Some Tribal Origins, Laws, and Customs of the Balkans Mary Edith Durham, 1928 Some tribal origins, laws and customs of the Balkans M.E. Durham, 1928 Some Tribal Origins, Laws and Customs of the Balkans, by M. E. Durham,... Mary-Edith Durham, 1928 Balkan Worlds: The First and Last Europe Traian Stoianovich, 2015-05-20

Encompassing the period from the Neolithic era to the troubled present this book studies the peoples societies and cultures of the area situated between the Adriatic Sea in the west and the Black Sea in the east between the Alpine region and Danube basin in the north and the Aegean Sea in the south This is not a conventional history of the Balkans Drawing upon archaeology anthropology economics psychology and linguistics as well as history the author has attempted a total history that integrates as many as possible of the avenues and categories of the Balkan experience Just or Unjust War? Mohammad Taghi Karoubi, 2017-11-30 This study examines the traditional theory of just war in the light of modern principles of international law relating to the prohibition on the use of force repeatedly stressed by UNGA United Nations General Assembly resolutions and accepted by the ICJ International Court of Justice The author expresses doubts as to whether actions by some permanent members of the Security Council starting from September 1996 until April 2003 in the Balkans and the Persian Gulf are legitimate under the just war theory or any other rules of international law and analyses in detail the claims made by the allied powers to justify their actions The book also examines the significance of the transformation in the limitation and prohibition of the use of force in the contemporary legal system by studying the origin of those tenets and their reflection in both the national laws of individual states and the international laws of armed conflict Historical Dictionary of Albania Robert Elsie, 2010-03-19 Albania is not well known by outsiders it was deliberately closed to the outside world during the communist era Now it has thankfully become free again its borders are open and it can be visited and it is increasingly integrating with the rest of Europe and beyond Unfortunately Albania has had its share of problems in the post communist era it is a land of destitution and despair thanks in part to the Albanian mafia which has turned the country into one of blood feuds kalashnikovs and eternal crises Yet Albania is in essence a European nation like any other and will soon it is to be hoped advance and take its proper place in Europe and the world The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Albania relates the history of this little known country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography appendixes and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets Community, Identity and the State Moshe Gammer, 2004-08-27 The studies in this volume originated from an international conference on Community Identity and the State held at Tel Aviv University in 2001 The first two chapters examine whether modernisation Westernisation and democratisation are identical and whether democracy is connected to a certain specific type of social structure The third examines similarities in the political economic and social development of Second World and Third World countries while the fourth discusses the relationship between criminal and normal structures in Russian society Subsequent chapters focus on nationalism using case studies from Argentina Syria and Morocco on the Ulama and national movements in the Middle East on Islamic nationalism in Iran and on the discourse between pan Africanism and Islam The final two chapters examine the effects on tribal politics of the exploitation of oil in Abu Dhabi and the problems of the Kurds in northern Iraq

Balkan Anschluss Srdja Pavlovic,2008 Tackles the thorny issue of the disappearance of Montenegro as a sovereign state in the course of and as a result of the First World War This book investigates the ambiguous and often troubled relationship between two Serb states Montenegro and Serbia It examines the politics and power plays of Serbs Montenegrins and others

Crisis of the Ottoman Empire James J. Reid,2000 This work focuses upon the military problems of the Ottoman Empire in the era 1839 to 1878 The author examines the Crimean War 1853 to 1856 from the perspective of the Ottoman army using British and French sources as well as the few available Ottoman materials Scholarship on the war has ignored this aspect but the high quality of work about the British French and Russian involvement in the war has enabled the present study to advance its own work The inability of the Ottoman high command to learn the lessons of the Crimean War led to serious defeats in the Russo Turkish War of 1877 1878 Revolts occurring in this period also receive attention While the book analyzes the nature of war in the Balkans and Anatolia its primary objective is the study of the war s social and psychological influences This perspective runs as a theme throughout the book but the author focuses on the psychological aspects in the final chapter using comparative perspectives

A Heretical History of Architecture Andrzej Piotrowski,2024-12-09 A Heretical History of Architecture challenges the conventional understanding of significant developments in Western architecture as a series of alignments among dominant ideologies and artistic programs arguing instead that the most consequential changes in the evolution of artistic and design practices across Europe between the fifth and seventeenth centuries were motivated by tensions between local religious or cultural traditions and centralized power This groundbreaking study richly demonstrates the processes through which heterodox beliefs that persisted within numerous diverse communities resulted in design experimentation so syncretic that it has heretofore eluded scholars employing conventional Euro centric taxonomies of architectural styles An Account of Tibet Ippolito Desideri, 2005 In Desideri's account we receive the first accurate general description of Tibet from the natural world to the sociological and anthropological aspects of the people and a complete exposition of Lamaism Albania's Mountain Queen Marcus Tanner, 2014-04-21 Whilst young ladies in the Victorian and Edwardian eras were expected to have many creative accomplishments they were not expected to travel unaccompanied and certainly not to the remote corners of Southeast Europe then part of the crumbling Ottoman Empire But Edith Durham was no ordinary lady In 1900 at the age of 37 Durham set sail for the Balkans for the first time Her trip was intended as a means of recovering from a period of ill health and as a break from the stifling monotony of caring for her ailing mother Her experiences on this trip were to change the course of her life kindling a profound love for the region which saw her return frequently in the following decades She became a confidante of the King of Montenegro ran a hospital in Macedonia and following the outbreak of the First Balkan War in 1912 became one of the world's first female war correspondents Back in England she was renowned as an expert on the region writing the highly successful book High Albania and along with other aficionados such as the MP Aubrey Herbert becoming an advocate for the people of the Balkans in British political life and society King Zog of Albania once said that before Durham visited the Balkans Albania was but a geographical expression By the time she left he added her championship of his compatriots' desire for freedom had helped add a new state to the map Durham was tremendously popular in the region itself earning her the affectionate title Queen of the Mountains and an enduring legacy which continues unabated until this day Yet she has been all but forgotten in the country of her birth Marcus Tanner here tells the fascinating story of Durham's relationship with the Balkans painting a vivid portrait of a remarkable and sometimes formidable woman who was several decades ahead of her time

Out of the Study and Into the Field Robert Parkin, Anne de Sales, 2010-06-01 Outside France French anthropology is conventionally seen as being dominated by grand theory produced by writers who have done little or no fieldwork themselves and who may not even count as anthropologists in terms of the institutional structures of French academia This applies to figures from Durkheim to Derrida Mauss to Foucault though there are partial exceptions such as Lévi Strauss and Bourdieu It has led to a contrast being made especially perhaps in the Anglo Saxon world between French theory relying on rational inference and British empiricism based on induction and generally skeptical of theory While there are contrasts between the two traditions this is essentially a false view It is this aspect of French anthropology that this collection addresses in the belief that the neglect of many of these figures outside France is seriously distorting our view of the French tradition of anthropology overall At the same time the collection will provide a positive view of the French tradition of ethnography stressing its combination of technical competence and the sympathies of its practitioners for its various ethnographic subjects
