say goodbye, even when it hurts.
Maybe that's the only way to appreciate the hellos.

dread washes over me I have no idea why My body tenses at the touch I try to pull away but I can't move the way I want It feels like I'm fighting my way through mud thick and heavy weighing me down The voice calls out again I think it's a woman's I turn my head to the side and force my eyes to open blinking slowly A face hovers over me their features blurred What I croak The voice that comes out of my mouth doesn't sound like mine The voice doesn't respond Something drapes over my shoulders and a figure walks in front of me and drops to their knee It is a woman I can see her face now I can see the color of her eyes a deep dark brown that begs me to find comfort in them but I can't shake the feeling that something is wrong I try to focus on her face She has thick brows and a crooked nose broad and covered in freckles Focus Focus I try to tell myself before a high pitched ringing tears through my eardrums Are you okay Her voice is quiet as if she's trying not to break me with her words I want to nod I can't comprehend why she's looking at me like this where I am why I'm wrapped in a rough cotton blanket why I'm so cold I scrutinize my surroundings as my head clears and I try my hardest to remember How did I get on the ground Rows of shiny plastic wrapped snacks fill my line of sight and a long fluorescent tube lamp above me swings back and forth I think I'm in a gas station I wipe my face with my arm and glance down Is this my arm Every part of me feels unfamiliar I shake my head trying to collect myself I'm okay I slur realizing that she's staring down at me with that searching expression Squinting I focus on the mass of blue and brass before me as she gets to her feet Why are you here I ask her trying to take another glance around the room I must have missed something Something important She puts her hands under my arms hauling me to my feet She's stronger than I expected My knees falter as I attempt to straighten my body I stop struggling as she gently shushes me and lowers me back to the ground It's cold Please don't vomit on this nice lady Her voice is soft but firm What's your name
