Witte, 2013-10-22 An Economic Analysis of Crime and Justice Theory Methods and Applications presents the applications of economic theory and econometric methods to various problems in criminology The book is divided into three parts Part I discusses models of criminal recidivism The second part tackles the economic model of crime Part III estimates cost functions for prisons Specific chapters in the book cover topics on statistical analysis of qualitative outcomes analysis of two measures of criminal activity the arrest rate and the conviction rate and long run estimate of cost function for a group of Federal Correctional Institutions Economists correctional administrators and criminal justice professionals will find the book a great source of information and insight Occasional Paper Oxford. University. Penal Research Unit, 1972 Guru Nanak Journal of Sociology, 2006 Philosophical Perspectives on Punishment, Second Edition Gertrude Ezorsky, 2015-11-20 Historical and contemporary philosophical writings on punishment Bringing together classic and contemporary texts this collection considers general philosophical concepts about and justifications for punishment along with particular issues such as the death penalty and possible alternatives to punishment New to the second edition are sections on prison labor solitary confinement and issues relating to the punishment of people of color women and the poor Drawing from philosophy law literature and activism Gertrude Ezorsky provides a comprehensive and up to date account of the philosophical issues underlying and growing out of punishment Prisoners of Society Martin Davies, 2023-10-25 Prison is seen by most people as an inevitable part of the penal system but there is a growing awareness that its effects on offenders are rarely beneficial and may be positively harmful In Prisoners of Society originally published in 1974 Martin Davies argued that there was still the need in society for a commitment not to reform its deviant members but to provide a compassionate service in those situations where it was most needed He looks at the increasingly important role of the probation service in prisons and borstals and discusses the likelihood of radical changes occurring within the system at the time Dr Davies focuses on the concepts of welfare training rehabilitation and after care and places them in the context of sentencing policy He asks whether society is deluding itself in expecting imprisonment to be at the same time punishment and the springboard for personal reform Using case examples material from prisoners autobiographies official documents and a wide range of research papers he presents a rounded view of a crucial aspect of the contemporary penal system and compels the reader to face up to the question What does society expect of its prisons and its prisoners The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1977 Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, Library Book Catalog: Author Catalog United States.  Henham,2017-03-02 International sentencing has become significant given the numerous events on the world stage which have focused attention on the justifications and adequacy of punishment for heinous crimes such as genocide and crimes against humanity In addition to providing a detailed evaluation of the philosophical and theoretical difficulties raised by this rapidly developing area of international criminal justice this book provides an integrated socio legal analysis of the law and process of international sentencing It considers the rationale and development of international sentencing structures and processes the nature and scope of legal and procedural constraints on decision making as well as access to justice and rights issues The book discusses sentencing within the context of international criminal law and examines internationalized trial processes and alternative mechanisms for resolution In seeking to comprehend the punishment of international crimes through the comparative contextual analysis of trial processes it challenges our present understanding of how and why particular sentencing outcomes are produced and the perceived legitimacy of international trial justice      The Australian
