Sipri Yearbook 1993 World Armaments And Disarmament:

Sipri Yearbook 1993 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 1993 The SIPRI Yearbook 1993 continues SIPRI's review of the latest developments in nuclear weapons nuclear explosions world military expenditure the international arms trade and arms production chemical and biological weapons the military use of outer space the proliferation of ballistic missile technology armed conflicts in 1992 US Soviet nuclear arms control and conventional arms control in Europe The Evolution of Biological Disarmament Nicholas Roger Alan Sims, 2001 The evolution of the disarmament regime of the 1972 Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention BTWC is described from 1980 when the first BTWC Review Conference was held until 1998 The author analyses the results of our first four review Conferences the meetings of the Ad Hoc Group of Governmental Experts to Identify and Examine Potential Verification Measures from a Scientific and Technical Standpoint the 1994 Special Conference the current negotiations of the Ad Hoc Group to produce an additional protocol the BTWC which may include verification measures handling of the 1997 Cuban allegation of US biological warfare and the implementation of Article X of the BTWC on international transfers and cooperation for peaceful purposes The strength of the BTWC regime is assessed in the light of its evolution through the review process and its changing contents including Russia's admission that it had inherited an offensive biological weapon programme The book applies an original sector by sector approach to its analysis of the BTWC studied in a long term perspective Weapons Proliferation and World Order Brad Roberts, 2023-09-29 With the end of the Cold War the subject of weapons proliferation has acquired new interest and prominence So too have questions about the nature of the world order that will succeed the structure of the last fifty years This study explores the connections among these topics It describes the prevailing conceptual model of nuclear proliferation evaluates proliferation's changing technical features considers economic and political factors bearing on its future rate and character and speculates about proliferation's implications on the post cold war world order It also considers the role of international public policy in meeting proliferation's challenges Arguing that updated approaches are needed the analysis emphasizes cooperative over coercive approaches to order It concludes with an assessment of progress to date in meeting these new challenges arguing that the new agenda is only slowly coming into focus The Global Spread Of Arms Frederic S Pearson, 2018-02-19 This book surveys the broad terrain covered by the concept of the security dilemma and points out landmarks along the route proceeding from proliferation to economic interests showing that the arms trade is built into development of both industrial technology and political competition Arms Control and Security: The Changing Role of Conventional Arms Control in Europe Kevin Wright, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The aim of this text is to explore conventional arms control in Europe The early chapters provide a primarily historical perspective looking at the context foundations main provisions and institutional structure of the main agreements The later chapters explore the continuing and likely future roles of the OSCE and NATO in the arms control process The final chapters examine more contemporary developments by looking at the Adapted CFE Treaty and Vienna Documents agreed at the OSCE Istanbul Summit in November 1998 and the challenges posed to existing arrangements by the changing and emergent security threats that potentially face Europe

Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament Carmen Chas, 2025-07-15 This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship

The Future of the Defence Industries in Central and Eastern Europe Ian Anthony, 1994 This report examines the defence industries in Central and Eastern Europe as they attempt to restructure in the wake of changes brought about by the end of the cold war and downward trends in both military expenditure and arms exports Issues addressed include the developing military doctrines in Central and Eastern Europe the trend in military expenditure the nature of defence industry restructuring the international dimensions of industrial restructuring and the role of arms exports

European Security Bjørn Møller, 2016-04-22 Europe has undergone quite profound changes since the end of the Cold War Having been a highly militarised conflict ridden and war ridden region the core of Europe today constitutes a security community where armed conflicts among the constituent states has become inconceivable This comprehensive book offers a theoretically founded and thoroughly documented analysis of European security with a special emphasis on the role played by the United Nations and the various regional and sub regional organisations especially the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe the Council of Europe and the European Union When it comes to explaining peace in Europe opinions differ widely Some argue that it was only because the West refused to give in to Soviet threats that the latter eventually gave up or that the long peace in Europe was due to the combination of a bipolar alliance structure pitting the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation NATO against the Warsaw Pact with the presence of nuclear weapons on both sides Others point instead to the extraordinarily dense network of international institutions and organisations in Europe offering a wide panoply of fora in which to handle disputes peacefully or to the web of interdependence in economic and other affairs tying together all states in Europe in relations which militate strongly against war Still others believe that the external peace between the states in Europe is simply a reflection of a convergence of cultures democracies with marked economies that are open towards the world market These questions are the focal point of this book which concentrates on security albeit not in the sense of being a treatise on military matters but security obtainable by much more indirect and non military means It will be required reading for all students and scholars of European security and the organisations which underpin it Southeast Asian Security in the New Millennium Richard J. Ellings, Sheldon W. Simon, 2016-09-16 Assessing trends toward creating innovative forms of political economic and security co operation in Southeast Asia this text discusses the international dynamics of Southeast Asian security and its impact on such external factors as the US China and Japan
