Sundered World:

The Sundered World Frank Ryan, 1999 Cold Vengeance Brannon Hollingsworth, Ambush Brannon Hollingsworth, In the midst of a mission to save a young man from a shadowy supernatural threat Tenet is stranded and in trouble What seems like an ordinary daily problem quickly transforms into a nightmarish battle against horrific threats from Beyond threats laid as a deadly ambush for the unsuspecting hero The second in a series of action packed supernaturally laced stories known as Tenet's Tales Ambush is sure to please fans of The Dresden Files The Sandman Slim Series and The Secret Histories Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors, 2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991 this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time the history of the philosophy of time the measurement of time theories of relativity and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines Critical Realism Margaret Archer, Roy Bhaskar, Andrew Collier, Tony Lawson, Alan Norrie, 2013-06-17 Critical realism is a movement in philosophy and the human sciences most closely associated with the work of Roy Bhaskar Since the publication of Bhaskar's A Realist Theory of Science critical realism has had a profound influence on a wide range of subjects This reader makes accessible in one volume key readings to stimulate debate about and within critical realism It explores the following themes transcendental realist the theory of explanatory critique dialectics Bhaskar's critical naturalist philosophy of science My Brother, Theodore Roosevelt Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, 1921 The Shifts and the Shocks Martin Wolf, 2015-11-24 From the chief economic commentator for the Financial Times a brilliant tour d'horizon of the new global economy There have been many books that have sought to explain the causes and courses of the financial and economic crisis that began in 2007 The Shifts and the Shocks is not another detailed history of the crisis but is the most persuasive and complete account yet published of what the crisis should teach us about modern economies and economics Written with all the intellectual command and trenchant judgment that have made Martin Wolf one of the world's most influential economic commentators The Shifts and the Shocks matches impressive analysis with no holds barred criticism and persuasive prescription for a more stable future It is a book no one with an interest in global affairs will want to neglect Plato Etc Roy Bhaskar, 2009-10-27 In this concise text Roy Bhaskar sets out to diagnose explain and resolve the problems of philosophy Plato Etc reviews all the main areas of the subject the theory of knowledge and philosophy of science the philosophy of logic and language the philosophies of space time and causality the philosophy of the social and life sciences and of dialectic ethics politics and aesthetics and the history and sociology of philosophy Among the issues discussed are the problems of induction and universals the question of relativism Heidegger's scandal of philosophy the search for a proof of the reality of the external world the nature of moral truth and the conundrum of free will and determinism The last two chapters consist of a synoptic account of the development of Western philosophy from the pre Socratics to poststructuralism Plato Etc seeks to revindicate the philosophical project and to demonstrate that the author s dialectical critical realism has the categorical power to remedy the problem fields of philosophy The book serves both as a critical introduction to philosophy and as an invaluable resource for the scholar

Hunger Overcome? Andrew Warnes,2004 African American writers have consistently drawn connections between hunger and illiteracy and by extension between food and reading This book investigates the juxtaposition of malnutrition and spectacular food abundance as a key trope of African American writing

Draconic Prophecies James Wyatt,2011-11-01 For millennia the dragons have watched the great events of the world unfold nurturing and destroying entire nations when necessary always guided by the Draconic Prophecy Now Eberon s fragile peace is crumbling Armies gather and for the first time in generations the dragons rise to war At the center of it all one man the prophesied Storm Dragon must learn to wield his extraordinary powers not only to save those he loves but to keep the world from sliding into the chaos of never ending war This omnibus edition features a brand new short story Learning to Dream Every James Wyatt novel I read is a delight may there be many many more Ed Greenwood Author and creator of Forgotten Realms

Dialectic Roy Bhaskar,2008-07-02 Dialectic The Pulse of Freedom is now widely regarded as a classic of contemporary philosophy This book first published in 1993 sets itself three main aims the development of a general theory of dialectic of which Hegelian dialectic can be seen to be a special case the dialectical enrichment and deepening of critical realism viz into the system of dialectical critical realism and the outline of the elements of a totalizing critique of Western philosophy The first chapter clarifies the rational core of Hegelian dialectic Chapter 2 then proceeds to develop a general theory of dialectic Isolating the fallacy of ontological monovalence i e a purely positive account of being Roy Bhaskar then shows how absence and other negating concepts such as contradiction have a legitimate and necessary ontological employment He then goes on to give a synoptic account of key dialectical concepts such as the concrete universal to sketch the further dialectical development of critical naturalism through an account of what he calls four planar social being and following consideration of the dialectical critique of analytical reason he moves on to the real definition of dialectic as absencing absence and in the human sphere the axiology of freedom Chapter 3 extends and deepens critical realism s characteristic concerns with ontology science social science and emancipation not only into the realms of negativity and totality but also into the fields of reference and truth spatio temporality tense and process the logic of dialectical universalizability and on to the plane of ethics where it articulates a combination of moral realism and ethical naturalism whereby consideration of elemental desire involves commitment to the eudaimonistic society This is then followed in Chapter 4 by a sublime discussion of key moments in the trajectory of Western philosophy the tradition of which can now be seen to be based on what the author calls the unholy trinity of the epistemic fallacy or the reduction of being to knowledge primal squeeze or the collapse of structure and alethic truth and ontological monovalence Dialectic and Difference Alan Norrie, 2009-12-04 Dialectic and Difference is the first systematic exploration of Roy Bhaskar's dialectical philosophy and its implications for ethics and justice That philosophy has three aims a dialecticisation of original critical realism a critical realisation of dialectic and a metacritique of western philosophy In the first real absence or negativity links structured being to dialectical becoming in a dynamic world The second draws on Marx to locate the critical impulse in Hegel's dialectic in a material open and changing totality The third identifies a central problem in western philosophy from the Greeks on the failure to think real negativity as the essence of change ontological monovalence Bhaskar's ethics connect basic human ontology with universal principles of freedom and solidarity He marries constellates these with a grasp of how principles are historically shaped His account of freedom moves from the infant's primal scream to the eudaimonic society but thinks the limits to freedom under modern conditions The morally real in ethics and justice is displaced and reconfigured as relations between the ideal and the actual Western philosophy systematically denies the real negativity that drives Bhaskar's dialectic Metacritique traces this to Parmenides and Plato's account of non being as difference It enables a critique of the poststructural radicalisation of difference via Nietzsche and the doctrine of Heraclitan flux Mobilised as the other of Plato's Forms this remains a move on Platonic terrain It too denies real negativity in structured being as the ground of historical change and moral praxis This text is essential reading for all serious students of social theory philosophy and legal theory Shadows E. C. Blake, 2015-05-05 Second novel in EC Blake's dystopian fantasy Masks of Aygrima series In Masks Mara Holdfast's life changed forever As the daughter of the Autarch's Master Maskmaker she had a clearly defined future a quiet ordered life in the capital making Masks with her father and doing work important to the ruling Autarch But when her Mask specially made by her own father cracked and fell to pieces during her Masking ceremony Mara was exiled from everything she once knew Now she has become part of an underground rebellion rejecting the unjust rules of a Masked society She must try to understand her unprecedented ability to use all types of magic and to tear magic from the living bodies of those around her But Mara has yet to discover just how horrifying her power can be Shalom Shar'abi and the Kabbalists of Beit El Pinchas

Giller, 2008-02-19 The Jerusalem kabbalists of the Beit El Yeshivah are the most influential school of kabbalah in modernity The school is associated with the writings and personality of a charismatic eighteenth century Yemenite Rabbi Shalom Shar'abi considered by his acolytes to be divinely inspired by the prophet Elijah Shar'abi initiated what is still the most active school of mysticism in contemporary Middle Eastern Jewry Today this meditative tradition is rising in popularity not only in Jerusalem but throughout the Jewish World Pinchas Giller examines the characteristic mystical practices of the Beit El School The dominant practice is that of ritual prayer with mystical intentions or kavvanot The kavvanot themselves are the product of thousands of years of development and incorporate many traditions and bodies of lore Giller examines the archaeology of the kavvanot literature the principle aspect of which is the meditation on God's sacred names while reciting prayers the development of particular rituals and the innovative mystical and devotional practices of the Beit El kabbalists Time Devoured Edmund Parsons,2018-10-10 Originally published in 1964 This lively challenging book written with enthusiasm conviction and clarity sets out to elucidate the shadowy concept of Time This involves central philosophical issues which are vigorously discussed Also relativity theory in a clear cut exposition is made intelligible in a new light All who are interested in science and its philosophical implications will find this book highly controversial but certainly readable The author believes philosophy to be important not only for its professionals but for everyman He believes that the fact that this is no longer realised shows that something is wrong with professional philosophy he also indicates what this is The book ends surprisingly but pertinently with a bold plunge into the questions of telepathy precognition and psychical research generally Whilst the phenomena are reasonably admitted trenchant criticism of their significance confronts parapsychologists Northwestern Christian Advocate ,1912 Cubism and Futurism R. Bruce Elder,2018-06-30 Cubism and futurism were closely related movements that vied with each other in the economy of renown Perception dynamism and the dynamism of perception these were the issues that passed back and forth between the two Cubism and Futurism Spiritual Machines and the Cinematic Effect shows how movement became in the traditional visual arts a central factor with the advent of the cinema gone were the days when an artwork strived merely to lift experience out the realm of change and flow The cinema at this time was understood as an electric art akin to X rays coloured light and sonic energy In this book celebrated filmmaker and author Bruce Elder connects the dynamism that the cinema made an essential feature of the new artwork to the new science of electromagnetism Cubism is a movement on the cusp of the transition from the Cartesian world of standardized Cartesian coordinates and interchangeable machine parts to a Galvanic world of continuities and flows In contrast futurism embraced completely the emerging electromagnetic view of reality Cubism and Futurism examines the similarity and differences between the two movements engagement with the new science of energy and shows that the notion of energy made central to the new artwork by the cinema assumed a spiritual dimension as the cinema itself came to be seen as a pneumatic machine Godslayer Jacqueline Carey,2006-06-27 Supreme Commander Lord Tanaros was once human But he chose darkness and immortality when his wife betrayed him with his king He killed them both and fled the realms of Men and now cares nothing for their fates A thousand years passed His only allegiance is to his master the dark god Satoris who gave the gift of Life to the race of Men Satoris who rebelled against his elder brother God Haomane who had demanded that gift be taken away Their fight cracked the very world in two the name of Satoris became the word for evil throughout all the races while the legend of Tanaros is the seminal tale of treachery And yet not all tales told are true A final prophecy has begun to unfold and the races are uniting in their quest to rid the world of Satoris The elder gods and goddesses stranded on the other side of the world send dreams to spur all to destroy Satoris and Tanaros but those loyal to their god know a different side of the story and try to defend their citadel of Darkhaven where Satoris sits in sorrow controlling his own dominion seeking neither victory nor vengeance Satoris's followers capture the beautiful Elvish princess Cerelinde and without her the Allies cannot fulfill the prophecy All who support Satoris clamor for her death but Satoris refuses to act like the monster that he is made out to be for he recognizes in Cerelinde a spark of the love that he once bore for his fellow gods She is a great danger to Satoris and a greater danger for Tanaros and all that he holds dear For she reminds him that not all women need be false and that though he may be immune to death his heart is still very much mortal Strong storytelling with evocative compelling and unforgettable characters Godslayer is the thrilling conclusion to the events begun in Banewrecker a haunting tale of love and loss that ultimately asks the question If all that is considered good considers you evil are you At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

The Tale of Sinuhe and Other Ancient Egyptian Poems, 1940-1640 BC, 1998 This anthology contains all the substantial surviving works from the golden age of Ancient Egyptian fictional literature c 1940 1640 B C Composed by an anonymous author in the form of a funerary autobiography the Tale tells how the courtier Sinuhe flees Egypt at the death of his king His adventures bring wealth and happiness but his failure to find meaningful life abroad is only redeemed by the new king's sympathy and he finally returns to the security of his homeland Other works from the Middle Kingdom include a poetic dialogue between a man and his soul on the problem of suffering and death a teaching about the nature of wisdom which is bitterly spoken by the ghost of the assassinated King Amenemhat I and a series of light hearted tales of wonder from the court of the builder of the Great Pyramid Jacket Britain, France and the Decolonization of Africa Andrew W.M. Smith, Chris Jeppesen, 2017-03-01 Looking at decolonization in the conditional tense this volume teases out the complex and uncertain ends of British and French empire in Africa during the period of late colonial shift after 1945 Rather than view decolonization as an inevitable process the contributors together explore the crucial historical moments in which change was negotiated compromises were made and debates were staged Three core themes guide the analysis development contingency and entanglement The chapters consider the ways in which decolonization was governed and moderated by concerns about development and profit A complementary focus on contingency allows deeper consideration of how colonial powers planned for colonial futures and how divergent voices greeted the end of empire Thinking about entanglements likewise stresses both the connections that existed between the British and French empires in Africa and those that endured beyond the formal transfer of power
