SOMEWHERE IN RED GAP By Harry Leon Wilson Contents I The Red Splash of Romance II Ma Pettengill and the Song of Songs III The Real Peruvian Doughnuts IV Once a Scotchman Always V Non Plush Ultra VI Cousin Egbert Intervenes VII Kate or Up From the Depths VIII Pete s B other in law IX Little Old New York Chapter 1 Excerpt THE walls of the big living room in the Arrowhead ranch house are tastefully enlivened here and there with artistic spoils of the owner Mrs Lysander John Pettengill There are family portraits in crayon photo engravings of noble beasts clipped from the Breeder s Gazette an etched cathedral or two a stuffed and varnished trout of such size that no one would otherwise have believed in it a print in three colours of a St Bernard dog with a marked facial resemblance to the late William E Gladstone and a triumph of architectural perspective revealing two sides of the Pettengill block corner of Fourth and Main streets Red Gap made vivacious by a bearded fop on horseback who doffs his silk hat to a couple of overdressed ladies with parasols in a passing victoria And there is the photograph of the fat man He is very large both high and wide He has filled the lens and now compels the eye His broad face beams a friendly interest His moustache is a flourishing uncurbed riotous growth above his billowy chin The checked coat held recklessly aside by a hand on each hip reveals an incredible expanse of waistcoat the pattern of which raves horribly From pocket to pocket of this gaudy shield curves a watch chain of massive links nearly a yard of it one guesses Often I have glanced at this noisy thing tacked to the wall entranced by the simple width of the man Now on a late afternoon I loitered before it while my hostess changed from riding breeches to the gown of lavender and lace in which she elects to drink tea after a day s hard work along the valleys of the Arrowhead And for the first time I observed a line of writing beneath the portrait the writing of my hostess a rough downright plain fashion of script Reading from left to right Mr Ben Sutton Popular Society Favourite of Nome Alaska Reading from left to right Here was the intent facetious And Ma Pettengill is never idly facetious Always as the advertisements say There s a reason And now also for the first time I noticed some printed verses on a sheet of thickish yellow paper tacked to the wall close beside the photograph so close that I somehow divined an intimate relationship between the two Windham Press is committed to bringing the lost cultural heritage of ages past into the 21st century through high quality reproductions of original classic printed works at affordable prices This book has been carefully crafted to utilize the original images of antique books rather than error prone OCR text This also preserves the work of the original typesetters of these classics unknown craftsmen who laid out the text often by hand of each and every page you will read Their subtle art involving judgment and interaction with the text is in many ways superior and more human than the mechanical methods utilized today and gave each book a unique hand crafted feel in its text that connected the reader organically to the art of bindery and book making We think these benefits are worth the occasional imperfection resulting from the age of these books at the time of scanning and their vintage feel provides a connection to the past that goes beyond the mere words of the text      *Somewhere in Red Gap. Illustrated by John R. Neill, F.R.
