Strange but True Monica-Maria Stapelberg, 2014-09-18 Why do we Christen ships and sailing vessels or refer to them as she Avoid the number thirteen breaking mirrors or walking under ladders Use the phrase having a skeleton in the cupboard Dress baby boys in blue speak of true blue or blue blooded Decorate the Christmas Tree or eat Easter Eggs Kiss under the mistletoe or trick or treat on Halloween In this easy to read book a revised and updated re publication of her previous book Curious and Curiouser author lecturer and public speaker Dr Monica Maria Stapelberg shares the results of her many years of research to uncover the historical background behind numerous commonly held beliefs and traditions These range from general popular beliefs to the more specific and enlightening traditions of western culture Strange but True also brings to light how many of our day to day words phrases and actions are anchored in past ritual or sacrificial observances or simply based on fearful superstitious notions This book is a must read for a curious mind

Sisyphus's Boulder Eric Dietrich, Valerie Gray Hardcastle, 2004 Consciousness lies at the core of being human Therefore to understand ourselves we need a theory of consciousness In Sisyphus's Boulder Eric Dietrich and Valerie Hardcastle argue that we will never get such a theory because consciousness has an essential property that prevents it from ever being explained Consequently philosophical debates over materialism and dualism are a waste of time Scientific explanations of consciousness fare no better Scientists do study consciousness and such investigations will continue to grow and advance However none of them will ever reveal what consciousness is In addition given the centrality of consciousness in philosophy Dietrich and Hardcastle claim that philosophy itself needs to change That the central problems of philosophy persist is actually a profound epistemic fact about humans Philosophy then is a limit to what humans can understand Series A

Self-Knowing Agents Lucy O'Brien, 2010-07-22 Lucy O'Brien argues that a satisfactory account of first person reference and self knowledge needs to concentrate on our nature as agents She considers two main questions First what account of first person reference can we give that respects the guaranteed nature of such reference Second what account can we give of our knowledge of our mental and physical actions Clearly written with rigorous discussion of rival views this book will be of interest to anyone working in the philosophy of mind and action

Sounds of Innate Freedom

Karl Brunnhölzl, 2024-06-04 A paragraph on the series Sounds of Innate Freedom The Indian Texts of Mah mudr is an historic five volume series containing many of the first English translations of the classic mah mudr literature The texts and songs in these volumes are excerpted from the large compendium of texts called The Indian Texts of the Mah mudr of Definitive Meaning compiled by the Seventh Karmapa Ch tra Gyatso 1456 1539 In its modern Tibetan edition this collection consists of five volumes containing seven kinds of texts the An vilatantra as a tantric source of Mah mudr attributed to the Buddha himself and its commentary songs of realization doh cary g ti and vajrag ti commentaries on songs of realization and other texts independent tantric treatises nontantric treatises edifying stories and doxographies presenting hierarchies of different Buddhist and non Buddhist philosophical systems The collection offers a brilliant window into the richness of this vast ocean of Indian Mah mudr texts in the Kagy tradition as well as a clear view of the sources of one of the world s great contemplative traditions It is for meant for anyone who appreciates Buddhist literature and Buddhist tantric practice Reading these songs and texts that express the inexpressible and contemplating their meaning in meditation will open doors to experience and possibly even awakening just as they did for practitioners in the past Description of volume 5 Volume 5 most closely follows Luminous Melodies and contains the most versified songs of realization consisting of doh s couplets vajrag tis vajra songs and cary g tis conduct songs all luminously expressing the inexpressible as well as commentary The doh lineage in tantric Buddhism began when Saraha known as the Great Brahmin started singing songs of realization to his disciples the royal family and the people of the kingdom Since then the great Mah mudr siddhas have continued to express their realization and instructions to their disciples in pithy songs composed and sung spontaneously These songs display a vast range of styles themes and metaphors providing readers a feast offering of profound pith instructions of great power that were uttered by numerous male and female mahasiddhas siddhas yog s and kin s often in the context of ga acakras and initially kept in their secret treasury This volume can stand on its own at the same time as it provides a taste of the entire collection offering a window into the richness of this vast ocean of Indian Mah mudr texts in the Kagy tradition The majority of songs and their commentaries are translated for the first time into English by Karl Brunnhölzl brilliantly capturing the wordplay mystical wonder bliss and ecstatic sense of freedom expressed by awakened Mah mudra masters of India such as

Saraha L hipa K a alias K hapa Jaganmitr nanda alias Mitrayog Vir pa Tilopa N ropa Maitr pa N g rjuna the female mah siddhas princess Lak m kar and ombiyogin as well as many otherwise unknown figures of this rich Buddhist tradition Karl Brunnh lzl s learned and lucid introduction situates the songs in their social religious and literary context Mah mudr refers to perfect buddhahood in a single instant the omnipresent essence of all phenomena that is nondual and devoid of all obscurations Reading these songs that express the inexpressible and contemplating their meaning in meditation will open doors to experience and possibly even awakening just as they did for practitioners in the past For besides the officially recognized mah siddhas there were many other varieties of practitioners and many lived and taught outside of the framework of institutionalized Buddhism in their time evidence that the teachings and the path of mah mudr are accessible to and can be practiced by anyone from any walk of life whether a king a servant in a brothel or a housewife often without having to renounce their day jobs

Lessons of Pao Regina R. Brant, 2014-01-20 During the time of the Troubles in Ireland Master Pao of Vendylor a realm in the multiverse of evolved beings of light comes to Earth in the form of a small kitten in order to help a young woman in Kiltimagh Ireland struggling with the anguish of losses in her life The kitten magically turns her world upside down and helps to improve her life and the lives of all with whom he comes into contact He is joined by others from Vendylor Master Kuo the boss and Master Drock the Antagonist The three try to pass as Earthlings and chaos adventure and phantasmagorical happenings ensue The animals in the story tele communicate and are evolved as compared to the sometimes clueless humans The story speeds toward human transformation and spiritual ascendance back to Vendylor This gentle adventure teaches that Love heals everything The philosophy behind Lesson of Pao and the message that implicitly permeates the story is that everything in life is made better by coming to it through love in short that love heals everything There are multiple levels of beings in the story There s the evolved level of the Vendylorians the so called enlightened beings who teach and serve the lesser evolved inhabitants of the multiverse Then there are the humans rife with ego frailty angst and confusion Lastly there are the kitties and the other animals that are subservient to the humans but that are superior in their pure spirituality The surprising truth is that imperfection exists at all of these levels Even the Vendylorians are continually working on improving They also are subject to anger pettiness misguided behaviors and ego Cases in point are Master Kuo s explosive temper Master Drock s arrogance and ego and Master Pao s righteousness The humans are mired in their shortcomings One obvious case is Paddy Coogan a miserable hateful depressed and hopeless old farmer who had given up on ever being happy The animals have their own limitations derived by forgetting their naturally evolved state and by observing and imitating the flawed behaviors of their human masters Lucia is a good example of this trap as she exhibits jealousy and pettiness toward her sister Kay Cee Therefore it seems clear that the snags along the way to spiritual enlightenment afflict all living material beings In Lessons Master Pao is aware that he is imperfect and he s working on that but he is also aware of the obstacles blocking spiritual evolution in Earth creatures Therefore he subtly directs them how to love in order to reach enlightenment So really what are Pao s lessons The main lessons to be learned are that only love can create the happiness that we seek and that only by recognizing and respecting the love within each other can we get there
