Solicito Marido Para Enganar:

Au Naturel Lara Anderson, J. P. Spicer-Escalante, 2010-03-08 Literary naturalism within the Hispanic context has traditionally been read as a graphic realist school or movement linked predominantly to late nineteenth century literary production. The essays in Au Naturel: Re-Reading Hispanic Naturalism written by scholars from different generations, nationalities and ideological backgrounds propose a major revisionist contribution to the study of Hispanic naturalism. Based on a theoretical proposal that re-semanticizes naturalismo as a diachronic counter-metanarrative phenomenon that transcends the chronological and geographic limitations imposed by traditional criticism on naturalism, the collection provides new readings of traditional naturalist fare as well as re-readings of works that have not been read within the bounds of conventional criticism as naturalist. Re-read within the proposed theoretical framework, its essays demonstrate the countless ways in which Hispanic naturalist texts literary and more recently filmic continue to frankly engage the societal problematics that has impeded true social, political, economic and cultural progress from taking place in the Hispanic world from the turbulent fin de siècle period of the nineteenth century through the present day globalized context. Au Naturel: Re-Reading Hispanic Naturalism is thus also an open invitation to the scholarly community to re-consider other socio-critical works within the Hispanic naturalist context that observe and reflect upon social issues that continue to plague Hispanic society today.

The Mexican Filmography, 1916 through 2001 David E. Wilt, 2024-10-17 Mexican cinema has largely been overlooked by international film scholars because of a lack of English language information and the fact that Spanish language information was difficult to find and often out of date. This comprehensive filmography helps fill the need. Arranged by year of release and then by title, the filmography contains entries that include basic information, film and translated title, production company, genre, director, cast, a plot summary, and additional information about the film. Inclusion criteria: a film must be a Mexican production or co-production, feature length, one hour or more, silent films excepted. Fictional documentaries and compilation films are not included unless the topic relates to Mexican cinema. Some docudramas and films with recreated or staged scenes are included and theatrically released or intended for theatrical release.
