Holy Tears Kimberley Christine Patton, John Stratton Hawley, 2018-06-26 What religion does not serve as a theater of tears Holy Tears addresses this all but universal phenomenon with passion and precision ranging from Mycenaean Greece up through the tragedy of 9 11 Sixteen authors including many leading voices in the study of religion offer essays on specific topics in religious weeping while also considering broader issues such as gender memory physiology and spontaneity A comprehensive elegantly written introduction offers a key to these topics Given the pervasiveness of its theme it is remarkable that this book is the first of its kind and it is long overdue The essays ask such questions as Is religious weeping primal or culturally constructed Is it universal Is it spontaneous Does God ever cry Is religious weeping altered by sexual or social roles Is it perhaps at once scripted and spontaneous private and communal Is it indeed divine The grief occasioned by 9 11 and violence in Afghanistan Iraq Israel and elsewhere offers a poignant context for this fascinating and richly detailed book Holy Tears concludes with a compelling meditation on the theology of weeping that emerged from pastoral responses to 9 11 as described in the editors interview with Reverend Betsee Parker who became head chaplain for the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner of New York City and leader of the multifaith chaplaincy team at Ground Zero The contributors are Diane Apostolos Cappelletti Amy Bard Herbert Bassler Santha Bhattacharji William Chittick Gary Ebersole M David Eckel John Hawley Gay Lynch Jacob Ol pqn with Sol Aj b d Betsee Parker Kimberley Patton Nehemia Polen Kay Read and Kallistos Ware

What Do You Think About? S T Kimbrough, 2022-07-12 The poems in this volume seek to stimulate us to think about the things that we tend to push aside questions and issues that it is easier to avoid They also encourage us to think about those things events places etc that are sources of joy achievement and sorrow Generally they do not address the philosophy of thought but rather the results of our thinking and how we evaluate the value of our thoughts At times many things surface that tend to move our thinking in different directions Each of the six sections of poems is prefaced with a question What do you think about yourself What do you think about time What do you think of what you think What do you think really matters What do you think makes you smile What do you think of love
