Smiles For Moms:

Nest Esther Ehrlich, 2014 On Cape Cod in 1972 eleven year old Naomi known as Chirp for her love of birds gets help from neighbor Joey as she struggles to cope with her mother's multiple sclerosis and its effect on her father and sister The Hobo Roger Quam, 2002-04 Interlude Chantele Sedgwick, 2018-02-13 When Mia Cox finds out she can't donate her kidney to save her younger sister's life she doesn't hesitate to jump on a plane to New York convinced she can talk their estranged birth mother Carmen into donating hers instead She doesn't know the city or how she'll find Carmen when she gets there but she has to try If she doesn't Maddy's going to die On the cross country flight Mia figures she'll have more than enough time to make a plan for when she lands where she'll go where she'll sleep what she'll eat But then she falls into an embarrassing conversation with the cute boy sitting next to her and only after she insults him does she realize he's the one and only Jaxton Scott the troubled lead singer of a famous rock band she hates While Mia is running toward what she hopes is a cure for her sister Jax is running away from his rockstar life As the hours pass they get to know each other and she finds herself opening up to him like she never has to anyone When Jax volunteers to help Mia on the rest of her journey she's hesitant to accept his offer Under different circumstances she would want to get to know him better but how can she entertain this random crush on a real life rockstar while Maddy lies in the hospital her name one of many on a never ending transplant list Though everything seems perfect while they're in the air once on the ground again Mia's lack of preparation catches up with her and she receives grave news from home Clinging to the shred of hope she has left she accepts Jax's help but makes it clear that her priority is finding Carmen and saving Maddy's life She will not under any circumstances stray from her mission no matter how cute thoughtful and sweet her new friend may be Winter Road Kristin Butcher, 2018-01-16 Key Selling Points New enhanced features dyslexia friendly font cream paper larger trim size to increase reading accessibility for dyslexic and other striving readers Frankly in Love David Yoon, 2019-09-10 An Instant New York Times Bestseller A William C Morris YA Debut Award Finalist An Asian Pacific American Librarians Association Honor Book Extraordinary a beautifully layered novel about first love tribalism and that brief magical period when kids have one foot in high school one foot out the door Yoon explores themes of racism forgiveness and acceptance without getting earnest or preachy or letting anyone off the hook New York Times Two friends One fake dating scheme What could possibly go wrong Frank Li has two names There's Frank Li his American name Then there's Sung Min Li his Korean name No one uses his Korean name not even his parents Frank barely speaks any Korean He was born and raised in Southern California Even so his parents still expect him to end up with a nice Korean girl which is a problem since Frank is finally dating the girl of his dreams Brit Means Brit who is funny and nerdy just like him Brit who makes him laugh like no one else Brit who is white As Frank falls in love for the very first time he's forced to confront the fact that while his parents sacrificed everything to raise him in the land of opportunity their traditional expectations don't leave a lot of room for him to be a regular American teen Desperate to be with Brit without his parents finding out Frank turns to family friend Joy Song who is in a similar bind Together they come up with a plan to help each other and keep their parents off their backs Frank thinks he's found the solution to all his problems but when life throws him a curveball he's left wondering whether he ever really knew anything about love or himself at all In this moving debut novel David Yoon takes on the question of who am I with a result that is humorous heartfelt and ultimately unforgettable
