Cardiff Records, Being Materials for a History of the County Borough from the Earliest Times Cardiff (Wales). Records Committee,1905      The Cambridge Social History of Britain, 1750-1950 F. M. L. Thompson,1990 Whilst in certain quarters it may be fashionable to suppose that there is no such thing as society historians have had no difficulty in finding their subject The difficulty rather is that the advance has occurred through such an outpouring of research and writing that it is hard for anyone but the specialist to keep up with the literature or grasp the overall picture In these three volumes as is the tradition in Cambridge Histories a team of specialists has assembled the jigsaw of recent monographic research and presented an interpretation of the development of modern British society since 1750 from three complementary perspectives those of regional communities of the working and living environment and of social institutions Each volume is self contained and each contribution thematically defined contains its own chronology of the period under review Taken as a whole they offer an authoritative and comprehensive view of the manner and method of the shaping of society in the two centuries of unprecedented demographic and economic change      The Company Town John Garner,1992-10-01 Built by industrialists whose early businesses contributed to the escalation of the Industrial Revolution company towns flourished in countries that embraced capitalism and open market trading In many instances the company town came to symbolize the wrecking of the environment especially in places associated with extractive industries such as mining and lumber milling Some resident industrialists however took a genuine interest in the welfare of their work forces and in a number of instances hired architects to provide a model environment Overtaken by time these towns were either abandoned or caught up in suburban growth The most thorough going and only international assessment of the company town this collection of essays by specialists and authorities of each region offers a balanced account of architectural and social history and provides a better understanding of the architectural and urban experiences of the early industrial age      Cardiganshire County History Volume 2 Geraint H. Jenkins,Richard Suggett,Eryn Mant White,2019-09-15 Cardiganshire County History Volume 2 is published by the University of Wales Press on behalf of the Ceredigion Historical Society in association with the Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Wales This volume provides a comprehensive and authoritative account written by distinguished authors in fifteen chapters of the wide range of social economic political religious and cultural forces that shaped the ethos and character of the county of Cardiganshire over a period of 600 years This was a period of great turbulence and change It witnessed conquest and castle building the impact of the Glynd r rebellion the coming of the Protestant Reformation and the turmoil of civil war Over time the inhabitants of the county developed a sense of themselves as a distinctive people who dwelt in a recognisable entity From very early on literate people took pride in their native patch in the eyes of the learned Sulien d 1091 and his sons the land of Ceredig was a sacred patria Poets and scribes burnished the reputation of the county and a vibrant poem by Si n Morys in 1577 maintained that it was the best of shires and the fold of the generous ones

New Perspectives on Welsh Industrial History Louise Miskell, 2019-12-15 This volume tells a story of Welsh industrial history different from the one traditionally dominated by the coal and iron communities of Victorian and Edwardian Wales Extending the chronological scope from the early eighteenth to the late twentieth century and encompassing a wider range of industries the contributors combine studies of the internal organisation of workplace and production with outward facing perspectives of Welsh industry in the context of the global economy The volume offers important new insights into the companies the employers the markets and the money behind some of the key sectors of the Welsh economy from coal to copper and from steel to manufacturing and challenges us to reconsider what we think of as constituting industry in Wales

A History of GKN Edgar Jones, 1987-11-10 This is the story of a major business enterprise It describes the transformation of a small partnership formed in 1759 into an international group the scale of whose diverse activities has demanded the creation of a multi divisional structure supported by many specialist departments Probably the most longeval of Britain s current manufacturing companies GKN s history may be interpreted as a unique and revealing insight into Britain s industrial experience over past centuries
