

A Song for Ireland

Song from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Walking all the day,

Near tall towers where falcons build their nests.

Silver-winged they fly,

They know the call of freedom in their breasts.

Saw black head against the sky,

Where twisted rocks, they run to the sea.

Chorus:

Living on your western shore,

Saw summer sunsets, asked for more.

I stood by your Atlantic sea,

And I sang a song for Ireland.

Drinking all the day,

In old pubs where fiddlers love to play.

Saw one touch the bow,

He played a reel which seemed so grand and gay.

Stood on Dingle beach and cast.

In wild foam we found Atlantic bass.

Chorus.

Talking all the day,

With true friends who try to make you stay.

Telling jokes and news,

Singing songs to while the time away.

Watched the Galway salmon run,

Like silver dancing, darting in the sun.

Chorus.

Dreaming in the night,

I saw a land where no-one had to fight.

Waking in your dawn,

I saw you crying in the morning light.

Sleeping where the falcons fly,

They twist and turn, all in your rare blue sky.

Song Of Ireland:

Song of Ireland Juilene Osborne-McKnight, 2006-05-02 The Sons of Mil long held the dream of the Island of Destiny close to their hearts A dream perhaps but to these restless adventuring people it was a shining emerald prize to be won by those who were brave or foolhardy enough to sail to the very ends of the known world For the Bard Amergin and his people that dream comes true When they land safely on the shores of this enchanted isle they know that they have won the favor of their gods In joy they begin to build their settlement Soon it is clear that they are not alone in this green and pleasant land their fellow inhabitants are the secretive Danu a people who resonate power and mystery in abundance As Amergin negotiates with the Danu so that both peoples may peacefully share the island's wealth he sees their beauty their wisdom and their love for the land And one more thing Amergin's second sight shows him that the Danu are not human At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied A Song for Ireland Mary O'Hara, 1987

The Song of Ireland, 1970 Narrative Singing in Ireland Hugh Shields, 2010 Narrative Singing in Ireland is a definitive account of Irish traditions of singing as a storytelling art Of interest to scholars and general readers this book examines the varied associations of song and story in Ireland and why people sing as they do It ranges from ballads in English through Irish Heroic songs of Fionn mac Cumhaill Deirdre the Big Fool and others sung from earliest times to the present to ballads of European tradition with the lyric songs of Irish Written in a lively and entertaining style it includes chapters on Irish narrative singing in general lays ballads old and new the lyric songs of Irish and their stories singers and songmakers traditional singing and the media and narrative singing today The Song Lore of Ireland Redfern Mason, 1911 The Concert Song Companion Charles Osborne, 2012-12-06 W H A T I H A V E attempted in this book is a survey of song the kind of song which one finds variously described as concert art or sometimes even classical song Concert song seems the most useful certainly the least inexact or misleading of some descriptions especially since art song sounds primly off putting and classical song really ought to be used only to refer to songs written during the classical period i e the 18th century Concert song clearly means the kind of songs one hears sung at concerts or recitals Addressing myself to the general music lover who though he possesses no special knowledge of the song literature is never theless interested enough in songs and their singers to attend recitals of Lieder or of songs in various languages I have naturally confined myself to that period of time in which the vast majority of these songs was composed though not necessarily only to those composers whose songs have survived to be remembered in recital programmes today I suppose this to be roughly the three centuries covered by the years 1650 1950 though most of the songs we as audiences know and love were composed in the middle of this period in other words in the 19th century The Song Lore of Ireland Redfern Mason, 1911 Journal of the Royal Historical and Archaeological Association of Ireland Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland, 1879 Index of archaeological papers published in 1891 under the direction of the Congress of Archaeological Societies in union with the Society of Antiquaries

The John Ireland Companion Lewis Foreman, 2011 John Ireland 1879-1962 was one of the most distinctive and distinguished of a generation of exceptional British composers that included Vaughan Williams, Gustav Holst, Frank Bridge and Arnold Bax. They emerged in the decade before the First World War and in the inter-war years produced a remarkable body of music. In Ireland's case, his was not only the most popular British Piano Concerto of its time but he also composed a splendid repertoire of songs, piano music, chamber music and orchestral and choral scores. This richly illustrated Companion will be essential for all admirers of the composer. Not only for the performer, pianist, singer, conductor but for the wider musical public, record collectors and music historians, academics and anyone interested in British music of the earlier twentieth century. The author has drawn on his extensive research into Ireland's life and letters over many years and in association with the John Ireland Charitable Trust has not only commissioned a wide range of chapters from leading performers and writers of today but has brought together in one convenient format Ireland's own writings on music, the memories of his friends and students including Britten, Moeran and Arnell and a selection of important earlier articles. The Companion also includes a complete list of works and the most comprehensive discography of Ireland ever compiled. The accompanying CD contains historical recordings featuring the voice of John Ireland with two of his broadcast talks as well as otherwise unobtainable performances of Ireland's music from the composer himself and from other well-known performers of the past.

The Atlas of Wintering Birds in Britain and Ireland Peter Lack, 2010-11-30 This companion volume to The Atlas of Breeding Birds of Britain and Ireland is derived from surveys of birds present in Britain and Ireland during the three winters 1981-82, 1982-83 and 1983-84. The surveys were organised by the British Trust for Ornithology and the Irish Wildbird Conservancy as were the earlier breeding birds surveys. The Winter Atlas maps 200 species, 192 of which have full page two-colour maps faced by a page of text. The texts, written by over 100 specialists, comment on the survey results, the species generally and the distribution and abundance as mapped. In addition, there are introductory chapters on the maps, the weather in the three winters, bird patterns and movements and appendices describing the planning, organisation, field methods and processing of the survey data from record cards to computer output and maps. A team of 23 artists led by Robert Gillmor has provided the line drawings which head the species accounts.
