

Mom

Missing You...

*Your tenderness and loving ways
Still get me through my lonely days
The picture carries in my mind
With love that stands the test of time
You helped me find my walking shoes
And taught me lessons I still use
Each time I think of you I smile
I know I'll see you
After while...*

Someones Mother Is Missing:

Someone's Mother Is Missing , Friends & Mothers Louise Limerick, 2013-11-12 Never again will you walk past a group of moms having coffee and cake without dying to know what's going on beneath the surface The Sydney Morning Herald Five women all of them mothers meet regularly for tea and cake Their lives are consumed by children school drop offs and casual conversations so their respite at the Vista Cafe is a welcome retreat Until the day that Evelyn's baby disappears Suffering severe postpartum depression Evelyn is now in a psychiatric hospital refusing to utter a word not even any information regarding the whereabouts of her newborn daughter Amy leaving her remaining four friends at a loss In her absence they begin to piece together Evelyn's life as a mother and as a woman and start to take a look at their own lives What ensues is each woman's uncovering of her own lapsed desires those dreams and wants that were slowly sidelined or put off for a later date as husband marriage and child rearing became full time occupations Joanna confronts her halfhearted efforts to lose the baby weight from her second child Sam who is now three years old Clare's lifestyle is as unkempt as her hair a fact that usually has her buying the newest day planner but now makes her question her early beginnings as an artist Susan is the stereotypical supermom who is never late to pick up her kids yet she cannot seem to take the same charge when it comes to her own life And Wendy though the quietest among them perhaps has the biggest secrets In a darkly humorous manner guilty secrets and lives are entwined as the suspense builds during the desperate search for Evelyn's missing daughter Louise Limerick's Friends Mothers is a vivid and honest portrayal of real motherhood and the challenges and joys that face the women who occupy this role a contemporary story of the extraordinary strength of love International Praise for Friends Mothers A great read Limerick's depictions of the minutiae of raising children are lovingly realistic but not overly sentimental The Age Australia Where Limerick's writing shines is in her buoyant evocation of the sticky constant exasperating and loving realm of small children and their careers There are many such delicious scenes in this novel The Weekend Australian Limerick has a real knack for capturing the small triumphs and tragedies of everyday life a passion and a tenderness for her characters that won us over The Sydney Morning Herald Someone's Daughter Silvia

The Missing Generation Mo Y Ma, 2018-07-30 This book was written for the missing generations of 1960 and 1970 during which a lot of young people had been deprived of their right of education employment freedom of residence and not to mention free speech even lovemaking In the last phase of Cultural Revolution in order to clean up the mess of political struggle Mao Zedong sent the vast majority of students to the farmland to accept so called reeducation from poor peasants The young people in Guangdong province especially in Guangzhou City were luckier than in other provinces because they were close to Hong Kong and had chances to risk their lives to escape The lucky ones had chances to climb up Mount Wutong and walk down the Swallow Cliff to enter the New Territories in Hong Kong by climbing over barbed wires and swimming across the Deep Bay in the west or Mirs Bay in the east it was the turning point of their lives However the bad luck fugitives would break their legs when stepping in the wild boar trap lose their lives with poisonous snakebites become meals for the sharks or drowned in the sea they had sacrificed their precious lives for freedom How could the local people with inherent freedom feel the unforgettable joy to set the feet successfully on the free land New Territories and deeply inhale the fresh air there How could most people understand the feeling of sorrow and helplessness to face brothers or friends dying tragically and unable to help with their hands The deceased had been long gone and the survivors moved on There always is worship in heart during Qingming or Chongjiu memorial days but how can a chicken a pot of wine a bouquet of flowers or a bundle of incense be enough to express the lifelong grief I hope this book will give survivors a little precious memory and the deceased an eternal remembrance Entanglement Zygmunt
