Something Inside Conversations With Gay Fiction Writers:

Something Inside Philip Gambone, 1999 In the last twenty years gay literature has earned a place at the American and British literary tables spawning its own constellation of important writers and winning a dedicated audience No one though until Philip Gambone has attempted to offer a collective portrait of our most important gay fiction writers This selection of interviews attempts just that and is notable both for the depth of Gambone's probing conversations and for the sheer range of important authors included Allen Barnett Christopher Bram Peter Cameron Bernard Cooper Dennis Cooper Michael Cunningham Brad Gooch Joseph Hansen Scott Heim Andrew Holleran Alan Hollinghurst Brian Keith Jackson Randall Kenan David Leavitt Michael Lowenthal Paul Monette Michael Nava David Plante John Preston Lev Raphael Edmund White Gay Fiction Speaks Richard Canning, 2001-01-18 Today's most celebrated prominent and promising authors of gay fiction in English explore the literary influences and themes of their work in these revealing interviews with Richard Canning Though the interviews touch upon a wide range of issues including gay culture AIDS politics art and activism what truly distinguishes them is the extent to which Canning encourages the authors to reflect on their writing practices published work literary forebears and their writing peers gay and straight Edmund White talks about narrative style and the story behind the cover of A Boy's Own Story Armistead Maupin discusses his method of writing and how his work has adapted to television Dennis Cooper thinks about L A AIDS Try and pop music Alan Hollinghurst considers structure and point of view in The Folding Star and why The Swimming Pool Library is exactly 366 pages long David Leavitt muses on the identity of the gay reader and the extent to which that readership defined a tradition Andrew Holleran wonders how he might have made The Beauty of Men more forlorn romantic lost by writing in the first person Gay Male Fiction Since Stonewall Les Brookes, 2008-09-22 Arguing that gay fiction is torn between assimilative and radical impulses this study focuses on fiction by White Holleran Leavitt Cunningham Hollinghurst Cooper Mars Jones and others positing the existence of two distinct strands of gay fiction where opposing impulses are at work within individual texts Chicano Detective Fiction Susan Baker Sotelo, 2015-03-10 In his 1985 novel Partners in Crime writer Rolando Hinojosa introduced homicide investigator Rafe Buenrostro the first Chicano protagonist in one of the most enduring genres of modern literature Since that time Chicano writers have embraced the detective novel successfully diversifying and refining a traditional Anglo American and British genre The 21 whodunits of Hinojosa Rudolfo Anaya Lucha Corpi Michael Nava and Manuel Ramos are closely studied in this groundbreaking work The models both contemporary and Romantic of this relatively new Chicano genre are first discussed Next come detailed analysis and reviews of such novels as Shaman Winter Partners in Crime Cactus Blood and 18 others focusing on how each writer departs from contemporary detective genre formula uniquely rendering a particular regional or cultural variation of what it means to be Chicano It is this departure from the norm that defines these writings and distinguishes them from the Anglo American and British whodunit Interviews with the writers conclude the work The Gay Detective Novel Judith A.

Markowitz,2015-02-16 Gertrude Stein called it the only really modern novel form that has come into existence yet the mystery genre was a century old before it featured its first gay main character in a novel Since then gay and lesbian detective fiction has been one of the fastest growing segments of the genre It incorporates gay and lesbian cultural elements and offers crossover appeal Its authors call upon a century of development in the mystery genre while providing new more accurate images of lesbians and gay men than generally found in mainstream literature and popular media This groundbreaking study of gay and lesbian detective fiction examines mystery series and historically significant stand alone novels published since the early 1960s Part I is an overview that describes how these novels make gay and lesbian life visible and forge new powerful images It also examines how they fit into the larger history of mystery fiction The series analyses in Part II are grouped according to the type of main character police officer private investigator amateur sleuth etc Each section discusses main and secondary characters of that type characteristic themes for the group and more The analyses of individual series cover main characters themes plot points and other elements Comments from authors interviewed for this book play a central role in those analyses Part III lists series spanning themes e g homophobia the closet gay marriage and the novels and series that address each of those themes

Imagined Non-Jews Ohad Reznick,2024-08-05 Racial passing has fascinated thousands of American readers since the end of the nineteenth century However the phenomenon of Jews passing as gentiles has been all but overlooked This book examines forgotten novels depicting Jewish Americans masquerading as gentiles Exploring two waves of publications of this subgenre in the 1940s 1950s and 1990s 2000s this book raises questions about the perceptions of Jewish difference during these periods Looking at issues such as Whiteness Americanness gender and race it traces the changes in the representation of Jewish identity during the second half of the twentieth century and the beginning of the new millennium Ohad Reznick's Imagined Non Jews is an important intervention in the scholarship on the literature of passing This book also makes a significant contribution to Jewish American literary studies through thoughtful close readings of texts from the 1940s and 1950s many of them little known today as well as multi ethnic American fiction from the turn of the 21st century all of them featuring characters who conceal their Jewishness in order to pass for gentile Lori Harrison Kahan Boston College author of The White Negress Literature Minstrelsy and the Black Jewish Imaginary Eminent Outlaws Christopher

Bram, 2025-05-01 This standard text of the defining era of gay literati tells the cultural history of the interconnected lives of the 20th century's most influential gay writers Philadelphia Inquirer In the years following World War II a group of gay writers established themselves as major cultural figures in American life Truman Capote the enfant terrible whose finely wrought fiction and nonfiction captured the nation's imagination Gore Vidal the wry withering chronicler of politics sex and history Tennessee Williams whose powerful plays rocketed him to the top of the American theater James Baldwin the harrowingly perceptive novelist and social critic Christopher Isherwood the English novelist who became a thoroughly American novelist And the exuberant Allen Ginsberg whose poetry defied censorship and exploded minds Together their writing introduced America to gay experience and sensibility and changed our literary culture But the change was only beginning A new generation of gay writers followed taking more risks and writing about their sexuality more openly Edward Albee brought his prickly iconoclasm to the American theater Edmund White laid bare his own life in stylized autobiographical works Armistead Maupin wove a rich tapestry of the counterculture queer and straight Mart Crowley brought gay men's lives out of the closet and onto the stage And Tony Kushner took them beyond the stage to the center of American ideas With authority and humor Christopher Bram weaves these men's ambitions affairs feuds loves and appetites into a single sweeping narrative Chronicling over fifty years of momentous change from civil rights to Stonewall to AIDS and beyond Eminent Outlaws is an inspiring illuminating tale one that reveals how the lives of these men are crucial to understanding the social and cultural history of the American twentieth century (Un)Veiling Sexual Identities Davide

Passa, 2024-08-30 This study situated within the field of Language and Sexuality Studies investigates the characterisation of fictional gay men in 21st century British drama The research is based on a corpus of 61 plays staged between 2000 and 2020 which collectively feature 187 gay male characters The study employs methodological triangulation to explore the corpus from three distinct perspectives moving from broad trends to more detailed analyses The first section offers an overview of 20th and 21st century British drama featuring gay characters identifying general trends in the portrayal of homosexuality in contemporary British theatre The second section delves into the 187 fictional gay characters classifying them according to both sociolinguistic variables such as age social class and linguistic variety and variables specific to Language and Sexuality

Studies including levels of openness about their sexuality and their distinctive use of gayspeak The final section takes an eclectic approach providing a multifaceted analysis of the gayspeak observed in the corpus This is done through both manual analysis and a corpus assisted approach using Lancsbox software The primary goal of this section is to evaluate whether the features of gayspeak identified in earlier studies persist in the contemporary plays under examination
