Sieling, In this series of essays exvangelical A J Sieling takes us on a deeply personal journey out of the darkness of a religion that could never see her Drawing from the Parable of the Prodigal Son she shares her story not as the celebrated youngest son nor as the begrudging elder brother but as the sister invisible overlooked and ultimately liberated Weaving through the pain of being unseen and taken for granted in a community that preached unconditional love these essays explore resentment trauma and the path to healing With candid reflections marked by raw honesty and bold choices Sieling maps out the emotional landscape of leaving behind a world where she was always present but never acknowledged This book isn't about proving points or winning arguments It's about tracing feelings back to their roots and finding freedom in the realization that sometimes invisibility can be a gift the very thing that allows you to walk away to heal and to find happiness with or without religion
