Sociology of the Middle East Nieuwenhuijze, 2022-09-12 Sociology of the Middle East C. a. Nieuwenhuijze, 1971-12 Sociology of the Middle East C. A. O. van Nieuwenhuijze, 1971 Sociology of the Middle East C. A. O. van Nieuwenhuijze, 1971 Sociology of the Middle East Christoffel Anthonie Oliver van Nieuwenhuijze, 1971 Sociology of the Middle East Christoffel Anthonie Olivier van NIEUWENHUIJZE, 1971 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of the Middle East Armando Salvatore, Sārī Ḥanafī, Kieko Obuse, 2022

The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of the Middle East integrates the study of the social dynamics in the Middle East within history culture and politics The volume transcends a purely regional perspective to investigate the global nature of these dynamics and their impact on the life of people in the region It provides a comprehensive perspective in connecting the vexed state society relations in the region with movements of transformation and the affirmation of rights and creativity in the public arenas The Political Economy of Market Reform in Jordan Timothy J. Piro, 1998 This volume moves beyond traditional studies of Jordan s politics to explore the interplay between politics and economy Examining the phenomenon of market reform in the developing world Timothy J Piro assesses the state s contradictory impulses toward privatization and continued state intervention in the economy Drawing on a wealth of primary materials the author illuminates the kingdom s unique politics and argues that market reform is dependent on domestic rather than international political structures Cities and Metaphors Somaiyeh Falahat, 2018-04-19

Introducing a new concept of urban space Cities and Metaphors encourages a theoretical realignment of how the city is experienced thought and discussed In the context of Islamic city studies relying on reasoning and rational thinking has reduced descriptive vivid features of the urban space into a generic scientific framework Phenomenological characteristics have consequently been ignored rather than integrated into theoretical components The book argues that this results from a lack of appropriate conceptual vocabulary in our global body of scholarly literature It challenges existing theories introduces and applies the concept of Hezar tu a thousand insides to rethink the spaces in historic cores of Fez Isfahan and Tunis This tool constructs a staging post towards a different articulation of urban space based on spatial physical virtual symbolic and social edges and thresholds nodes of sociospatial relationships zones of containment state of intermediacy and thus a logic of ambiguity rather than determinacy Presenting alternative narrations of paths through sequential discovery of spaces this book brings the sensual features of urban space into the focus The book finally shows that concepts derived from local contexts enable us to tailor our methods and theoretical structures to the idiosyncrasies of each city while retaining the global commonalities of all Hence in broader terms it contributes to a growing awareness that urban studies should be more inclusive by bringing the diverse global contexts of cities into the body of our urban knowledge

Islam Jacques Waardenburg, 2008-08-22 This book presents some twenty essays on different aspects of Islam in history and the present These essays are grouped into eight larger sections The first The Beginnings deals with the transition from pre Islamic understandings and reason an essential part of the Quranic message The next two sections deal with Islam specifically as a religion with its particular signs and symbols The question of rules of interpretation in Islam and its structural features is discussed here Sections four and five deal with ethics in Islam including Muslim identity and human rights and certain social functions of Islam Section six introduces some 19th and 20th century reform movements with special attention given to developments in Saudi Arabia and the puritan characteristics of present day Islamic revival movements The final two sections discuss contemporary issues Islamization processes and policies Islamic ideologies the ideologization of Islam and the political uses of religion Throughout the book the author shows the links between the religious and other interpretations and uses made of Islam and the contexts in which they are made The Introduction signals some important developments in Islamic studies since World War II

Sayyid Qutb and Islamic Activism William Shepard, 2021-09-20 This work is a translation of an important book by one of the forerunners of the current resurgence of Islam Its author was a prominent Islamic activist in Egypt in the late 1940s and early 1950s and was jailed and eventually executed for his activities Today he is commonly viewed as a martyr and his books are widely read First written in 1948 Social Justice in Islam went through five further editions each revised in a manner reflecting his increasingly radical views The present work translates the last edition the most radical one and also provides the alternative readings from the earlier editions so that the reader can trace the development of the author's thinking The introduction provides a brief biography of the author and an analysis of the changes in his thinking reflected in this book

The Quest for Hegemony in the Arab World Podesh, 2022-02-22 The struggle between Egypt and Iraq over Arab hegemony constitutes the main theme of this study Focussing on the struggle over Middle Eastern defense between 1945-58 and culminating in the conflict over the Baghdad Pact 1955-58 it sheds new light on Arab politics during the period under review This research concentrates predominantly on the regional actors The underlying assumption is that policies were not necessarily formulated in Washington and London and that often enough major decisions taken in Ankara Cairo Baghdad Damascus Amman and other Arab capitals affected decision makers in Western capitals The Quest for Hegemony in the Arab World is based on newly released British American and Israeli documents as well as on all available Arab sources The study's value rests upon its discussion of the Baghdad Pact a significant event which was hitherto neglected yet marked a watershed in modern Arab history This study's approach offers an analytical framework with which the present struggle for hegemony in the Arab world may be examined

The Palestinian Economy Arnon, Luski, Spivak, Weinblatt, 2021-10-11 This book offers the only comprehensive overview of the Palestinian economy in the West Bank and Gaza It focuses on the unique features of this unusual economy during the last thirty years Under Israeli occupation the Palestinian economy suffered from poorly developed domestic labor and capital markets and considerable dependence on the highly developed Israeli economy for employment trade and financial resources The book analyses past trends present conditions and alternative arrangements for the future A comprehensive data set is used and for the first time the public is presented with a detailed picture of the Palestinian economy with tables and graphs. The authors propose new institutional arrangements between the Palestinian and Israeli economies, an economic filters plan which will promote neither total integration nor total separation. The book will be of great value to anyone interested in the political economy of the Middle East, the economics of occupation and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Paradise Lost Cristoffel A. O. van Nieuwenhuijze, 1997. This book probes from various angles into the forever problematic relationship between the Middle East and Western Europe between a revitalizing Islamic and a post-Christian civilization. In singling out the intercultural nature of events and clashes, it advances an innovative, interactive style of scholarship. The Revolution of 1908 in Turkey Aykut Kansu, 2021-10-11. This is a detailed account and an excellent narrative history of the often neglected period 1906-1908 in Turkey, in which the prelude and aftermath of the revolution and elections of 1908 took place. The year 1908 opened a new era of representative government and the social and political developments leading to the overthrow of the ancien régime are carefully and fascinatingly given. Historians and general readers will find The Revolution of 1908 in Turkey a thought-provoking book which will resound in the discussion of the validity of Kemalist or quasi-Kemalist historiography and therefore provide a major contribution to the field. Kordofan Invaded Stiansen, Kevane, 2021-10-11. This volume addresses economic change, regional politics and Islamisation in Kordofan, a large province in the Sudan. Kordofan's history is characterised by resistance and adaptation to expanding states and market forces, causing both sectoral transformation and stagnation. The contributions, in different ways, examine the interplay between local and invading institutions and include studies of Kordofan as a terra media between Darfur and Sinnar, international trade in the nineteenth century, the Mahdist revolt, the Anglo-Egyptian Condominium, with particular reference to land tenure and tribal identity, Kordofan in Sudanese nationalist poetry, local politics in the Nuba Mountains and the conflict between religious orthodoxy and local practice. The book will be of interest to scholars of Africa and Islam because of its novel focus on regional institutions and their relation to the state structures. This edited volume explores the history, social structure and economy of Kordofan in the Sudan. Representing several academic disciplines, each chapter is concerned with the long-term incorporation through invasions of the region into wider socio-political and economic structures. Hadhrami Traders, Scholars and Statesmen in the Indian Ocean, 1750s-1960s Ulrike Freitag, William Clarence-Smith, 2021-10-11. This volume covers the long neglected history of Hadhramaut, southern Arabia, during the modern colonial era, together with the history of Hadhrami colonies in the Malay world, southern India, the Red Sea and East Africa. After an introduction placing Hadhramis in the context of other diasporas, there are sections on local and international politics, social stratification and integration, religious and social reform and economic dynamics. The conclusion brings the story to the present day and outlines a research agenda. Many aspects of Indian Ocean history are illuminated by this book, notably the role of non-Western merchants in the spread of capitalism, Islamisation and the controversies which raged within Islam. British and Ottoman strategic concerns, social antagonisms in southern Arabia and the cosmopolitan character of coastal societies İsmet İnönü Metin

Heper,2021-10-11 This highly original study of a Turkish statesman can be read as an introduction into Turkish politics In his very clearly written and stimulating political biography of İsmet İnönü Metin Heper presents to the reader a highly motivated self reflecting and self conscious political leader İsmet İnönü played a critical role in the founding of the Turkish Republic further promoting Westernization and the transition to and the consolidation of democracy in Turkey This volume is the first treatise on this remarkable statesman in any Western language It challenges such orthodox views on İsmet İnönü as his having played second fiddle vis a vis Atatürk and his having been a power hungry politician with an authoritarian bend of mind It is suggested that İsmet İnönü complemented Atatürk and that over time he adopted liberal political views while remaining a staunch guardian of the premises such as secularism upon which the Turkish Republic rested It is also argued that if his compatriots had paid closer attention to İsmet İnönü they would have a more liberal conception of democracy and at the same time in politics they would have acted more prudently The Socialist Movement in Turkey 1960-1980 Lipovsky,2021-11-15 The present study offers a thorough account of the activities of the radical left in Turkey between 1960 1980 and shows how these formed a major contributing factor to the political instability of the country and the military coups that took place in March 1971 and September 1980 The military coup of May 1960 liberalized political life in Turkey and a legal leftist movement arose combining in its ranks social democratic trade unionist and Marxist elements Many of these were united in the framework of the Turkish Labour Party The ideological and political struggle within the leftist movement led to a split in the Labour Party and to the formation in the 1970s of several legal socialist parties each of which adopted its own model of socialism Soviet Chinese Turkish Scandinavian North Korean The 1980 military coup terminated the legal activity of the marxist parties Some merged with the Communist Party which operated illegally others sought ways of legalizing their activity in the new political conditions of Turkey Islamic Historiography and "Bulghar" Identity Among the Tatars and Bashkirs of Russia

Allen J. Frank,1998 This monograph offers a new approach in the study of identity among the Muslims of Russia examining the role of oral and written historiography in the formation of sacred and secular identities among the Tatars and Bashkirs
