Somerville, Martin Ross, 1927 The Professional Literary Agent in Britain, 1880-1920 Mary Ann Gillies, 2007-01-01 Breaking new ground in the study of British literary culture during an important transitional period this new work by Mary Ann Gillies focuses on the professional literary agent whose emergence in Britain around 1880 coincided with and accelerated the transformation of both publishing and authorship Like other recent studies in book and print culture The Professional Literary Agent in Britain 1880-1920 starts from the central premise that the business of authorship is inextricably linked with the aesthetics of literary praxis Rather than provide a broad overview of the period however Gillies focuses on a specific figure the professional literary agent She then traces the influence of two prominent agents A.P. Watt generally acknowledged as the first professional literary agent and J.B. Pinker the leading figure in the second wave of agents focusing on their respective relationships with two key clients The case studies not only provide insight into the business dynamics of the literary world at this time but also illustrate the shifting definition of literature itself during the period In the vine country E. Oe. Somerville, Martin Ross, 2019-12-11 In the vine country offers a captivating exploration into the cultural and social intricacies of rural life through a series of engaging narratives The collection effortlessly traverses genres

melding elements of satire drama and pastoral storytelling to deliver rich and vivid portrayals of life in the vineyards Both vivid and poignant these works provide an unparalleled glimpse into the nuanced lives of their characters creating an anthology that is as diverse in style as it is cohesive in its thematic intent Readers will be tantalized by pieces that stand out for their narrative dexterity and emotional depth encapsulating the collection s commitment to both artistic expression and cultural authenticity The anthology is curated by E Oe Somerville and Martin Ross whose literary prowess and nuanced understanding of cultural dynamics shine through in their selection of works The contributors collectively represent a tapestry of voices and experiences that deepen the reader s engagement with the life and labor that define the vine country Aligning with literary movements that emphasize realism and regionalism this collection enriches the narrative landscape through the incorporation of varying historical and cultural perspectives fostering a greater appreciation for the diversity within rural narratives A must read for enthusiasts of regional literature and anyone seeking to immerse themselves in a cornucopia of stylistic and thematic elements In the vine country stands as a noteworthy testament to the power of collaborative storytelling The anthology affords readers a unique opportunity to traverse different perspectives and styles within a single volume igniting reflection and dialogue about the lives it depicts This collection promises to deliver not only an educational journey through its array of perspectives but also an enriching narrative experience poised to leave a lasting impression

The Anglo-Irish Novel and the Big House Vera Kreilkamp,1998-10-01 This book is a comprehensive study of the ascendancy novel from Maria Edgeworth s Castle Rackrent I800 through contemporary reinventions of the form Kreilkamp argues that Irish fiction needs to be rescued from the critical assumptions underlying attacks on the historical mythologies of Yeats and the Literary Revival Exploring the uniquely Irish dimensions of colonial and post colonial societies Kreilkamp charts the self critical formulations of a gentry culture facing its extinction more often and more successfully with comic irony than nostalgia Kreilkamp positions the Big House novels within current debates in postcolonial criticism and theory She argues that these fictional representations of a beleaguered society provide a complex nuanced gaze into a hybrid colonial group that distanced itself from the self aggrandizements of the revivalists As she examines the gothic revisionist and postmodern permutations of an enduring national form she illustrates the ways ascendancy women transformed conventions of an English domestic genre into political fiction Her attention to Edgeworth s Irish works the fiction of the neglected Victorian novelist Charles Lever and the gothic forms of the Big House by Sheridan Le Fanu and Charles Maturin provide a historical context for later reformulations of the genre by Somerville and Ross Elizabeth Bowen Molly Keane William Trevor Jennifer Johnston Aidan Higgins and John Banville
