landscape, and other stories Adeline Adams, 2025-01-17 If you search from Greenwich Village to Lawrence Park and then from Turtle Bay to Chelsea you will not find in all New York a painter less spoiled by fame than Maurice Price It was in his nature to know from the very first that the luckier you are the kinder you can be I do not regard it as a limitation that in what he does and in what he wears he scarcely satisfies the romantic ideal about artists and their ways There is nothing wild in his attire and he does not live more dangerously than other citizens must Still there is something about his type of good looks that sets him apart and gives him away Those who see him for the first time in profile whether at the Follies or at a funeral of an Academician sometimes think that if they knew the man they would esteem him more than they would love him That is because they have not yet met him in front view and discovered the eager friendliness in his gray eyes the 2 sensitive listening expression of his whole face the look that says Tell me your joke in life and I'll tell mine Antiquarian Bookman

, 1956 Selected Stories Katherine Mansfield, 2002 I was jealous of her writing The only writing I have ever been jealous of Virginia Woolf Virginia Woolf was not the only writer to admire Mansfield's work Thomas Hardy D H Lawrence and Elizabeth Bowen all praised her stories and her early death at the age of thirty four cut short one of the finest short story writers in the English language This selection covers the full range of Mansfield's fiction from her early satirical stories to the subtly nuanced comedy of The Daughters of the Late Colonel and the macabre and ominous A Married Man's Story. The stories that pay what Mansfield calls a debt of love to New Zealand are as sharply etched as the European stories and she recreates her childhood world with mordant insight. Disruption is a constant theme whether the tone is comic, tragic, nostalgic or domestic, echoing Mansfield's disrupted life and the fractured expressions of Modernism. This new edition increases the selection from 27 to 33 stories and prints them in the order in which they first appeared in the definitive texts established by Anthony Alpers.

The Little Girl Katherine Mansfield, 1924      The Complete Works of Katherine Mansfield: Short Stories, Poetry, Letters, Diary, Essays Katherine Mansfield, 2024-01-13 In The Complete Works of Katherine Mansfield readers are invited into the intricate tapestry of one of the most significant writers of the early 20th century. This comprehensive collection encompasses Mansfield's short stories, poetry, letters, diary entries and essays, showcasing her modernist style characterized by its psychological depth and vivid imagery. Mansfield deftly captures the complexities of human emotions, drawing readers into often ephemeral moments that illuminate her characters' inner lives. With influences from the likes of Virginia Woolf and the New Zealand landscape of her youth, Mansfield's work resonates with the themes of transience and self-discovery, firmly establishing her voice in the modernist literary canon. Katherine Mansfield (1888-1923), a New Zealand-born author, spent much of her life in Europe, particularly in England. Her experiences of expatriation and the constraints of societal expectations profoundly shaped her literary output. Mansfield's focus on female subjectivity and her innovative narrative techniques reflect her commitment to portraying the subtleties of everyday life. Her struggles with personal relationships and health also influenced her poignant writing style, creating an intimate connection between her life and her art. For those seeking a profound exploration of human experience through the lens of modernist literature, The Complete Works of Katherine Mansfield is an essential addition to any bookshelf. This collection not only highlights Mansfield's exceptional talent but also offers insight into the rich tapestry of her thoughts and experiences, making it a valuable resource for both scholars and general readers alike.

Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction Laura Oulanne, 2021-05-30 Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction provides a fresh approach to reading material things in modern fiction, accounting for the interplay of the material and the cultural. This volume investigates how Djuna Barnes, Katherine Mansfield and Jean Rhys use the short story form to evoke the material world as both living and lived and how the spaces they create for challenging gendered social norms can also be nonanthropocentric spaces for encounters between the human and the nonhuman. Using the unique knowledge created by literary works to spark new conversations between phenomenology, cognitive studies and new materialisms complemented with a feminist perspective this book explores how literature can touch the basic experience of being in feeling and making sense of a material world that is itself alive and active From a sensitive reading of how three women used the material world to make their readers see feel and question the norms shaping our experience this volume draws a theory of reading affective materiality that illuminates modernism and the short story form but also reaches beyond them The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999
