the censors are answered by strategies of the writers and the readers To recognize self censoring strategies in writing it is necessary to know the specific restrictions of the censorship regime in question In South Africa under apartheid all writers were confronted with the question of how to respond to the pressure of censorship This confrontation took a different form however depending on what group the writer belonged to and what language he she used By looking at white writers writing in Afrikaans and white and black writers writing in English this book gives the impact of censorship on South African literature a comparative examination which it has not received before The book considers works by J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Andre Brink and others less known to readers outside South Africa like Karel Schoeman Louis Kruger Christopher Hope Miriam Tlali and Mtutuzeli Matshoba It treats the censorship laws of the apartheid regime as well as in the final chapter the new law of the Mandela government which shows some surprising similarities to its predecessor

Grounds of Engagement Stéphane Robolin, 2015-08-30 Part literary history part cultural study Grounds of Engagement examines the relationships and exchanges between black South African and African American writers who sought to create common ground throughout the antiapartheid era St phane Robolin argues that the authors geographic imaginations crucially defined their individual interactions and ultimately the literary traditions on both sides of the Atlantic Subject to the tyranny of segregation authors such as Richard Wright Bessie Head Langston Hughes Gwendolyn Brooks Keorapetse Kgotsile Michelle Cliff and Richard Rive charted their racialized landscapes and invented freer alternative geographies They crafted rich representations of place to challenge the stark social and spatial arrangements that framed their lives Those representations Robolin contends also articulated their desires for black transnational belonging and political solidarity The first book to examine U S and South African literary exchanges in spatial terms Grounds of Engagement identifies key moments in the understudied history of black cross cultural exchange and exposes how geography serves as an indispensable means of shaping and reshaping modern racial meaning in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

Gumbs, 2024-08-20 A Time Must Read Book of the Year Winner of the Judy Grahn Award for Lesbian Nonfiction A Publishers Weekly Top Ten Book of the Year Shortlisted for the 2025 Brooklyn Public Library Book Prize A bold innovative biography that offers a new understanding of the life work and enduring impact of Audre Lorde We remember Audre Lorde as an iconic writer a quotable teacher whose words and face grace T-shirts nonprofit annual reports and campus diversity center walls But even those who are inspired by Lorde's teachings on the creative power of difference may be missing something fundamental about her life and work and what they can mean for us today Lorde's understanding of survival was not simply about getting through to the other side of oppression or being resilient in the face of cancer It was about the total stakes of what it means to be in relationship with a planet in transformation Possibly the focus on Lorde's quotable essays to the neglect of her complex poems has led us to ignore her deep engagement with the natural world the planetary dynamics of geology meteorology and biology For her ecological images are not simply metaphors but rather literal guides to how to be of earth on earth and how to survive to live the ethics that a Black feminist lesbian warrior poetics demands In Survival Is a Promise Alexis Pauline Gumbs the first researcher to explore the full depths of Lorde's manuscript archives illuminates the eternal life of Lorde Her life and work become more than a sound bite they become a cosmic force teaching us the grand contingency of life together on earth The Bloomsbury Review ,1983 Daughters of Africa Margaret Busby,1993
