Cornebise, 1997 A study of the educational opportunities offered after WW1 to Amer soldiers of the Amer Expeditionary Forces AEF Some stayed in Europe and studied art attended classes at the Sorbonne took medical courses at London s Fellowship of Med read law at the Inns of Court enrolled in veterinary classes at the Univ of Edinburgh and studied French culture and language at numerous French univ and inst About 10 000 men were involved in these programs In addition 10 000 soldier students attended the AEF s own univ at Beaune For a few months in the spring of 1919 this univ was the largest in the English speaking world Other educational opportunities of various sorts were made available to virtually every soldier in the AEF Illustrations Soldiers and Scholars Carol Reardon, 1990 The use and abuse of military history is the theme of this book The author scrutinizes the army s first systematic attempt to use military history to educate its future leaders and traces the army s struggle from the end of the Civil War to claim intellectual authority over the study of war Soldier and Scholar Basil Lanneau Gildersleeve, 1998 In assembling Gildersleeve s writings autobiographical Richmond Examiner newspaper editorials and Southern essays Briggs classics and humanities U of South Carolina brings to light the reflections of a U of Virginia classics scholar during the Civil War His classical rhetoric lends a novel twist to his loyalist but critical views on the South s Good Cause in chastising the Confederate administration as well as critics of slavery and Yankee poet sinners against the English language Includes a few bandw photos Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Bernard Fall Dorothy Fall, 2006 Bernard Fall wrote the classics Street Without Joy and Hell in a Very Small Place which detailed the French experience in Vietnam One of the first and the best informed Western observers to say that the United States could not win there either he was killed in Vietnam in 1967 while accompanying a Marine platoon Written by his widow Dorothy Bernard Fall Memories of a Soldier Scholar tells the story of this courageous and influential Frenchman who experienced many of the major events of the twentieth century His mother perished at Auschwitz his father was killed by the Gestapo and he himself fought in the Resistance It focuses however on Vietnam and on two love stories The first details Fall s love for

Vietnam and his efforts to save the country from destruction and the United States from disaster The second shows a husband and father dedicated to a cause that continuously lured him away from those he loved With a foreword by the late David Halberstam Advances in Military Sociology Giuseppe Caforio,2009-12-01 A selection of the papers presented at RC01 s international conference in Seoul July 2008 It offers an overview of the panorama of social studies on armed forces and conflict resolution in a context of fast moving change It presents studies that move beyond the very concept of globalization Military History Supremo Joan Beaumont,Garth Pratten,2025-06-12 Professor Emeritus David Horner AM FASSA is one of Australia s greatest military historians and its fifth official historian of war and military operations Few who undertake research in the field can do so without consulting his prodigious authoritative and definitive publications Serving for 25 years in the Australian Army before joining The Australian National University Horner is the epitome of the soldier scholar and has played a key role in establishing military history as an academic discipline in Australia This volume honours Horner s long career of service to history and the nation Authors pay tribute to Horner s legacy by engaging with his scholarship applying his conclusions to new case studies and contexts reflecting and expanding on the subjects he addressed and the methodologies he employed and pushing the boundaries of the discipline he was instrumental in founding The breadth of Horner s research is demonstrated by the subjects and themes they address including strategic planning and policy command multinational operations intelligence and defence policy Military History Supremo both underscores Horner s contribution to Australia s military and intelligence history and highlights the vibrancy and relevance of the field today Hamlet William Shakespeare,1905 Technical Report ,2000 Leadership for Change Gwyn Harries-Jenkins,2000 Western military establishments in a period of detente encounter a number of uncertainties in their quest for the most appropriate leadership styles and strategies The pace and scale of change in modern day armed forces is such that traditional situational leadership associated with well established means and objectives may no longer be sufficient At a time when the nature of primary goals long term norms and societal preferences makes it difficult to identity and prioritize individual organizational strategies it is useful to review the overall experience of national military establishments Such a review is most effectively carried out through a comparative approach which through it may not produce prescriptive solutions provides a greater understanding of the challenges to be faced DTIC Number One Realist Nathaniel L. Moir,2022-04-01 In a 1965 letter to Newsweek French writer and academic Bernard Fall 1926 67 staked a claim as the Number One Realist on the Vietnam War This is the first book to study the thought of this overlooked figure one of the most important experts on counterinsurgency warfare in Indochina Nathaniel L Moir s intellectual history analyses Fall s formative experiences his service in the French underground and army during the Second World War his father s execution by the Germans and his mother s murder in Auschwitz and his work as a research analyst at the Nuremberg Trials Moir demonstrates how these critical events shaped Fall s trenchant analysis of Viet Minh led revolutionary warfare during the

French Indochina War and the early Vietnam War In the years before conventional American intervention in 1965 Fall argued that far more than anything in the United States military arsenal resolving conflict in Vietnam would require political strength willpower integrity and skill Number One Realist illuminates Fall s study of political reconciliation in Indochina while showing how his profound humanitarian critique of war continues to echo in the endless conflicts of the present It will challenge and change the way we think about the Vietnam War

Forces for Good? C. Duncanson,2013-06-27 This book utilises the growing phenomenon of British soldier narratives from Iraq and Afghanistan to explore how British soldiers make sense of their role on these complex multi dimensional operations It aims to intervene in the debates within critical feminist scholarship over whether soldiers can ever be agents of peace
