers of an entirely new genre integral artworks designed for publication now widely known as artists books From 1963 to 1974 Dick Higgins it has been out of print for a number of years Last year we discovered about 100 book blocks of the original edition whose covers had been slightly spoiled These we were able to arrange for a superb rebinding now offer the remaining 80 copies for sale which will be of particular interest for scholars academic libraries

Something Else Press Peter Frank,1983 Recounts the history of the Something Else Press a small publishing house founded by Richard Higgins in 1964 that was devoted to producing artists books integral artworks designed for publication and distribution in traditional book formats Describes the circumstances and details of each item published by the Something Else Press The Palgrave Handbook of Intermediality Jørgen Bruhn,Asun López-Varela Azcárate,Miriam de Paiva Vieira,2023-12-01 This handbook provides an extensive overview of traditional and emerging research areas within the field of intermediality studies understood broadly as the study of interrelations among all forms of communicative media types including transmedial phenomena Section I offers accounts of the development of the field of intermediality its histories theories and methods Section II and III then explore intermedial facets of communication from ancient times until the 21st century with discussion on a wide range of cultural and geographical settings media types and topics by contributors from a diverse set of disciplines It concludes in Section IV with an emphasis on urgent societal issues that an intermedial perspective might help understand

Correspondence Course Carolee Schneemann,2010-11-24 An epistolary history of the international avant garde of happenings Fluxus and performance and conceptual art emerges from decades of correspondence between Carolee Schneemann and other artists and intellectuals Critical Mass Mead Art Museum (Amherst College),2003 Description Puts New Jersey at the center of key art movements during the sixties Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen,2015-08-21 How artists magazines in all their ephemerality materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system During the 1960s and 1970s magazines became an important new site of artistic practice functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art Artists created works expressly for these mass produced hand editioned pages using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery In Artists Magazines Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday the 1960s to the 1980s and compiles a comprehensive illustrated directory of hundreds of others Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen 1965 1971 a multimedia magazine in a box issues included Super 8 films flexi disc records critical writings artists postage stamps and collectible chapbooks Avalanche 1970 1976 which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist designed contributions and Real Life 1979 1994 published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures generation These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content they cast their homemade do it yourself quality against the slickness of an Artforum and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day Artists Magazines featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and content offers an essential guide to a little explored medium

Destruction Rites Mona Hadler, 2017-01-30 In the early sixties crowds gathered to watch rites of destruction from the demolition derby where makeshift cars crashed into each other for sport to concerts where musicians destroyed their instruments to performances of self destructing machines staged by contemporary artists Destruction in both its playful and fearsome aspects was ubiquitous in the new Atomic Age This complicated subjectivity was not just a way for people to find catharsis amid the fears of annihilation and postwar trauma but also a complex instantiation of ideological crisis in a time with some seriously conflicted political myths Destruction Rites explores the ephemeral visual culture of destruction in the postwar era and its links to contemporary art It examines the demolition derby games and toys based on warfare playgrounds situated in bomb sites and the rise of garage sales where goods designed for obsolescence and destined for the garbage heap are reclaimed and repurposed by local communities Mona Hadler looks at artists such as Jean Tinguely Niki de Saint Phalle Martha Rosler and Vito Acconci to expose how the 1960s saw destruction construction and the everyday collide as never before During the Atomic age whether in the public sphere or art museums destruction could be transformed into a constructive force and art objects and performances often oscillated between the two
