Feasting on the Word David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2009-07-01. With this new lectionary commentary series Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day, Epiphany, Holy Week, and All Saints Day. For each lectionary text, preachers will find four brief essays, one each on the theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical challenges of the text. This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion. The editors and contributors to this series are world class scholars, pastors, and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions. And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary, each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its contents.

The Emergent Psalter Isaac Everett, 2009-05-01 Isaac Everett's Emergent Psalter is clearly a work of love Springing from the life of a young emergent congregation it embodies the best of old and new and it is a sign of maturity in our important movement Tony Jones author of The New Christians Dispatches from the Emergent Frontier Many alternative and emerging church communities have begun exploring ancient music and liturgical traditions despite a lack of high quality published liturgical music which does not require or even desire an organ and a four part choir The Emergent Psalter serves to provide that resource The psalter itself consists of musically notated antiphon melodies with chord symbols followed by the printed psalm text which is read aloud Featuring music written for two emerging communities Transmission in New York and Church of the Apostles in Seattle this book is an excellent resource for anyone producing alternative worship service or thinking of starting one

When Christians Pray the Psalms Lucien Deiss, 2005 You Are There Robert Campbell, 2016-04-08 You are There Restoring Churches People and Places is a pastoral conversation about creation care It is a pastoral voice shepherding Christian people in Christian churches towards discipleship that is all the way down to the dirt In it you will find a pastor with time to talk with you and walk with you so that the fruit of the redemption earned by Jesus life death and resurrection will make a real and substantial difference in your very own backyard This book is not actually about you it's about us as local churches Each local church should care about its place because the church is where God uses the gospel to restore people and God's restored people restore both people and places This is what we mean by creation care You church are a gathering of people defined by your faith in Jesus and the dirt you walk on You are a people sent to that place This is why it is good news that you are there

Sacramental Commons John Mason Hart, Leonardo Boff, Thomas Berry, 2006-07-27 The increasing awareness of environmental issues as ultimately moral issues has led to the intersection of religion and environment Sacramental Commons presents a unique way of looking at this topic by relating the Christian word sacrament signs of divine presence to the term commons shared place and shared goods among people and between people and the natural world suggesting that local natural settings and local communities can be a source for respect and compassion Sacramental Commons uses Earth oriented biblical teachings and ideas from such thinkers as Hildegard St Francis John Muir and Black Elk to provide insights about divine immanence in creation human commitments to creation and human accountability to the Spirit Earth and biotic community It extends the concept of natural rights beyond humans to include all nature and affirms intrinsic value in ecosystems in whole and in part Sacramental Commons declares that the Earth commons and its goods should be shared equitably by human communities and individuals living in interdependent relationships with other members of the community of life It suggests essential values that will stimulate care for the commons and embodies them in principles of an innovative Christian Ecological Ethics
