Sites Of Desire Economies Of Pleasure Sexualities In Asia And The Pacific:

Sites of Desire/Economies of Pleasure Lenore Manderson, Margaret Jolly, 1997-08-18 Discussions of sexuality in Asia and the Pacific have long been tinged with conceptions of the exotic Orient Examining a world of erotic encounter between European Asian and Pacific people these essays explore how sexual practices and sexual meanings have been constructed across cultural borders in Thailand the Philippines Burma Myanmar Japan Fiji Papua New Guinea and the Polynesian islands Considering sexuality as embedded in a complex social and political world structured and saturated by gender race and class relations these scholars challenge the categories with which sex and gender have been named and studied They examine these sites of desire through specific historic and cultural circumstances from the first explorations of Europeans through colonial power to the contemporary issues of sexual tourism prostitution and the HIV AIDS pandemic A unique and important contribution to the study of sexuality this book also suggests that the history of sexuality in the West was shaped by myths of the legendary Orient and the exotic Other

Divine Domesticities Hyaewool Choi, Margaret Jolly, 2014-10-29 Divine Domesticities Christian Paradoxes in Asia and the Pacific fills a huge lacuna in the scholarly literature on missionaries in Asia Pacific and is transnational history at its finest Co edited by two eminent scholars this multidisciplinary volume an outgrowth of several conferences seminars critically examines various encounters between western missionaries and indigenous women in the Pacific Asia Taken as a whole this is a thought provoking and an indispensable reference not only for students of colonialism imperialism but also for those of us who have an interest in transnational and gender history in general The chapters are very clearly written engaging and remarkably accessible the stories are compelling and the research is thorough The illustrations are equally riveting and the bibliography is extremely useful Theodore Jun Yoo History Department University of Hawai i The editors of this collection of papers have done an excellent job of creating a coherent set of case studies that address the diverse impacts of missionaries and Christianity on domesticity and therefore on the women and children who were assumed to be the rightful inhabitants of that sphere The introduction to the volume is beautifully written and sets up the rest of the volume in a comprehensive way It explains the book s aim to advance theoretical and methodological issues by exploring the role of missionary encounters in the development of modern domesticities showing the agency of indigenous women in negotiating both change and continuity and providing a wide range of case studies to show breadth and complexity and the local and national specificities of engagements with both missionaries and modernity My view is that all three aims are well and truly fulfilled Helen Lee Head Sociology and Anthropology La Trobe University Melbourne

Gender Politics in the Asia-Pacific Region Brenda S. A. Yeoh, Peggy Teo, Shirlena Huang, 2005-08-18 Amidst the unevenness and unpredictability of change in the Asia Pacific region women s lives are being transformed This volume takes up the challenge of exploring the ways in which women are active players collaborators participants leaders and resisters in the politics of change in the region The editors focus attention on the politics of gender as a mobilizing centre for identities and the ways in which individualized identity politics may be linked to larger collective emancipatory projects based on shared interests practical needs or common threats Collectively the chapters illustrate the complexity of women s strategies the diversity of sites for action and the flexibility of their alliances as they carve out niches for themselves in what are still largely patriarchal worlds This book will be of vital interest to scholars in a range of subjects including gender studies human geography women s studies Asian studies sociology and anthropology

The Pacific Muse Patty O'Brien, 2006 While examining colonial culture in its many manifestations from art literature and film to the journals of explorers and missionaries O'Brien rereads not only the canonical texts of Pacific imperialism but also lesser known remnants of this cultural heritage with an eye to what they reveal about gender sexuality race and femininity Over its long history from the famous and much romanticized settlement of Tahitian women and mutineers from the Bounty on Pitcairn Island in 1789 to the South Seas romantic tradition Gauguin and beach culture notions of female primitivism changed in response to the ideological watersheds of Christianity Enlightenment science and race theories as well as the development of democratic nation states modernity and colonialism

Emergent Masculinities in the Pacific Aletta Biersack, Martha Macintyre, 2018-10-11 Emergent Masculinities in the Pacific focuses on the plasticity and contingent nature of Pacific Island masculinities over the course of colonial and postcolonial histories The several case histories concern the use of sports to recuperate but also refashion past masculinities in the name of contemporary masculine pride the effects of market participation on younger males how urbanisation and migration set the stage for experimenting with male gender and sexuality the impacts of military and labour histories on local masculinities masculinity and violence in war and gender violence and structural violence and disruptions in male gender identity Depicting contemporary Pacific Island societies as a space of gender invention and pluralism as indigenous gender regimes respond to the stimulations of transnational flows the book asks a key historical question Do emergent masculinities signal a rupture or some continuity with past masculinities This book was originally published as a special double issue of The Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology

Tourism and Informal Encounters in Cuba Valerio Simoni, 2016-01-01 Based on a detailed ethnography this book explores the promises and expectations of tourism in Cuba drawing attention to the challenges that tourists and local people face in establishing meaningful connections with each other Notions of informal encounter and relational idiom illuminate ambiguous experiences of tourism harassment economic transactions hospitality friendship and festive and sexual relationships Comparing these various connections the author shows the potential of touristic encounters to redefine their moral foundations power dynamics and implications offering new insights into how contemporary relationships across difference and inequality are imagined and understood

The Perfect Vagina Lindy McDougall, 2021-05-04 In the West a specific ideal for female genitalia has emerged one of absence a clean slit attained through the removal of pubic hair and increasingly through female genital cosmetic surgery known as FGCS In The Perfect Vagina Cosmetic Surgery in the Twenty First Century Lindy McDougall provides an ethnographic account of women who choose FGCS in Australia and the physicians who perform these procedures both in Australia and globally while also examining the environment in which surgeons and women come together. Physicians have a vested interest in establishing this surgery as valid medical intervention despite majority medical opinion explicitly acknowledging that a wide range of genital variation is normal. McDougall offers a nuanced picture of why and how these procedures are performed and draws parallels between FGCS and anthropological discussions of female genital circumcision cutting. Using the neologism biomagical she argues that cosmetic surgery functions as both ritual and sacrifice due to its promise of transformation while simultaneously submitting the body to the risks and pain of surgery thus exposing biomedicine as an increasingly cultural and commercial pursuit. The Perfect Vagina highlights the complexities involved with FGCS its role in Western beauty culture and the creation and control of body image in countries where self care is valorized and medicine is increasingly harnessed for enhancement as well as health.

Queering the Field Gregory F. Barz, William Cheng, 2020 Drawing on ethnographic research and often deeply personal experiences with musical cultures Queering the Field Sounding out Ethnomusicology unpacks a history of sentiment that veils the treatment of queer music and identity within the field of ethnomusicology. The thematic structure of the volume reflects a deliberate cartography of queer spaces in the discipline spaces that are strongly present due to their absence are marked by direct sonic parameters or are called into question by virtue of their otherness. As the first large scale study of ethnomusicology's queer silences and queer identity politics Queering the Field directly addresses the normativities currently at play in musical ethnography fieldwork analysis performance transcription as well as in the practice of musical ethnographers identification participation disclosure observation authority. While rooted in strong narrative convictions the authors frequently adopt radicalized voices with the goal of queering a hierarchical sexual binary. The essays in the volume present rhetorical and syntactical scenarios that challenge us to read in prescient singular ways for future queer writing and queer thought in ethnomusicology.

Asian Migrations Beatriz P. Lorente, 2005 The migration of people within and beyond Asia no longer takes the form of permanent ruptures uprooting and resettlement. Today such movement is more likely to be transient and complex ridden with disruptions and detours and based on translocal interconnections between places and multiple chains of movement. Written from various disciplinary perspectives this collection of essays explores the migration experiences of a wide spectrum of people from professional and managerial elites to contract workers and refugees. In addressing the nature of these Asian migrations the authors demonstrate how mobility in today's world has transformed notions of citizenship and identity and of displacement and home.

Romance on a Global Stage Nicole Constable, 2003-09-18 By the year 2000 more than 350 Internet agencies were plying the email order marriage trade and the business of matching up mostly Western men with women from Asia Eastern Europe and Latin America had become an example of globalization writ large. This provocative work opens a window onto the complex motivations and experiences of the people behind the stereotypes and misconceptions that have exploded along with the practice of transnational courtship and marriage Combining extensive Internet ethnography and face to face fieldwork Romance on a Global Stage looks at the intimate realities of Filipinas Chinese women and U S men corresponding in hopes of finding a suitable marriage partner Through the experiences of those engaged in pen pal relationships their stories of love romance migration and long distance dating this book conveys the richness and dignity of women s and men s choices without reducing these correspondents to calculating opportunists or naive romantics Attentive to the structural cultural and personal factors that prompt women and men to seek marriage partners abroad Romance on a Global Stage questions the dichotomies so frequently drawn between structure and agency and between global and local levels of analysis
