art history graduate students seeking an introduction to critical theory that will prepare them to engage the primary sources and advanced scholars in art history and visual culture studies who are themselves interested in how these perspectives inflect art historical practice Adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal Chaos Media Stephen Kennedy, 2016-07-28 The contemporary media landscape might be described in simple terms as a digital terrain where real and virtual worlds collide Stephen Kennedy investigates the concept of our digital space leading up to the digital turn of the 1990s to fully understand how our perceptions of orientation in space in time was altered Chaos Media A Sonic Economy of Digital Space re thinks the five fundamental paths to our contemporary understanding of the digital age cultural political economic scientific and aesthetic and ties them together to form a coherent whole in order to demonstrate how critical thinking can be reconfigured using a methodological approach that uses chaos and complexity as systematic tools for studying contemporary mediated space Kennedy introduces the concept of Sonic Economy a methodology that allows for a critical engagement with the heterogeneous elements of an information society wherein the dispersion of discrete elements is manifest but not always clearly visible The Sublime and Its Teleology Donald Loose, 2011-11-25 Based on their critical analysis of Kant's Critique of Judgment the authors of this book show from different perspectives in what way the Kantian concept of the sublime is still a main stream of inspiration for contemporary thinking Unselfing Michaela Hulstyn, 2022-08-31 Altered states of consciousness including experiences of deprivation pain hallucination fear desire alienation and spiritual transcendence can transform the ordinary experience of selfhood Unselfing explores the nature of disruptive self experiences and the different shapes they have taken in literary writing The book focuses on the tension between rival conceptions of unselfing as either a form of productive self transcendence or a form of alienating self loss Michaela Hulstyn explores the shapes and meanings of unselfing through the framework of the global French literary world encompassing texts by modernist figures in France and Belgium alongside writers from Algeria Rwanda and Morocco Together these diverse texts prompt a re evaluation of the consequences of the loss or the transcendence of the self Through a series of close readings Hulstyn offers a new account of the ethical questions raised by altered states and shows how philosophies of empathy can be tested against and often challenged by literary works Drawing on cognitive science and phenomenology Unselfing provides a new methodology for approaching texts that give shape to the fringes of conscious experience Figures of Possibility Niklaus Largier, 2022-03-15 From medieval contemplation to the early modern cosmopoetic imagination to the invention of aesthetic experience to nineteenth century decadent literature and to early twentieth century essayistic forms of writing and film Niklaus Largier shows that mystical practices have been reinvented across the centuries generating a notion of possibility with unexpected critical potential Arguing for a new understanding of mystical experience Largier foregrounds the ways in which devotion builds on experimental practices of figuration in order to shape perception emotions and thoughts anew Largier illuminates how devotional practices are invested in the creation of possibilities and this investment has been a key element in a wide range of experimental engagements in literature and art from the seventeenth to the twentieth century and most recently in forms of new materialism Read as a history of the senses and emotions the book argues that mystical and devotional practices have long been invested in the modulating and reconfiguring of sensation affects and thoughts Read as a book about practices of figuration it questions ordinary protocols of interpretation in the humanities and the priority given to a hermeneutic understanding of texts and cultural artifacts

Jean-François Lyotard Kiff Bamford, 2017-08-15 Best known in the English speaking world for his book The Postmodern Condition Jean François Lyotard was one of the most important and complex French thinkers of the twentieth century In this new critical biography Kiff Bamford traces the multi faceted sometimes surprising journey of Lyotard's life and work Bamford's book is the first to consider Lyotard's work and ideas in the wider context of his life and times He unravels the thrust of Lyotard's main philosophical arguments his struggle with thinking and his confrontation with the task of writing and thinking differently about philosophy Bamford takes care to situate each of these in their particular context the Algerian war the experimental university at Vincennes and within Lyotard's sustained engagement with the visual arts The philosopher's own suspicion of easy narratives and rejection of self determination help to frame the book It is only by following these prescribed cautions that Bamford is able to present a compelling portrait of a challenging subject
