These poems and passages come from epic lyric dramatic epigrammatic and epigraphic sources. Most of them are by celebrated Greek poets: Homer Sappho Alcaeus Aeschylus Sophocles Euripides Aristophanes Theocritus Callimachus Apollonius among others. Analysis of this poetic corpus associates it with the kletikon an ancient rhetorical genre of content and reveals everywhere in it the commonplaces of that genre thus allowing new sub types of the kletikon to be discovered and the development of the genre over the centuries to be charted. When individual invitations and summonses are viewed against this generic background their originality and merits emerge along with their poets' unique voices. Each summons and invitation is presented translated discussed in detail and when part of a longer work linked to its context. This volume is directed to scholars and students of Classics scholars of the Latin equivalent genre the vocatio which persisted into the Renaissance can also find in it an intellectual model      Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
