MAKE ROOM IN YOUR HEART FOR TRUE DIVINE LOVE Kalisha N.

Stansell,2021-10-07 My personal journey of love and relationships taught me some pretty hard lessons in love in which some of them I share with you in this book Through these lessons I have learned that all relationships have come to teach you a lesson in love and the first lesson is to love ourselves I used to depend on others for true love and happiness This is until I learned that relationships are solely meant to add to the love and happiness you already have After I discovered this I began to look within to heal the little girl within who didn't feel loved And who was also looking for love in all the wrong places In this book I take you through a journey of healing letting go and releasing all that no longer serves you through the freedom power of forgiveness so you may have room in your heart to receive true divine love I hope you will find the information contained in this book useful to assist you on your healing journey Love and Justice Reinhold Niebuhr,1992-01-01

From the Trade Paperback edition The Thirst of God Wendy Farley, 2015-09-04

There is a rich tradition of wonderful women and other contemplatives who are great resources for thinking differently about Christianity. They emphasized divine love, human compassion, and the radical possibilities of contemplative practices. They were not afraid to criticize the church and indeed thought of their challenge as crucial to their faith. We do not have to lose faith with the beautiful wisdom of this story of intimate and compassionate love dwelling among us and within us if we do not want to. From the acknowledgments and note to readers: To those seeking a more open, progressive approach to Christian faith, the Christian past can sometimes seem like a desert, an empty space devoid of encouragement or example. Yet in the latter years of the Middle Ages, a quiet flowering of a more accessible, positive approach to Christian belief took place among a group of female mystics, those who emphasized an immediate, nonhierarchical experience of the divine. In this enlightening volume, Wendy Farley eloquently brings the work of three female mystics, Marguerite Porete, Mechthild of Magdeburg, and Julian of Norwich, into creative conversation with contemporary Christian life and thought. From alternatives to the standard violent understandings of the atonement to new forms of contemplation and prayer, these figures offer us relevant insights through a theology centered on God's love and compassion. Farley demonstrates how these women can help to refresh and expand our awareness of the depth of divine love that encompasses all creation and dwells in the cavern of every human heart.
