The collection captures not only the essence of its subjects but also the author's philosophical musings making it a contemplative examination of cultural dichotomies Written during the late 19th century the book embodies a transitional phase in literature bridging Romanticism with a burgeoning modernist sensibility Lafcadio Hearn an influential figure in American literature was born in Greece to a Greek father and Irish mother and he spent much of his life in pursuit of aesthetic experiences. His diverse background and extensive travels through the United States and Japan provided him with a distinctive lens through which to engage with the world Hearn's fascination with the supernatural and the exotic along with his commitment to conveying the intricacies of foreign cultures starkly influenced the essays collected in this volume Readers looking for an evocative exploration of cross cultural connections and profound personal insights will find Exotics and Retrospectives to be an invaluable addition to their literary collection Hearn's nuanced understanding of both the mundane and the mystical offers a refreshing perspective that resonates well beyond his era making this work not only a journey through diverse worlds but also an introspection into the Beyond Settler Time Mark Rifkin, 2017-02-02 What does it mean to say that Native peoples exist in the human condition present In Beyond Settler Time Mark Rifkin investigates the dangers of seeking to include Indigenous peoples within settler temporal frameworks Claims that Native peoples should be recognized as coeval with Euro Americans Rifkin argues implicitly treat dominant non native ideologies and institutions as the basis for defining time itself How though can Native peoples be understood as dynamic and changing while also not assuming that they belong to a present inherently shared with non natives Drawing on physics phenomenology gueer studies and postcolonial theory Rifkin develops the concept of settler time to address how Native peoples are both consigned to the past and inserted into the present in ways that normalize non native histories geographies and expectations Through analysis of various kinds of texts including government documents film fiction and autobiography he explores how Native experiences of time exceed and defy such settler impositions In underscoring the existence of multiple temporalities Rifkin illustrates how time plays a crucial role in Indigenous peoples expressions of sovereignty and struggles for self determination At Sundown John Greenleaf Whittier, 1892 Planet You Inherit Larry L.
