Migrant Professionals in the City Lars Meier,2014-07-17 The migration of professionals is widely seen as a paradigmatic representation and a driver of globalization The global elite of highly qualified migrants managers and scientists for example are partly defined by their lives mobility But their everyday lives are based and take place in specific cities The contributors of this book analyze the relevance of locality for a mobile group and provide a new perspective on migrant professionals by considering the relevance of social identities for local encounters in socially unequal cities Contributors explore shifting identities senses of belonging and spatial and social inequalities and encounters between migrant professionals and Others within the cities These qualitative studies widen the understanding of the importance of local aspects for the social identities of those who are in many aspects more privileged than others

Sport in a Changing World Howard Nixon II, 2015-07-24 This book shows how the dynamic interplay of a powerful golden triangle of sports media and business interests with social cultural economic and political forces shapes sport in a changing world This edition is a condensed and updated version of the first edition with an emphasis on current social issues in sport It also has more global content The golden triangle concept is more developed and applied more extensively Other key themes of the first edition power status and inequality are also more developed New Stop and Think Questions have been added to challenge students to think about the meaning of what they have read The book is now divided into five sections The new sections highlight sociology and the sociology of sport inequality and diversity globalization and social deviance major social contexts of sport including the high school college and professional levels and power political economy and global sports
