the use of space including the internet identity connections through commodity chains commercial culture and morality

Place, Identity and Everyday Life in a Globalizing World Harvey Perkins, David C. Thorns, 2017-09-16 How do our everyday environments inform our activities routines and encounters In what way has globalization affected the sites in which we work relax and interact Is there still a place for local identity in a globalized age This book examines the ways in which we use local spaces and global processes to shape our identities Showing how enhanced tourism communication developments and increased diversity have effected the way we live every day the text also explains how individuals communities and cities react to such globalizing forces on a local level Each chapter unravels complex connections between place identity and global processes and carefully outlines what core theory can tell us about key contemporary debates including surveillance environmental change and sustainability Taking examples from urban and rural life shopping malls and virtual worlds the book encourages us to look at our immediate surroundings in a sociological light Highlighting the interdependence of space and society in a rapidly changing world this text is essential reading for those studying place and identity in Sociology Cultural Studies Geography Urban Studies and Rural Studies

Everyday Life in Asia Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 2016-04-15 Everyday Life in Asia offers a range of detailed case studies which present social perspectives on sensory experiences in Asia Thematically organized around the notions of the experience of space and place tradition and the senses cross border sensory experiences and habitus and the senses its rich empirical content reveals people s commitment to place and the manner in which its sensory experience provides the key to penetrating the meanings abound in everyday life Offering the first close analysis of various facets of sensory experience in places that share a geographical location or cultural orientation in Asia this collection links the conception of place with understandings of how the senses work With contributions from an international team of experts Everyday Life in Asia will be of interest to anthropologists geographers and sociologists with interests in culture everyday life and their relation to the senses of place and space

The Transformation of Cities David C. Thorns, 2017-03-14 The aim of the book is to examine the transformation of the city in the late 20th century and explore the ways in which city life is structured The shift from modern industrial to information consumption based post modern cities is traced through the text The focus is not just on America and Europe but also explores cities in other parts of the world as city growth in the twenty first century will be predominantly outside of these regions

Racism and Public Policy Y. Bangura, R. Stavenhagen, 2005-04-05 In a time when racism is on the rise as a source of conflict and social justice has been increasingly demanded by the civic society this collection stands as a timely reminder that to ignore the racial factor in the globalization forces is as mistaken as eliminating class analysis The essays published here supplement the literature of comparative race relations from the standpoint of the theory of institutional racism and its effect on public policies such as immigration citizenship security and policing
