Sovereignty Under Siege Globalisation And New Zealand:

Sovereignty under Siege? Chris Rudd, 2017-05-15 This collection of invaluable essays explores analyzes and critically evaluates the interaction between globalization and New Zealand sovereignty The volume is the first to seriously address this subject in a systematic fashion It pursues three interrelated lines of enquiry the impact of globalization on the policy making machinery of the New Zealand state the development of New Zealand political culture including its sense of national identity during the globalization era and New Zealand's role on the international stage in a globalizing world The book reveals the paradoxes of New Zealand's encounter with globalization It will provide essential reading for specialists of globalization and for general readers interested in the complex national experience of New Zealand New Zealand's Global

Responsibility László Szöllősi-Cira, 2022-01-01 New Zealand often plays leading roles in implementing progressive ideas This book investigates what explanatory factors facilitated the country to become such a relevant normative actor New Zealand's case suggests that democratic institutions skilled bureaucracy and ambitious politicians play the crucial roles to create global influence The case studies included in this book develop the argument that small states can better influence international politics by focusing on domestic issues In contributing to discourses on New Zealand's possible future role the book is an invaluable resource to intellectuals researchers and students alike Small States and the Changing Global Order Anne-Marie Brady, 2019-07-22 This book provides a critical examination of the foreign policy choices of one typical small state New Zealand as it faces the changing global balance of power New Zealand's foreign policy challenges are similar with those faced by many other small states in the world today and are ideally suited to help inform theoretical debates on the role of small states in the changing international system The book analyses how a small state such as New Zealand is adjusting to the changing geopolitical geo economic environment The book includes perspectives from some of New Zealand's leading as well as emerging commentators on New Zealand foreign policy New Zealand in World Affairs IV

1990-2005 Roderic Alley, New Zealand Institute of International Affairs, 2007 At the beginning of 1990 the Berlin Wall had just fallen few believed that there was any serious threat to the environment 9 11 was just any date the Pacific was seen largely as an idyllic and stable region and Iraq was just another Middle Eastern state By 2005 Iraq meant two wars the Cold War had been replaced by the war on terror East Timor Bougainville Fiji and the Solomons were all synonyms for strife and instability in the region and sustainability global warming and climate change were everyday topics New Zealand in World Affairs IV surveys the period 1990-2005 provides a record of New Zealand's major international preoccupations describes how they were officially handled and makes assessments of how effectively the challenges were interpreted and acted upon This authoritative collection of essays the fourth in a series commissioned by the New Zealand Institute of International Affairs completes a survey of New Zealand's foreign relations since World War II New Zealand's Geopolitics and the US-China Competition Reuben Steff, 2025-01-31 This book advances the establishment of a contemporary New Zealand

geopolitical tradition It details and examines New Zealand's geopolitical reality in an increasingly fractured global security dis order defined by interdependent strategic competition and emerging multipolarity A centrepiece is the multidimensional US China Great Power Competition that has the makings of a Second Cold War This has immense implications for New Zealand's greater region the Indo Pacific and its immediate area the South Pacific The latter is of existential importance to New Zealand becoming an active area of strategic competition as China projects its influence southwards and New Zealand Australia and the United States respond In this context New Zealand's location is increasingly geopolitically relevant and the idea it occupies a benign security environment has now been cast into the dustbin of history The decisions it makes presently will determine the country's prosperity and geostrategic security for decades Geopolitical theory along with a detailed empirical account of strategic competition in the Indo Pacific and South Pacific offers a clear exposition of the implications of US China competition for New Zealand This directs us to the nation's material characteristics and imperatives that flow from it The book also appraises the country's strategic options and indicates how and why Wellington's approach has shifted over time from hedging between the US and China to increasingly balancing against Beijing's efforts to alter the global and regional status quo Through analysis and provocation this book marks a major new contribution that will interest policymakers academics students and everyday citizens New Zealand and the World Brian John Lynch, 2006 In February 2006 the New Zealand Institute of International Affairs hosted a two day seminar on the major foreign policy issues likely to face the newly elected Labour Progressive Government over the next five years this book contains the proceedings of the conference The Sport Mega-Events of the 2020s Jan Andre Lee Ludvigsen, Joel Rookwood, Daniel

Parnell, 2023-10-31 This book explores various social cultural political and economic issues through the lenses of various sport mega events in the twenty first century including the Olympic Games and the World Cup and European Championships in football In a time where sport mega events are closely followed by controversies legacy discourses and questions of their governance the chapters within this book showcase why sport mega events continue to ignite important questions for scholars commentators fans and sport and political authorities By covering various topics emerging around sport mega events such as physical activity legacies rhetoric media coverage environmental impacts diplomacy and spectators experiences this book breaks new ground as it considers a range of longstanding and emerging socio political issues relating broadly to the staging of spectacular sport mega events in the present day This is a fascinating reading for students and researchers situated in sociology sport management event management political science sport studies sport business urban studies and leisure studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Beyond Hostile Islands Daniel McKay, 2024-04-02 WINNER JAVIER COY BIENNIAL RESEARCH AWARD BEST MONOGRAPH Offers a fascinating window into how the fraught politics of apology in the East Asian region have been figured in anglophone literary fiction The Pacific War 1941 1945 was fought across the world's largest ocean and left a lasting imprint on anglophone literary history However studies of that imprint or of individual authors have focused on American literature without drawing connections to parallel traditions elsewhere Beyond Hostile Islands contributes to ongoing efforts by Australasian scholars to place their national cultures in conversation with those of the United States particularly regarding studies of the ideologies that legitimize warfare Consecutively the book examines five of the most significant historical and thematic areas associated with the war island combat economic competition internment imprisonment and the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Throughout the central issue pivots around the question of how or whether at all New Zealand fiction writing differs from that of the United States Can a sense of islandness the tyranny of distance Mori cultural heritage or the political legacies of the nuclear free movement provide grounds for distinctive authorial insights As an opening gambit Beyond Hostile Islands puts forward the term ideological coproduction to describe how a territorially and demographically more minor national culture may accede to the essentials of a given ideology while differing in aspects that reflect historical and provincial dimensions that are important to it Appropriately the literary texts under examination are set in various locales including Japan the Solomon Islands New Zealand New Mexico Ontario and the Marshall Islands The book concludes in a deliberately open ended pose with the full expectation that literary writing on the Pacific War will grow in range and richness aided by the growth of Pacific Studies as a research area

Urban Pollution
Eveline Dürr, Rivke Jaffe, 2010-08-01 Re-examining Mary Douglas work on pollution and concepts of purity this volume explores modern expressions of these themes in urban areas examining the intersections of material and cultural pollution It presents ethnographic case studies from a range of cities affected by globalization processes such as neoliberal urban policies privatization of urban space continued migration and spatialized ethnic tension What has changed since the appearance of Purity and Danger How have anthropological views on pollution changed accordingly This volume focuses on cultural meanings and values that are attached to conceptions of clean and dirty purity and impurity healthy and unhealthy environments and addresses the implications of pollution with regard to discrimination class urban poverty social hierarchies and ethnic segregation in cities

Designing Worlds Kjetil Fallan, Grace Lees-Maffei, 2016-06 From consumer products to architecture to advertising to digital technology design is an undeniably global phenomenon Yet despite their professed transnational perspective historical studies of design have all too often succumbed to a bias toward Western industrialized nations This diverse but rigorously curated collection recalibrates our understanding of design history reassessing regional and national cultures while situating them within an international context Here contributors from five continents offer nuanced studies that range from South Africa to the Czech Republic all the while sensitive to the complexities of local variation and the role of nation states in identity construction
