Craddock,2009-07-01 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach Sierra's Journey Lee Anne M.

Sgambati,2023-09-11 Sierra was always an exceptional child She was the child every parent hoped for From the time she was two she already knew she wanted to be the next Jenny Finch She started T ball at four years old on the pitcher s mound and that is where she played until she was nineteen when she was in a horrific car accident She had a team of about twenty doctors and every one of them warned us that people didn t make it through this kind of accident But they didn t know Sierra and how she knocked low odds out of the ballpark She earned a full ride to college because of her amazing pitching abilities I was the mom who was at every game cheering her on encouraging her to do her best and not letting her be too hard on herself when she made mistakes It made my heart so happy to see my baby girl on that pitcher s mound probably more happy than her when she was standing on the pitcher s mound I was sure that I would see her on TV playing one day Then one day I received a call from Coach Lucas and my world Sierra s world and all of our family s world changed We lost our Sierra that day and gained a new Sierra She defied all odds and she is alive and able to do the things we all take for granted and we are so very grateful first to God then to Sierra for fighting to the amazing neurosciences ICU doctors and nurses the extraordinary staff at the rehab hospital in Las Cruces and lastly to all the people who patiently stood by her side and helped her get to the point she is today CliffsTestPrep California High School Exit Exam-English Language Arts Jerry
