Collins, II, 2013 Evolutionary Actuality is a theory based on the concept of change and its inevitability Change is a progressive organic force that influences the progressive development of our human existence This original work also proposes the creation an ideal governing model which is described as being the Equity Based Society The Equity Based Society is an embodiment of the Evolutionary Actuality concept The book also explores a phenomenon that is referred to as Disjunctive Diversionary Interest Its impact has the effect of making our society or any society for that matter less democratic The book makes the case for the Equity Based Society through the usage of statistical analysis and theory Rail Transport of Hazardous Materials United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs. Subcommittee on Federal Spending Practices and Open Government, 1979 Constitutional Sunsets and Experimental Legislation Sofia Ranchordás, 2014-12-31 This innovative book explores the nature and function of sunset clauses and experimental legislation or temporary legislation that expires after a determined period of time allowing legislators to test out new rules and regulations within a set time frame and on a small scale basis Small Agencies Legislation United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs, 1980 The Philosophy of Taxation and Public Finance Robert W. McGee, 2011-06-27 Most public finance books are texts which are aimed at undergraduate or graduate students They are overly technical in nature and appeal only to a narrow range of bureaucrats and academics Books on taxation are written for tax practitioners and usually emphasize either what the law is or how to maneuver through the labyrinth of tax law to minimize taxes for clients Philosophy books on taxation or public finance simply do not exist The Philosophy of Taxation and Public Finance is different It is written in nontechnical language and is aimed to appeal to a wide range of readers including practitioners academics and students in the fields of taxation public finance economics law philosophy and political science as well as general readers who are interested in learning why they are being taxed the way they are The author addresses the major issues and topics in taxation and public finance and injects them with philosophical insights He discusses questions such as What arguments have been used to justify taxation When is tax evasion unethical Are some taxes better than others What are the proper functions of government How much is enough Is the ability to pay concept valid When can punitive taxes be justified Reports of Controverted Elections in the House of Representatives Massachusetts. General Court. House of Representatives, Charles W. Storey, Lewis Josselyn, 1853 Tradition and Change in Legal English Christopher Williams, 2007 In this volume the author examines verbal constructions in prescriptive legal texts written in English Modal auxiliaries such as shall may and must are analysed as well as indicative tenses such as the present simple and also non finite constructions such as the ing form and ed participles Results are based on specially compiled corpora of prescriptive texts coming from a wide range of English speaking countries and also international organizations such as the European Union and the UN The author also analyses the nature extent and impact of the calls for change in legal language coming from the Plain Language Movement Although legal language tends to be depicted as being highly conservative and unchanging the author shows that in certain parts of the English speaking world a minor revolution would appear to be taking place while in other parts there is greater resistance to change Female Narratives of Protest Nabanita Sengupta, Samrita Sengupta Sinha, 2023-12-01 This book explores the complex assemblage of biopolitics citizenship ethics and human rights concerns in South Asia focusing specifically on women poets writers and artists and their explorations on marginalisation violence and protest The book traces the origins varied historiographies and socio political consequences of women s protests and feminist discourses Bringing together narratives of the Landais from Afghanistan voices from Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Miya women poets writing from Assam and stories of Dalit and queer women across the region it analyses the diverse modes of women s protests and their ethical and humanitarian cartographies The volume highlights the reconfiguration of female voices of protest in contemporary literature and popular culture in South Asia and the formation of closely knit female communities of solidarity cooperation and collective political action The book will be of interest to students and researchers of gender studies literature cultural studies sociology minority and indigenous studies and South Asian studies Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1977 Restrictive and Anticompetitive Practices in the Eyeglass Industry United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Small Business.
