Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc,1995 Describes authors works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world Heritage Odyssey Music and Hollywood Memorabilia Auction Catalog #616 Ivy Press,2005-08 Encyclopedia of Early Television Crime Fighters Everett Aaker,2024-10-17 Any episode of a crime or mystery series involves some or all of the following the perpetration of a crime its investigation the analytical process which involves the determination of the villain the arrest and trial of the culprit and the handing out of the appropriate punishment Such series involving the exploits of a wide variety of courageous heroes and heroines were very popular during the 1950s and they featured a host of actors and actresses including famous television detectives e g Raymond Burr those famous in other genres e g Boris Karloff Charles Bronson and over 250 other players with recurring roles This reference work lists every player who had a regular role in a crime or mystery series during the early era of television All covered series offered live or filmed episodes of a crime or mystery nature and all were shown on American television All series had either regular stars or a recognizable host Entries cover the player s real name family information and education how the player originally broke into show business the player s career preceding the series and his or her marriage children death date and film and television credits Appendices provide a catalog of American mystery series and a list of regular mystery series players whose roles began after December 31 1959 The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema's most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children's literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema's adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship

The Religious Film Pamela Grace, 2009-05-11 From The Gospel According to Matthew to Jesus Christ Superstar from The Passion of Joan of Arc to The Last Temptation of Christ and Jesus of Montreal The Religious Film captures the glory gore and centrality of this important genre A short accessible introduction to religious film exploring the genre as spectacle as musical and as controversy Examines the historical cultural and critical background for religious films from the silent era through to the present day Introduces the complexities and characteristics of this iconic genre of film including common sounds and images and the values that most traditional films of this kind uphold

Movies Magnificent: 150 Must-See Cinema Classics John Reid, 2005-09-27 Few people would argue with the films selected for detailed notices and reviews in this book Many of the movies are award winners and most chalked up impressive figures at the box office Who would dispute the inclusion of Citizen Kane or Rebecca or The Best Years of Our Lives However along with The Yearling and Reap the Wild Wind and Hello Frisco Hello I've also included a few surprises A magnificent publication Rodney Bourke in International Movie Making April 2006

With Hope in My Heart Francois Mai, 2022-11-07 Rarely do we see inside the life and mind of a psychiatrist but that's exactly what we get in With Hope in My Heart Musings of a Spirited Psychiatrist With candor and openness author Francois Mai shares how and why he ventured into psychiatry the lure of academia and his professional triumphs and troubles along the way Educated in Apartheid era South Africa Mai takes his clinical practice across five countries South Africa the United Kingdom Australia the US and Canada Inspired by his time and adventures in these places as well as his greatest influences psychiatrists William Sargant and George Engel this memoir is for a diverse audience Readers eager to learn more about the history of psychiatry and its contemporary problems will enjoy Mai's commentary and professional anecdotes Lovers of religion and spirituality contextualized in a secular society will appreciate the ways these intersect with Mai's professional and personal lives With Hope in My Heart is more than a psychiatrist's memoir It's a deeply intimate look into the life of a man who endures the death of a brother who had life long schizophrenia and himself had two life threatening medical diagnoses With themes of hope Mai navigates readers through tumultuous terrain of spirituality morality politics life and death Franz Werfel: The Faith of an Exile Lionel Steiman, 2010-10-30 Franz Werfel was born in Prague in 1890 and died in Beverly Hills in 1945 a popular and artistic success in Europe and America Despite his Jewish birth and upbringing he was attracted to Christianity at any early age and although he never formally converted he celebrated his own vision of it in his entire life s work The original of that peculiar faith and the response it engendered in Werfel s work as he lived through the horrific end of Jewish life in Europe are treated here Werfel was not a systematic thinker and while his writing contains much that is philosophical and theological his eclecticism and idiosyncrasy render any attempt to trace the specific origins of his thought or its relation to the work of contemporary philosophers and theologians highly problematic Thus this work is neither biography nor intellectual history in the strict sense it goes beyond melding the concerns of both genres into a thoughtful comprehensive portrait of faith at work Of interest to historians of the twentieth century as well as to students of that intriguing zone that lies between faith and art but is neither or both Memorable Films of the Forties John Reid, 2004 What makes a movie memorable Has it won awards Is it still constantly aired on television Did it have an enormous influence in its day Nearly 100 films of the 1940s are examined in detail with complete cast credit and background information Pictures include Casablanca Meet Me in St Louis Yankee Doodle Dandy All About Eve Cobra Woman Laura The Three Musketeers A Tree Grows in Brooklyn The Picture of Dorian Gray Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein He Walked By Night Forever Amber The Paleface etc The Baby Trail Sinead Moriarty, 2010-05-11 Makeup artist Emma Hamilton is thirty three when she and her husband James decide it s time to start a family She has it all mapped out Go off the pill in December have sex get pregnant by January have the baby in September With the help of a personal trainer she figures she ll be back to her fighting weight in time for Christmas But when three months of candle scented sex fails to produce the desired result Emma decides that maybe Mother Nature needs a helping hand Soon her life is a roller coaster of post coital handstands you can t argue with gravity hormone inducing sanity reducing drugs and a veritable army of probing specialists torturers more like It s out with alcohol and spontaneous sex in with green tea and ovulation kits Emma and James try everything from fertility drugs to in vitro but all their carefully laid plans seem to go south along with Emma s rapidly plummeting self esteem The members of her support team are unquestionably loyal but distracted by their own personal dramas There s Babs her younger sister who prescribes Emma half an Ecstasy pill to treat her depression Her friend Jess is pregnant with her second child and gives Emma an earful about the downside of motherhood The glamorous Lucy Emma s closest pal fears she might be stuck in her single rut forever that is until she meets Donal a rough around the edges rugby player who passes out on their first date but quickly proves that he is worth a second chance And last but certainly not least is James Emma s rugby coach husband who quite unhelpfully manages to give himself a groin injury just when she is ovulating But just when Emma feels as if her obsession may have alienated all of her loved ones including James events take a ninety degree turn that will have unforeseen consequences for everyone Sinead Moriarty brings a wicked sense of humor to a subject of feverish concern
