Some Of Our Best Friends Are Animals:

Some of Our Best Friends Are Animals Peter Spence, 1977-12-15 We Are Best Friends: Animals in Society Leslie Irvine, 2019-10-01 Friendships between humans and non human animals were once dismissed as sentimental anthropomorphism After decades of research on the emotional and cognitive capacities of animals we now recognize human animal friendships as true reciprocal relationships Friendships with animals have many of the same characteristics as friendships between humans Both parties enjoy the shared presence that friendship entails along with the pleasures that come with knowing another being Both friends develop ways of communicating apart from or in addition to spoken language

The New Breed Kate Darling, 2021-04-20 For readers of The Second Machine Age or The Soul of an Octopus a bold exciting exploration of how building diverse kinds of relationships with robots inspired by how we interact with animals could be the key to making our future with robot technology work There has been a lot of ink devoted to discussions of how robots will replace us and take our jobs But MIT Media Lab researcher and technology policy expert Kate Darling argues just the opposite suggesting that treating robots with a bit of humanity more like the way we treat animals will actually serve us better From a social legal and ethical perspective she shows that our current ways of thinking don't leave room for the robot technology that is soon to become part of our everyday routines Robots are likely to supplement rather than replace our own skills and relationships So if we consider our history of incorporating animals into our work transportation military and even families we actually have a solid basis for how to contend with this future A deeply original analysis of our technological future and the ethical dilemmas that await us The New Breed explains how the treatment of machines can reveal a new understanding of our own history our own systems and how we relate not just to nonhumans but also to one another

What Animals Want Larry Carbone, 2004-04-01 Larry Carbone a veterinarian who is in charge of the lab animal welfare assurance program at a major research university presents this scholarly history of animal rights Biomedical researchers and the less fanatical among the animal rights activists will find this book reasonable humane and novel in its perspective It brings a novel sociological perspective to an area that has been addressed largely from a philosophical perspective or from the entrenched positions of highly committed advocates of a particular position in the debate Our Dumb Animals, 1909

The Long Journey James L. Bryant Jr., 2009-09 James L Bryant Jr was born in Wesson Mississippi on a small farm that was owned by the plantation He went to school in a small building used for both school and church He then moved to the city and familiarized himself with his new surroundings church and schools They earned their keep picking cotton in the delta under the hot Mississippi sun hunting cockroaches for extra money cleaning yards and helping out on his grandparent's farm He has vivid memories of the family reunions of seeking a safe haven from storms and tornadoes and trying to adjust to the schools that he went to by participating in sports He also recounts getting facial burns from hot tar and how he nearly lost the heel of his left foot He grew up with the racial segregation that existed and was bothered by all of the unsolved murders

He moved to Portland Oregon where there is such beautiful scenery It took a while for him to make the mental adjustments to an integrated society He made new friends and adjusted to this new way of life James wrote The Long Journey for his wife and children and his mother father sister and brothers Mourning Animals Margo DeMello,2016-08-01 We live more intimately with nonhuman animals than ever before in history The change in the way we cohabitate with animals can be seen in the way we treat them when they die There is an almost infinite variety of ways to help us cope with the loss of our nonhuman friends from burial cremation and taxidermy to wearing or displaying the remains ashes fur or other parts of our deceased animals in jewelry tattoos or other artwork to counselors who specialize in helping people mourn pets to classes for veterinarians to tips to help the surviving animals who are grieving their animal friends to pet psychics and memorial websites But the reality is that these practices and related beliefs about animal souls or animal afterlife generally only extend with very few exceptions to certain kinds of animals pets Most animals in most cultures are not mourned and the question of an animal afterlife is not contemplated at all Mourning Animals investigates how we mourn animal deaths which animals are grievable and what the implications are for all animals Michigan Farmer ,1852 Affect, Space and Animals Jopi Nyman,Nora Schuurman,2015-11-19 In recent years animals have entered the focus of the social and cultural sciences resulting in the emergence of the new field of human animal studies This book investigates the relationships between humans and animals paying particular attention to the role of affect space and animal subjectivity in diverse human animal encounters Written by a team of international scholars contributions explore current debates concerning animal representation performativity and relationality in various texts and practices Part I explores how animals are framed as affective through four case studies that deal with climate change human bovine relationships and human horse interaction in different contemporary and historical contexts Part II expands on the issue of relationality and locates encounters within place mapping the different spaces where human animal encounters take place Part III then examines the construction of animal subjectivity and agency to emphasize the way in which animals are conscious and sentient beings capable of experiencing feelings emotions and intentions and active agents whose actions have meaning for the animals themselves This book highlights the importance of the ways in which affect enables animal agency and subjectivity to emerge in encounters between humans and animals in different contexts leading to different configurations It contributes not only to debates concerning the role of animals in society but also to the epistemological development of the field of human animal studies
