The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23. This all-inclusive A-Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5,000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre (i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc.) as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

Eel Question Nicola Davies, 2020-05-01. Bound to serve a cruel master, Nant's curiosity never fails to get her into trouble. Her dreams of a life beyond her marshland home intensify each autumn when the silver eels return along with her questions: Where do they come from? And where do they go? The last in a series of six illustrated folk tales for children which explore the supernatural world inspired by ancient folk tales and a love of nature. Be ready to feel a little bit of magic and perhaps a few shivers down the spine. Written by Nicola Davies and illustrated by Beth Holland. This unusual mythic feeling story is one of a series of tales from Welsh publisher Graffeg that explore the deeper and sometimes darker side of our connection with the natural world. Nant finds herself at the mercy of a witch hunt and the story explores themes of ignorance and curiosity with a deft and gentle hand. As ever, Davies' love of the natural world is obvious and her writing sings with a dark exuberance. BookTrust. These stories ask as many questions as they answer and highlight the strong ties that exist between nature and mankind; they beg us to seek a little deeper. Thought provoking, haunting, and swimming with the diverse beauty of the natural world. Mary Esther. Judy. Fallen Star Stories.

Season of Blood Fergal Keane, 1996-04-25 When President Habyarimana's jet was shot down in April 1994, Rwanda erupted into a hundred-day orgy of killing which left up to a million dead. Fergal Keane travelled through the country as the genocide was continuing and his powerful analysis reveals the terrible truth behind the headlines. A tender, angry account. As well as being a scathing indictment, Keane says the genocide inflicted on the Tutsis was planned well in advance by Hutu leaders; this is a graphic view of news gathering in extremis. It deserves to become a classic. Independent.

She fought prejudice, suspicion, hatred, sadness and all the things that drive people apart. Sister Thea Bowman, a pioneering leader of interracial relations, brought the experience of growing up a black girl in the civil rights era, Mississippi, to a convent of white Catholic sisters in Wisconsin and then to the world beyond. Her groundbreaking work across the United States and overseas, helping people to build interracial bridges during the 1980s, has been the subject of numerous articles, books and TV shows. 1980-1988 Thea is among the founders of the Institute for Black
