Handbook of Sociological Theory Jonathan H. Turner,2006-05-17 Sociology is experiencing what can only be described as hyperdifferentiation of theories there are now many approaches competing for attention in the intellectual arena From this perspective we should see a weeding out of theories to a small number but this is not likely to occur because each of the many theoretical perspectives has a resource base of adherents As a result theories in sociology do not compete head on with each other as much as they coexist This seminal reference work was brought together with an eye to capturing the diversity of theoretical activity in sociology specifically the forefront of theory Contributors describe what they themselves are doing right now rather than what others have done in the past The goal of this volume is to allow prominent theorists working in a variety of traditions who wouldn't usually come together to review their work The chapters in this volume represent a mix of theoretical orientations and strategies but these theories are diverse and represent the prominent theoretical discussions in sociology today Some areas included are Section I Theoretical Methodologies and Strategies Section II The Cultural Turn in Sociological Theorizing Section III Theorizing Interaction Processes Section IV Theorizing from the Systemic and Macrolevel Section V New Directions in Evolutionary Theorizing Section VI Theorizing on Power Conflict and Change Section VII Theorizing from Assumptions of Rationality This handbook will be of interest to those wanting a broad spectrum and overview of late 20th early 21st century sociological theory

Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Genre Studies Carolyn R. Miller, Amy J. Devitt, 2024-11-01 Landmark Essays on Rhetorical Genre Studies gathers major works that have contributed to the recent rhetorical reconceptualization of genre A lively and complex field developed over the past 30 years Rhetorical Genre Studies is central to many current research and teaching agendas This collection which is organized both thematically and chronologically explores genre research across a range of disciplinary interests but with a specific focus on rhetoric and composition With introductions by the co editors to frame and extend each section this volume helps readers understand and contextualize both the foundations of the field and the central themes and insights that have emerged It will be of particular interest to students and scholars working on topics related to composition rhetoric professional and technical writing and applied linguistics

Creativity and Sociology Matteo Jacopo Zaterini, Corrado Punzi, Mariano Longo, 2025-05-23 Creativity and Sociology Doing Social Research with and on Artistic Sources explores the relationship between artistic and sociological narratives considering the ways in which artistic narratives in their different forms can be both subjects of sociological observation and tools for the sociological analysis of reality Thematically divided into sections that focus on doing sociology on art and doing sociology with art it observes the major forms of art including literature music theatre painting photography cinematography and interactive arts such as videogames examining each as objects and instruments of sociological analysis as narratives that can offer new perspectives on the world Bringing together under a single epistemological framework area of research that frequently remains separate or beyond sociological framing this book will appeal to scholars of sociology social theory and social science methodology with interests in media and artistic narratives

Problems of Reflexivity and Dialectics in Sociological Inquiry (RLE Social Theory) Barry Sandywell, David Silverman, Maurice Roche, Paul Filmer, Michael Phillipson, 2014-08-21 This is a work of social theory and philosophy which seeks to make the constitution of social theory a social activity It is essentially a collaborative text by five authors committed to a re-awakening of some of the forgotten dimensions of social theorizing The collaborative work was originally occasioned by an attempt to analyse the notion of social stratification and its treatment in the sociological tradition The authors main concern here is with the nature of social theorizing and in particular the difference between Self and Other being and beings Language and Speech The papers in the book focus on themes that are fundamental to the sense of inquiry and tradition which they are concerned to display The themes discussed include speech Language Identity Difference Critical Tradition Community Metaphor Dialectics Observing and Reading Catalogue Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology. Library,1963 The Theory and Analysis of Drama Manfred Pfister,1988 Manfred Pfister s book is the first to provide a coherent comprehensive framework for the analysis of plays in all their dramatic and theatrical dimensions The material on which his analysis is based covers all genres and periods His approach is systematic rather than historical combining more abstract categorisations with detailed interpretations of sample texts 2005 featured separate calls for paper and poster submissions resulting in 130 full papers and 32 posters being submitted to the conference. All papers were subject to a thorough peer review process with an 87 person strong Program Committee and a further 68 additional reviewers from 35 countries from basically all continents sharing the tremendous review load producing between three and four detailed reviews per paper. Based on these as well as on the discussion that took place during a one week online PC discussion phase 41 papers were finally selected for inclusion in the conference program during a 1.5 day PC meeting resulting in an acceptance rate of only 32%. Furthermore 17 paper submissions were accepted for poster presentations with an additional 13 posters being accepted based on a simplified review process of 2-3 reviews per poster from the poster submission track. Both the full papers as well as extended abstracts of the posters presented at ECDL 2005 are provided in these proceedings.

Social Media and Personal Relationships D. Chambers, 2013-02-21 This book explores how digital communication generates new intimacies and meanings of friendship in a networked society developing a theory of mediated intimacies to explain how social media contributes to dramatic changes in our ideas about personal relationships through themes of self, youth, families, digital dating and online social capital.

Diasporas, Weddings and the Trajectories of Ethnicity Terence Heng, 2020-12-29 In an age of increasingly fragmented migration, consumption and globalisation, how do diasporic individuals navigate their ethnic identities? Diasporas, Weddings and the Trajectories of Ethnicity investigates the ways that Chinese Singaporeans shape their Chineseness through wedding rituals and artefacts. Proposing a framework of ethnic identity as a journey, this book will interrogate the processes underlying diasporic ethnicity making through weddings. Offer new concepts of transdiasporic space, ethnic tastes and aesthetic dissonance. Explore the intersections between commercialism, ethnicity and socio-economic divides. Map the micro-social ramifications of ethnic and racial policy in Singapore. As a former professional wedding photographer, Terence Heng brings a sociological lens to the scripted and spontaneous arena of social interactions that is the wedding day. By combining ethnographic observation, photography and poetry, Heng reveals the many decisions and demands that underscore Singaporean Chinese weddings, offering novel insights into the roles of the bridal couple, their social networks and the
