Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen,2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children s Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children s literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children s literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children s biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape

Literature Connections to American History K6 Lynda G. Adamson,1997-09-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes this book helps you locate resources on American history for students Each book presents information in two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within eras and further organized according to product type The books cover American history from North America Before 1600 and The American Colonies 1600 1774 to The Mid Twentieth Century 1946 1975 and Since 1975 The second section has annotated bibliographies that describe each title and includes publication information and awards won The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorable review Some books with more illustration than text will be valuable for enticing slow or reticent readers An index helps users find resources by author title or biographical subject

Sojourner Truth Jeri Cipriano, 2020-01-01 Sojourner Truth was born to slaves She had no choice But when she grew to be a young mother herself she ran away with her child looking for freedom She used her voice to speak for all slaves wanting to be free

Fighting Words Patricia Hill Collins, 1998 A professor of sociology explores how black feminist thought confronts the injustices of poverty and white supremacy and argues that those operating outside the mainstream emphasize sociological themes based on assumptions different than those commonly accepted Original UP

Children of the Waters of Meribah Allan Boesak, 2019-10-30 In the decades since Black liberation theology burst onto the scene it has turned the world of church society and academia upside down It has changed lives and ways of thinking as well But now there is a question What lessons has Black theology not learned as times have changed In this expansion of the 2017 Yale Divinity School Beecher Lectures Allan Boesak explores this question If Black liberation theology had taken the issues discussed in these pages much more seriously struggled with them much more intensely thoroughly and honestly would it have been in a better position to help oppressed black people in Africa the United States and oppressed communities everywhere as they have faced the challenges of the last twenty five years In a critical self critical engagement with feminist and especially African feminist theologians in a trans disciplinary conversation Allan Boesak as Black liberation theologian from the Global South offers tentative but intriguing responses to the vital questions facing Black liberation theology today particularly those questions raised by the women

The Narrative of Sojourner Truth Sojourner Truth, 2022-11-13 The Narrative of Sojourner Truth is a poignant autobiographical account that chronicles the remarkable life of Sojourner Truth a former enslaved woman who became an influential advocate for abolition and women s rights Written in a compelling oral tradition the narrative employs vivid imagery and spiritual rhetoric reflecting Truth s deep rooted faith and resilience Set against the backdrop of the 19th century abolitionist movement the work offers a unique lens on issues of gender race and human rights illustrating the intersectionality of these social justice struggles during a transformative period in American history Sojourner Truth born into slavery in New York in 1797 as Isabella Baumfree escaped to freedom and subsequently adopted her iconic name Her personal experiences with oppression shaped her impassioned oratory and writings motivating her activism Truth s speeches particularly her famous Ain t I a Woman delivered at the 1851 Women s Rights Convention exemplify her powerful advocacy for both abolition and women's suffrage Her life was a testament to the potential for marginalized voices to catalyze profound social change The Narrative of Sojourner Truth is essential reading for anyone interested in the foundations of civil rights and feminism It provides invaluable insights into the struggles and triumphs of a woman who defied societal constraints and became a symbol of hope and resistance This narrative not only enriches our understanding of America's social history but also serves as an inspiration for contemporary movements advocating for equality and justice Autobiography as Activism

Margo V. Perkins, 2000 A study of three Black Power narratives as instruments for radical social change Walking the Road to Freedom Jeri Ferris, 1988-01-01 Traces the life of the Black woman orator who spoke out against slavery throughout New England and the Midwest Encyclopedia of African American Politics Robert C. Smith, 2003 An A to Z presentation of over 400 articles on African American politics and notable people from the abolitionist movement to Whitney Young The Road of a Thousand Paths Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-19 Immerse yourself in the extraordinary journey of a remarkable woman who defied the odds and emerged as a beacon of hope and equality The Road of a Thousand Paths chronicles the life and struggles of a former slave turned abolitionist and women's rights activist whose unwavering spirit left an indelible mark on American history Born into the shackles of slavery she endured unimaginable hardships and injustices Yet amidst the darkness a flame of resilience ignited within her Breaking free from the chains that bound her she embarked on a transformative odyssey shedding her former identity and embracing the name Sojourner Truth With a voice that echoed the cries of the oppressed Sojourner Truth traversed the nation captivating audiences with her eloquence and unwavering conviction Her message of justice and equality resonated with both the marginalized and the privileged challenging the very fabric of a society divided by prejudice and discrimination As an ardent abolitionist Sojourner Truth stood at the forefront of the fight against slavery Her powerful words and unwavering determination shook the foundations of an institution that had long dehumanized and exploited countless individuals She fearlessly denounced the horrors of bondage sharing her own harrowing experiences to awaken the conscience of a nation But Sojourner Truth's advocacy extended beyond the abolitionist movement She became a staunch champion for women's rights recognizing the interconnectedness of all forms of oppression In a time when women were denied basic rights and opportunities she demanded equality and respect for all regardless of gender Sojourner Truth's legacy is a testament to the transformative power of one voice Her unwavering commitment to justice and equality continues to inspire generations reminding us that even in the face of adversity the human spirit can prevail The Road of a Thousand Paths is a captivating narrative that celebrates the life of an extraordinary woman whose courage and determination changed the course of history If you like this book write a review Resurrection City Peter Heltzel, 2012-11-23 In Resurrection City Peter Heltzel paints a prophetic picture of an evangelical Christianity that eschews a majority mentality and instead fights against racism inequality and injustice embracing the concerns of the poor and marginalized just as Jesus did Placing society's needs front and center Heltzel calls for radical change and collective activism modeled on God's love and justice. In particular, Heltzel explores the social forms that love and justice can take as religious communities join together to build beloved cities. He proclaims the importance of improvising for justice, likening the church's prophetic ministry to jazz music and develops a biblical theology of shalom justice. His vision draws inspiration from the black freedom struggle and the lives of Sojourner Truth, Howard Thurman, and Martin Luther King Jr. Pulsing with hope and beauty, Resurrection City compels evangelical Christians to begin a global movement for love and justice that truly embodies the kingdom of God.

Fighting for Freedom Judith Edwards, 2016-07-15 Slavery didn't end without an organized and impassioned struggle. Through source documents, images, and engaging text, students will learn the story of those abolitionists and slave resisters who fought against a system they believed was inhumane and morally wrong. The United States, Change and Challenge Hrw, 2001-07-19

So Tall Within Gary D. Schmidt, 2018-09-25 From celebrated author Gary D. Schmidt comes a picture book biography of a giant in the struggle for civil rights, perfectly pitched for readers today. Sojourner Truth was born into slavery but possessed a mind and a vision that knew no bounds. So Tall Within traces her life from her painful childhood through her remarkable emancipation to her incredible leadership in the movement for rights for both women and African Americans. Her story is told with lyricism and pathos by Gary D. Schmidt, one of the most celebrated writers for children in the twenty-first century, and brought to life by award-winning and fine artist Daniel Minter. This combination of talent is just right for introducing this legendary figure to a new generation of children.

Freedom Facts and Firsts Jessie Carney Smith, Linda T. Wynn, 2009-01-01 Spanning nearly 400 years from the early abolitionists to the present, Freedom Facts and Firsts: 400 Years of the African American Civil Rights Experience profiles more than 400 people, places, and events that have shaped the history of the black struggle for freedom. Covering such mainstay figures as Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X, and Rosa Parks, as well as delving into how lesser-known figures contributed to and shaped the history of civil rights, Freedom Facts and Firsts chronicles the breadth and passion of an entire people's quest for freedom. Among the inspiring stories found in this comprehensive resource are: How the Housewives League of Detroit started a nationwide movement to support black businesses, helping many to survive the Great Depression; What effect the sports journalist Samuel Harold Lacy had on Jackie Robinson's historic entrance into the major leagues; How the 9th and 10th Cavalry and the 24th and 25th Infantry became known as the Buffalo Soldiers, a term of respect and endearment; How Whoopi Goldberg survived poverty, drug addiction, single parenthood, and a welfare income, and used her personal history to take a satirical look at social issues; How world champion bicyclist Marshall Major Taylor was the first American-born black champion in any sport; How in 1890 John Mercer Langston became the first black U.S. congressman elected from his native state of Virginia. This inspiring resource offers an encouraging look at the historic struggles and triumphs of black men and women in politics, arts, music, journalism, law, social work, and sports. The authors chart a full and inspiring history of African American activism.
